SUPER RUGBY PACIFIC JUDICIAL UPDATE: ROUND 16

FALETOI PENI SUSPENDED FOR THREE WEEKS

The Super Rugby Pacific Foul Play Review Committee (FPRC) has found Moana Pasifika centre Faletoi Peni guilty of a dangerous tackle in contravention of Law 9.13.

The dangerous play, for which Peni received a second yellow card and was cited, occurred in the 63rd minute of the Round 16 match between the ACT Brumbies and Moana Pasifika at GIO Stadium, Canberra.

The FPRC determined that the act of foul play merited a mid-range entry point of six weeks/matches.

In light of Peni's acceptance that he committed an act of foul play, as well as mitigating factors such as his disciplinary record and remorse, the FPRC applied a fifty per cent reduction in the sanction.

Peni has been suspended from all forms of the game for three weeks, which will apply to the fixtures below.

*Peni was also given permission to apply to take part in World Rugby's Coaching Intervention Programme as a substitute for the final match of the sanction.
