Blues vs Hurricanes

Super Rugby Pacific 2024

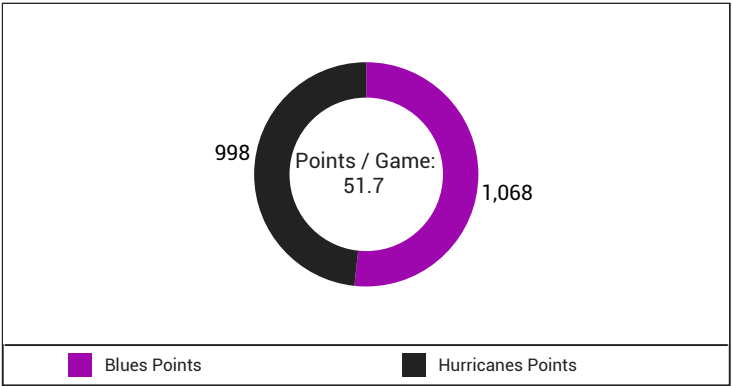

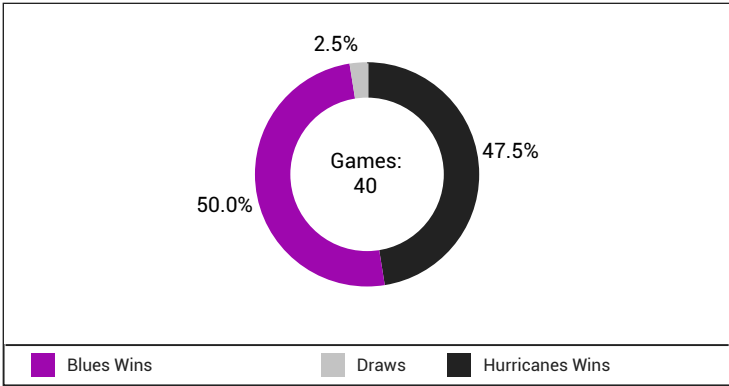

Opta Facts

- The Hurricanes will be aiming for back-to-back wins against the Blues in Super Rugby for the first time since June 2019, following their 29-21 victory when they last met in Super Rugby Pacific earlier this season (9 March 2024).
- The Blues have won their last three matches in Super Rugby competitions against the Hurricanes at Eden Park, as many as they won across their nine meetings at the venue prior to that span (W3 L6).
- The Blues have won their last 10 matches in Super Rugby Pacific at Eden Park, conceding only 7.5 points per game across their last six games in that span; in fact, since the beginning of February 2020, the Blues have won 27 of 31 matches at Eden Park, with only the Crusaders (four times) beating them at the venue.
- The Blues have won their last seven Super Rugby Pacific matches; before this current run they'd won seven consecutive matches on six previous occasions in their Super Rugby history, but only twice have they managed to extend that run (W12 in 1997, W15 in 2022).
- The Hurricanes and the Blues sit first and second respectively in the Super Rugby Pacific standings this year, both recording nine wins from 10 matches; the Hurricanes' solitary defeat this campaign came against the ACT Brumbies in their most recent away match, while the Blues' only loss came against the Canes in Round 3.
- The Hurricanes have scored the most first half tries in Super Rugby Pacific this season (30), with only the Blues (8) conceding fewer tries in the opening half of matches than the Hurricanes (10) in 2024; the Blues have scored the most second half tries of any side this campaign (27).
- The Blues have an average ruck speed of 2.89 seconds in attack in Super Rugby Pacific this year, the fastest rate of any team, while only the Crusaders (3.31) and ACT Brumbies (3.42) have a slower ruck speed than the Hurricanes (3.27).
- The Blues have averaged 141 carries per game in Super Rugby Pacific this year, more than any other team, while the Hurricanes average the second most (124); they are the only teams to average 200+ metres in contact per game this campaign (Blues 205, Hurricanes 204) and the only sides to average 10+ offloads per game (Hurricanes 12.3, Blues 10.9).
- The Blues' Hoskins Sotutu has scored nine tries this Super Rugby Pacific season, the joint most of any player (also Sevu Reece), while he's assisted a further five tries – no forward has assisted more (level with Harry Wilson); Sotutu has averaged 7.9 metres per carry this campaign, the best rate of any forward in the competition (min. 50 carries).
- Hurricanes hooker James O'Reilly has found a teammate from 31 of his 32 lineout throws in Super Rugby Pacific this year, his 97% lineout success rate is the best of any player to attempt more than five throws.
