

ASAFO AUMUA ISSUED WARNING

Player: Asafo Aumua

Team: Hurricanes

Position: Hooker

Date of Incident: 15 March 2024

Nature of Offence: Law 9.13: A player must not tackle an opponent early, late or dangerously. Dangerous tackling includes, but is not limited to, tackling or attempting to tackle an opponent above the line of the shoulders even if the tackle starts below the line of the shoulders.

Elapsed time in match when incident occurred: 00:15

Asafo Aumua of the Hurricanes has been issued a Warning by the Citing Commissioner for alleged foul play during a Super Rugby Pacific match at the weekend.

Aumua is alleged to have contravened Law 9.13: A player must not tackle an opponent early, late or dangerously, during the match between the Crusaders and Hurricanes at Apollo Projects Stadium in Christchurch on 15 March 2024.

Aumua has been issued with a Warning for his actions. A Warning may be issued by a Super Rugby Pacific Citing Commissioner for foul play incidents that are very close to, but in their opinion do not meet the Red Card threshold.
