MESSAGE FROM THE SANZAR CEO, GREG PETERS

Hello all and welcome to Super Rugby 2013!

Last year saw the highly successful conference format continue for the second season, becoming the most watched (both live at ground and on television) Super Rugby competition after seventeen years of being the Southern Hemisphere's preeminent rugby showpiece.

The 2012 season also saw a healthy 16% increase in overall viewing numbers across the three Conferences, while ground attendance jumped by 4% across the board.

The Chiefs became just the sixth team to win the competition, beating the Sharks in a pulsating Super Rugby Final.

The Game Measures, key benchmarks to track the game, performed beyond expectations this season based on pre-season targets.

These measures, put in place with consultation with coaches and referees, yielded some outstanding results.

The ball was in play just under 35 minutes a match, completed 'first hit' scrums sat at 60% (up 15% from 2011), while this season kicks in play were at just 41 a game (compared with 72 in the 2009 Super Rugby competition).

We continue to review Super Rugby with key stakeholders, ensuring that the competition continues to serve up some of the best rugby action you can see!

We will also continue to utilise new trials, including the successful white card seen in 2012 Super Rugby, while extra powers to the TMO will see Super Rugby be at the forefront of innovation to the game.

The 2013 season is a historic one that sees the introduction of the Southern Kings from South Africa.

The Southern Kings will take the place of the Lions, giving the Eastern Province region of the Republic representation for the first time.

This Super Rugby season will also see some unique rounds of action featuring Australian teams only, with the 2013 British and Irish Lions Tour meaning the competition will start a week earlier for the Conference, also giving Australian sides an extended break in June.

As always a bumper campaign is ahead, and we extend best wishes to all Franchises, players, coaches and referees for a fantastic Super Rugby 2013 and to the media, thank you for your on-going support of Super Rugby and spreading the action to the fans.

We look forward to enjoying the new season with you.

COMPETITION INFORMATION

The Super Rugby tournament comprises 15 teams – five each from Australia, New Zealand and South Africa.

This season Super Rugby welcomes the Kings as the three-Conference system features for the third season. The Kings, based in Port Elizabeth and in the Eastern Province region of South Africa, replace the Lions, who finished at the bottom of the South African Conference in the 2012 season.

The tournament features a three-Conference system where the teams in each country make up nationally-based Conferences and play their four 'local' rivals on a home and away basis (eight games in total). They will also play four of the five teams in each of the other two Conferences on a home and away basis (another eight games).

During the Regular Season, each team will play a total of 16 matches and will have two byes.

In each country the teams will be ranked in separate Australian Conference, New Zealand Conference and South African Conference tables.

In the overall competition standings, the three Conference leaders will occupy the top three places, followed by the three next-best "wildcards", from any of the Conferences, based on their log points.

After the completion of the Regular Season, a three-week Super Rugby Finals Series will take place involving the three Conference winners and the three best-placed "wildcards", irrespective of the Conference in which they are based.

The teams ranked 1 and 2 have a bye during the first week of the Finals Series with the teams ranked 3 to 6 taking part in Qualifiers to secure a place in the Semi-Finals. Teams 1 and 2 will host home semi-finals against the two qualifier winners.

With the Conference winners ensured of home advantage, at least one Finals Series match will be played in each country each year.

In 2013 the regular season will be extended to 20 rounds, with specific Australian Conference only rounds, and specific New Zealand and South African Conference rounds, which will accommodate the British and Irish Lions Tour to Australia.

In June the competition will break for each respective country's inbound Tests series.

SUPER RUGBY 2013 AT A GLANCE:

- 125 matches will be played during the Regular Season
- 40 Regular Season matches will be played in each country
- There will be 20 Regular Season 'local derbies' in each country
- 50% of all Regular Season matches will be 'local derbies'
- Each team will play 12 of its 16 Regular Season games within its own country – with only four matches overseas

COMPETITION RULES

CONFERENCES

The Super Rugby competition will consist of 15 Teams across three Conferences as follows:

NEW ZEALAND CONFERENCE "NZC"	AUSTRALIAN CONFERENCE "AC"	SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE "SAC"
Blues	Brumbies	Bulls
Chiefs	Rebels	Cheetahs
Crusaders	Reds	Kings
Highlanders	Waratahs	Sharks
Hurricanes	Western Force	Stormers

REGULAR SEASON

Each Team will play 16 matches during the Regular Season with eight matches played at home venues and eight matches played at away venues. The opposition for these matches will be determined as follows:

- Internal Conference Matches – a team will play each of the four other teams in its Conference on two occasions meaning a total of eight Internal Conference Matches. With one match against each team played at a home venue and one match played at an away venue this will result in four home matches and four away matches;
- Cross Conference Matches – a team will play four of the five teams from each of the other Conferences on one occasion meaning a total of eight Cross Conference Matches. For the four teams from the other conferences two of these matches will be played at a home venue and two matches will be played at away venues for a total of four home and four away.

POINTS TABULATION

Competition points will be awarded in all Regular Season matches on the following basis:

- Win 4 points
- Draw 2 points
- Loss 0 points for loss of more than 7 points
- Bonus 1 point for loss by 7 points or less
- Bonus 1 point for 4 tries or more
- Bye 4 Points

SANZAR will maintain and publish the following official competition tables:

- Separate Conference competition tables for the AC, NZC and SAC;
- A combined Super Rugby Standings table showing the 15 teams in order as determined by the Conference Tables.

DETERMINING REGULAR SEASON TABLE PLACING AND SUPER RUGBY FINALS SERIES QUALIFICATION

TIE BREAKING RULES

In the event of two or more teams being equal on competition points for any position on either the Conference or Super Rugby Standings tables, either during or at the end of the season, such position will be decided upon using the following steps until the tie is broken:

- Most wins from all matches;
- Highest aggregate points difference from all matches;
- Most tries from all matches;
- Highest aggregate difference of total tries for versus tries scored against from all matches;
- Coin toss.

Six teams will qualify for the Finals Series at the conclusion of the Regular Season as follows:

- Conference Winners: the team in each of the AC, NZC and SAC with the highest number of competition points will be the Conference Winner for the respective Conference and will qualify for the Finals Series. The three Conference Winners will receive a Finals Series Ranking as follows:
 - The team with the highest number of competition points will have a Finals Series Ranking of 1;
 - The team with the second highest number of competition points will have a Finals Series Ranking of 2;
 - The team with the third highest number of competition points will have a Finals Series Ranking of 3.
- Wildcard Teams: the remaining three Finals Series places will be allocated to the three non-Conference Winning teams with the highest number of Super Rugby table competition points regardless of the Conference in which the team plays. The three Wildcard Teams will receive a Finals Series Ranking as follows:
 - The team with the highest number of competition points will have a Finals Series Ranking of 4;
 - The team with the second highest number of competition points will have a Finals Series Ranking of 5;
 - The team with the third highest number of competition points will have a Finals Series Ranking of 6.

SUPER RUGBY FINALS SERIES FORMAT

The Super Rugby Finals Series will be played over three weeks and involve six matches in the following format:

FINALS WEEK	MATCH	NAME	HOME TEAM		AWAY TEAM
1	A	Qualifier Match	Rank 4	v	Rank 5
	B	Qualifier Match	Rank 3	v	Rank 6
2	C	Semi-Final	Rank 2	v	Winner of matches A or B with highest Finals Ranking
	D	Semi-Final	Rank 1	v	Other winner from matches A or B
3	E	Final	Winner of matches C or D with highest Finals Ranking		Other winner from matches C or D

DETERMINING WINNERS OF SUPER RUGBY FINALS SERIES MATCHES

If the teams are tied at fulltime in any Finals Series Match then the following will apply until a winner is found:

- (a) Extra Time – played in two 10 minute periods with a two-minute half-time
- (b) Sudden Death – played for up to 10 minutes with the first team to score declared the winner
- (c) Kicking Competition

MATCH CANCELLATIONS AND ABANDONMENT

In the event of a Match having to be cancelled or abandoned for any reason whatsoever, the following procedure shall apply:

- (i) In the event of a match being cancelled prior to match day, SANZAR will decide, based on all facts, the outcome of the match. The SANZAR Operations Manager will prepare a detailed report to the SANZAR CEO for consideration by the SANZAR Executive Committee.
- (ii) Where a match has been abandoned either at half-time or at any time in the second half the result shall stand;
- (iii) Where a match has been abandoned during the first half the result shall be declared as a draw; and
- (iv) In the case of a Final, should the match be abandoned in the first half; the finalists shall become the joint winners.
- (v) In the case of a Semi Final, including in the case of a draw resulting from (iii) above, the following shall apply;
- (vi) The Team scoring the most tries in the semi-final will be declared the winner.
- (vii) If the Teams are still tied after applying (a) above, the winner will be the Team with the higher Playoff Ranking following the Regular Season.

MATCH OFFICIALS

All referee appointments for Super Rugby matches will be made by the SANZAR Referee Selectors. These will be advised in 3-4 week blocks, as the competition unfolds. The appointment process is based on “merit selection”. Where possible, the Selectors have agreed to avoid a referee appointed to his home franchise.

Some of the information contained in this section has been summarised. Please contact SANZAR or your national union for the full text of these rules and policies and to seek further information on the rules.

- Dan Palmer needs 15 more games to have 50 Super Rugby caps

JAKE WHITE – HEAD COACH

Born: 13.12.63

Brumbies Rugby 2011 – present
Coaching Debut: Springboks 2003

Other Coaching Roles: SA Under 21's,
South African National Team 2003-2007
(World Cup Winning Coach)

With more than 20 year's experience, which has taken him to success around the globe, White led the University of Canberra Brumbies out of the wilderness in 2012 to the cusp of the Super Rugby finals.

Starting from scratch, White restructured the entire rugby program in Canberra, surrounding himself with industry pace-setters like Dean Benton (Athletic Performance Coach), Laurie Fisher (Forwards Coach), Stephen Larkham (Backs Coach) and Tony Thorpe (Team Manager).

In less than 12 months, White took the Brumbies from Super Rugby strugglers to a team capable of challenging for the title. The Brumbies rugby program is once again attracting top-line players, with the world's best open-side flanker David Pocock joining the ACT based side last June.

STEPHEN LARKHAM – BACKS COACH

Born: 29.05.74

Brumbies Rugby – backs coach 2011 – present

Other Coaching Roles: Nil

One of the greatest fly-halves to ever play the game is quickly developing into a first-class backs coach. Now in his third year as the University of Canberra Brumbies back's mentor, Stephen Larkham has made the transition from player to coach seamlessly, with the 2012 backline humming throughout the season.

Watching Christian Lealiifano carve up defensive lines in 2012, Brumbies fans could have been forgiven for thinking they were watching their side from a decade earlier. Larkham has had a profound influence on Lealiifano's game, as well as Matt Toomua and Zack Holmes, helping the young playmakers with decision making and supplying their backline with opportunity.

LAURIE FISHER – FORWARDS COACH

Born: 25.04.58

Brumbies Rugby 2001 – present

Other Coaching Roles:

1999-2001 – Brumby Runners Head Coach
 1999-2001 – ACT President's XV Head Coach
 2000-2002 – Australian Universities Head Coach
 2000-2003 – Brumbies Academy Coach
 2002-2003 – Canberra Vikings Head Coach
 2002-2003 – Brumby Runners Head Coach
 2003-2004 – Australian Under 21's Head Coach
 2004 – Brumbies Forwards Coach
 2005-2008 – Brumbies Head Coach
 2009-2011 – Munster Forwards Coach
 2012-2013 – Brumbies Forwards Coach

Laurie Fisher was born in Canberra and is the former Head coach of the ACT Brumbies, in charge of the team between 2005 and 2008.

He began his coaching career with the Brumbies in 2000 when he was appointed Head Coach of the Brumbies Rugby Academy and later assumed control of the Brumby Runners and the Canberra Vikings.

Fisher's contribution and devotion to the Brumbies as an assistant coach saw them earn success from 2000 as semi finalists, two time finalists and two time champions.

In February 2011 Munster Rugby announced that Laurie Fisher will end his association with the Irish Province at the close of the current season. During his time at the Irish Province, Munster have won the Magners League title, contested two Heineken and one Magners League semi final.

Laurie returned to Australia and is now Jake White's forwards coach.

BEN ALEXANDER – PROP

Physical: 1.89m, 120kg

Born: 13.11.84

Province/Club: Uni-Norths Owls

Super Rugby Caps: 63

Super Rugby Points: 80 (16t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Reds, Canberra

Test Caps: 45

Test Points: 15 (3t)

Test Debut: 2008 v France, Sydney

Since bursting onto the scene in 2008, Ben Alexander has become Australia's most dependable prop.

Equally as efficient at either loose or tight-head, Alexander has clocked up 63 Super Rugby caps in record time and is fifth on the University of Canberra Brumbies all-time consecutive games-played list, behind George Smith, Bill Young, Nic Henderson and George Gregan.

A regular Wallaby since making his debut in 2008, Alexander will shoot for 50 Test caps while on spring tour. Alexander has had a steady influence over the national side for the last four years and is now a veteran of four European Spring Tours, countless inbound Tests and the 2011 Rugby World Cup in New Zealand.

FOTU AUELUA – NO.8

Physical: 1.89m, 115kg

Born: 29.01.84

Province/Club: Western Districts, ACT

Super Rugby Caps: 7

Super Rugby Points: 5 (t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Rebels, Canberra

A knee injury suffered in late 2011 while playing with NTT Communications in Japan held Auelua's debut back until week eight of the 2012 competition against the Rebels where Jake White threw the Samoan powerhouse into the deep end to start at No.8.

From there, Auelua played another six games throughout 2012, scoring his first career try in front of his family at Westpac Stadium in the University of Canberra Brumbies first win in Wellington over the Hurricanes since 2003.

Originally a league player who starred for the Parramatta Eels aged grade teams, Auelua was picked up by Trinity Grammar School in 2001 before switching to The Southport School on the Gold Coast midway through 2002.

SAM CARTER – LOCK

Physical: 2.00m, 115kg

Born: 10.09.89

Province/Club: Canberra Royals

Super Rugby Caps: 16

Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Rebels, Canberra

Playing 15 games in 2012, Carter has emerged as a long-term option for Jake White in the University of Canberra Brumbies lock stocks.

Linking with his second-row partner Scott Fardy against the Hurricanes in Wellington, Carter scored a cracking try, his second in New Zealand having earlier touched down against the Chiefs in week four.

Carter is an aggressive ball carrier who gets through plenty of work. He is regularly among the team's top tackle makers and has worked hard at his set piece play throughout 2012. Props like having him on their back at scrum time, while his vertical elevation at line-out time makes his lifter's job a whole lot easier.

ROBBIE COLEMAN – UTILITY BACK

Physical: 1.79m, 84kg

Born: 03.08.89

Province/Club: Queanbeyan Whites

Super Rugby Caps: 25

Super Rugby Points: 20 (4t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Reds, Canberra

Now in his third season of professional rugby, Robbie Coleman is one of Australia's most dangerous attacking options in broken play.

A slight player at just 1.79m and 84kg, what Coleman lacks in size he makes up for in pace off the mark and elusiveness. Over 40m Coleman is among the fastest players the Brumbies have ever had on their books providing him with ample opportunity to get over the try-line in 2013.

The 2010 Australian Under 20's Player of the Year was a world IRB Under 20's nominee in the same year, which he capped off with a silver medal at the Delhi Commonwealth Games in the men's sevens team.

TOM COX – WING

Physical: 1.79m, 91kg

Born: 04.10.88

Province/Club: Uni-Norths Owls

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Pound for pound, Tom Cox is the quickest player the University of Canberra Brumbies have ever had on their books.

Brumbies fans were treated to glimpses of his speed during 2012 when the elusive winger was let loose against the Force in Darwin and again against Wales at Canberra Stadium.

On both occasions, Cox showed his brilliant best in open space, blitzing his opposite numbers through traffic to claim valuable metres.

COLBY FAINGAA – FLANKER

 Physical: 1.82m, 96kg

 Born: 31.03.91

 Province/Club: Tuggeranong Vikings

 Super Rugby Caps: 18

 Super Rugby Points: 0

 Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Chiefs, Canberra

Colby Faingaa will be looking to bounce back in 2013 after a series of injuries kept him sidelined for the majority of 2012.

Despite being one of the strongest of the University of Canberra Brumbies forwards during his brief appearance in 2012, Faingaa spent the majority of the season working hard to get himself out of a moon boot and into something with studs.

The 2011 Australian Under 20's skipper has been earmarked as a future Wallaby since making his Brumbies debut against the Chiefs in 2010. A strong ball runner and gap-proof defender, Faingaa has all the qualities elite coaches are looking for when selecting a loose forward.

SCOTT FARDY – FLANKER

 Physical: 1.98m, 112kg

 Born: 05.07.84

 Province/Club: Western Districts, ACT

 Super Rugby Caps: 16

 Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)

 Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Force, Canberra

After years of running close to top gear, Scott Fardy blew the cogs out of his transmission in 2012 claiming 16 Super Rugby caps in what was his most rewarding season to date.

A hard grafter with an admirable work ethic, Fardy has had half starts with the Waratahs and Western Force Academy systems but couldn't break into either club's game day 22.

A last chance EPS contract at the University of Canberra Brumbies saw Fardy handed a final role of the dice in 2012, with the bearded bushranger from the beaches providing the ACT based side with a tireless work horse.

ZACK HOLMES – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.75m, 87kg
Born: 30.05.90
Province/Club: Tuggeranong Vikings
Super Rugby Caps: 8
Super Rugby Points: 89 (2t, 8c, 21p)
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Chiefs, Mt Maunganui

A standout debut season with the University of Canberra Brumbies has thrust Zack Holmes into the spotlight as the talented playmaker prepares to stake his claim on a starting spot for the 2013 Super Rugby season.

After featuring heavily for the Brumbies during their 2012 trial matches in Darwin and Cairns, Holmes made his Super Rugby debut against the Chiefs in New Zealand, ironically the same side his father had played for just over a decade earlier.

Injuries to Matt Toomua and Christian Lealiifano provided plenty of opportunity for Holmes in 2012. He took his chances with both hands, including an eye catching starting debut against the Hurricanes in Wellington that netted him 22 points and Man of the Match honours.

PETER KIMLIN – FLANKER/LOCK

Physical: 1.98m, 114kg
Born: 11.07.85
Province/Club: Western Districts, ACT
Super Rugby Caps: 60
Super Rugby Points: 25 (5t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Stormers, Canberra
Test Caps: 2
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2009 v Italy, Canberra

Eclipsing 50 caps against the Reds in Brisbane during 2012 was a just reward for Kimlin after overcoming a series of character defining injuries earlier in his career.

The powerful lock-come-flanker has re-established himself as one of Australia's premier big forwards, consistently leading the pack over the advantage line thanks to his trademark line-breaks.

At almost two metres tall, Kimlin proves incredibly hard to handle when given space and moves faster over 40m than any other University of Canberra Brumbies forward. A local boy out of the prestigious Canberra Grammar School, Kimlin has been representing the ACT since he was a junior, through the Under 16's, Schoolboys and into the Brumbies Academy.

TEVITA KURIDRANI – WING / CENTRE

Physical: 1.92m, 102kg

Born: 31.03.91

Province/Club: Queanbeyan Whites

Super Rugby Caps: 9

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Reds, Brisbane

After drawing comparisons to Lote Tuqiri in 2012, Tevita Kuridrani will be looking to capitalise on his size and strength to stamp authority over the University of Canberra Brumbies outside backs in 2013.

From the first glimpses Brumbies fans were treated to of Kuridrani during the trial game against the Force in Darwin, the Fijian native has not failed to live up to his hype, cutting through defensive lines and causing wingers and fullbacks headaches whenever he's involved with play.

Kuridrani's extra-long legs allow him to glide past would-be defenders while a deadly fend and subtle left-foot step are enough to keep the best of defenders second guessing.

CHRISTIAN LEALIIFANO – FLYHALF / CENTRE

Physical: 1.79m, 92kg

Born: 24.09.87

Province/Club: Tuggeranong Vikings

Super Rugby Caps: 52

Super Rugby Points: 169 (5t, 21c, 32p, 2dg)

Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Crusaders, Christchurch

Christian Lealiifano is one of the most talented playmakers the University of Canberra Brumbies have ever produced.

His leadership through the early rounds of 2012 proved invaluable for the most inexperienced Brumbies backline in more than a decade. Following a season ending injury to Matt Toomua against the Sharks, Lealiifano blossomed in the No 10 jersey creating opportunities for outside backs like Henry Speight, Joe Tomane, Jesse Mogg and Andrew Smith to shine.

Of the last four Super Rugby seasons, Lealiifano has suffered year-ending injuries three times, with the latest a nasty ankle break against the Waratahs 10 games into the 2012 season.

JOSH MANN-REA – HOOKER

Physical: 1.81m, 105kg

Born: 19.02.81

Province/Club: Gungahlin Eagles

Super Rugby Caps: 1

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Stormers,
Cape Town

Josh Mann-Rea returned to Australian rugby and the Waratahs in 2012 after three successful years in the Japanese Top-League with Kyuden Voltex in Fukuoka.

A strong, bullocking ball-runner, Mann-Rea adds experience to the Brumbies squad having been on the professional rugby circuit for more than a decade. One of three hookers in the Brumbies stocks for the 2013 season, Mann-Rea has played with several of his new team mates while part of Waratahs Academy in 2006, including Dan Palmer and Scott Fardy.

PAT MCCABE – UTILITY BACK

Physical: 1.86m, 94kg

Born: 21.03.88

Province/Club: Western Districts, ACT

Super Rugby Caps: 52

Super Rugby Points: 169 (5t, 21c, 32p, 2dg)

Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Crusaders,
Christchurch

Test Caps: 21

Test Points: 15

Test Debut: 2010 v Italy, Florence

Pat McCabe is Australia's most trusted defensive back and an expert at reading lines and angles.

In just his fourth professional season, McCabe has risen to household name status thanks largely to his selfless efforts in Wallaby green and gold. The 2011 Rugby World Cup in New Zealand was an impressive show of courage and character from McCabe as he battled through the tournament with the use of only one shoulder.

McCabe's subsequent shoulder reconstruction ruled him out of the 2012 season opener against the Force but he made a successful return the following week against the Cheetahs at Canberra Stadium, scoring a try and reproducing some of his brilliant best.

JESSE MOGG – FULLBACK/WING

Physical: 1.87m, 90kg

Born: 08.06.89

Province/Club: Western Districts, ACT

Super Rugby Caps: 16

Super Rugby Points: 37 (4t, c, 5p)

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Force, Canberra

In just 12 months, Jesse Mogg has developed from a standout club competitor to a player on the brink of earning a start with the Wallabies.

Known as the Greyhound for his slender build and long stride, Mogg's ability to break the line saw him score the University of Canberra Brumbies try of the season in 2012, with a chip- and-regather finish against the Sharks at Canberra Stadium. It was one of four tries he scored during his debut season after being handed an EPS spot in the months prior to the 2012 kick-off.

STEPHEN MOORE – HOOKER

Physical: 1.86m, 112kg

Born: 20.01.83

Province/Club: Easts, ACT

Super Rugby Caps: 100

Super Rugby Points: 25 (5t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2003 v Bulls, Pretoria (Reds)

Test Caps: 74

Test Points: 20 (4t)

Test Debut: 2005 v Samoa, Sydney

Knocking over his 100th Super Rugby cap at Canberra Stadium against the Blues last year, Stephen Moore cemented himself as Australia's premier hooker.

The disappointment of narrowly missing the finals was slightly alleviated when Moore's efforts throughout 2012 were recognised by his peers, who named him the Brett Robinson Player's Player. It was a worthy addition to his trophy cabinet, which also features the Brumbies Best Forward Award for the 2011 season.

BEN MOWEN – NO.8/FLANKER

Physical: 1.95m, 115kg

Born: 01.12.84

Province/Club: Tuggeranong Vikings

Super Rugby Caps: 63

Super Rugby Points: 20 (4t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Sharks, Durban

Having led the University of Canberra Brumbies out of the wilderness in 2012, Ben Mowen has been hailed as the Super Rugby buy of the season.

A hard-working, big forward who can feature in any jersey numbered 4 to 8, Mowen's leadership skills were vital in guiding one of the most inexperienced Brumbies sides ever assembled through the 2012 season.

After playing 42 games for the Waratahs, Mowen made a seamless transition to the Brumbies and was quickly identified by Jake White as a leader of the group. Having sharpened his captaincy skills while on tour with the Waratahs and as an Australian Under 21 representative, Mowen made the perfect fit for skipper of a new team with plenty to prove.

RUAIDHRI MURPHY – PROP

Physical: 1.87m, 119kg

Born: 05.07.87

Province/Club: Gungahlin Eagles, ACT

Super Rugby Caps: 16

Super Rugby Points: 5 (t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Force, Canberra

Brumbies front-rowers enjoyed heavy northern hemisphere influence in their scrummaging throughout 2012, with Irish native Ruaidhri Murphy cementing himself in the match day 22 from week one of the season.

Serving a tough scrummaging apprenticeship in the United Kingdom with Exeter and Ireland with Leinster, Murphy came to the University of Canberra Brumbies attention at the Talent Identification Camps held in Narrabeen last August.

ETIENNE OOSTHUIZEN – LOCK

Physical: 1.98m, 120kg

Born: 22.12.92

Province/Club: Easts, ACT

Super Rugby Caps: 3

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Cheetahs,
Bloemfontein (Lions)

Etienne Oosthuizen is a big, strong lock with ambitions to one day wear Wallaby gold for Australia.

South African born and bred Oosthuizen fits the bill for what Jake White is looking for in a lock – big, powerful and aggressive. 2013 presents Oosthuizen with his first taste of Australian rugby having represented South Africa's Northern provinces for the majority of his life as a junior, first with the Leopards and then with the Lions.

DAN PALMER – PROP

Physical: 1.80m, 115kg

Born: 13.09.88

Province/Club: Gungahlin Eagles

Super Rugby Caps: 37

Super Rugby Points:

Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Highlanders,
Dunedin, (Waratahs)

Test Caps: 1

Test Points: 0

Test Debut: 2012 v Scotland, Newcastle

One of the University of Canberra Brumbies hard men, Dan Palmer has quickly developed into a player the ACT based team could not do without.

Named as one of three vice-captains for the 2012 Super Rugby season, Palmer has led by example since joining the Brumbies in 2011. As one of Australia's premier minds on scrummaging and set piece, Palmer has taken on extra responsibility in 2012 by leading all scrum sessions from the white board, to video analysis and onto the pitch.

By nature, Palmer is a no-nonsense, cut to the chase sort of guy. Palmer does not suffer fools lightly and expects maximum effort from everyone he works with, both on and off the field.

DAVID POCOCK – FLANKER

Physical: 1.84m, 104kg
Born: 13.09.88
Province/Club: Easts, ACT
Super Rugby Caps: 69
Super Rugby Points: 40 (8t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Sharks, Durban (Force)
Test Caps: 45
Test Points: 20 (4t)
Test Debut: 2008 v New Zealand, Hong Kong

The University of Canberra Brumbies will continue their trend of world class open-side flankers in 2013 with the addition of David Pocock to an already ferocious forward pack.

Widely regarded as the best No 7 on the planet, Pocock comes to the Brumbies looking to refresh his career after seven years playing with the Western Force in Perth.

A renowned leader both on and off the field, Pocock's recruitment has been hyped as one of the biggest coups in Brumbies history. Strong in contact and a master of controlling the breakdown, Pocock's game is set to improve even further under the Brumbies coaching structure, with Jake White and Laurie Fisher eager to see him reach his potential.

LEON POWER – LOCK

Physical: 2.00m, 115kg
Born: 27.02.86
Province/Club: Queanbeyan Whites
Super Rugby Caps: 7
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Force, Canberra

Power by name, power by nature – it's a mantra this hulking, Kiwi-raised lock has chosen to live by since moving to the Australian Capital in early 2012.

A former New Zealand Under 21's representative who starred for the aged grade All Blacks alongside Wallaby Sekope Kepu in 2007, Power has worked hard to fit into the University of Canberra Brumbies way of life claiming seven Super Rugby caps along the way.

Returning to New Zealand and ITM Cup side the Bay of Plenty after the 2012 Super Rugby season, Power has improved in areas of his play and is now an unshakeable part of the Brumbies forward play.

IAN PRIOR – SCRUMHALF

Physical: 1.79m, 83kg

Born: 21.08.90

Province/Club: Uni-Norths Owls

Super Rugby Caps: 19

Super Rugby Points: 5 (t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Lions,
Johannesburg (Reds)

Ian Prior is a mature, poised rugby player with the capacity to play professionally for many years to come.

A hard worker and good listener, Prior has worked hard to improve his game since moving to Canberra after the 2011 Super Rugby season. A former Reds scrumhalf who played understudy to Wallabies skipper Will Genia on their way to the 2011 title, Prior's quick service has allowed the University of Canberra Brumbies forwards to gain momentum at key points throughout the season.

In particular, his stirring efforts against the table-topping Highlanders at Canberra Stadium in 2012 backed the early hype that surrounded Prior's arrival from Lang Park.

CLYDE RATHBONE – CENTRE/WING

Physical: 1.81m, 93kg

Born: 23.06.81

Province/Club: Easts, ACT

Super Rugby Caps: 52

Super Rugby Points: 75 (15t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2002 v Crusaders,
Durban (Sharks)

Test Caps: 26

Test Points: 40 (8t)

Test Debut: 2004 v Scotland, Melbourne

Not since John Farnham's 'Farewell Tour' has an Australian comeback been so widely anticipated.

Once feared as the Wallabies toughest outside back, Clyde Rathbone will be hoping to regain some of the world-class form that saw him rise to the top of Australian rugby midway through last decade.

A strong ball carrier, Rathbone is best known for his aggressive presence around the field and tremendous leg strength. An able defender, Rathbone adds unshakable toughness to any side's backline having been bought up through the school of hard knocks in Durban, South Africa.

SILIVA SILIVA – HOOKER

Physical: 1.77m, 112kg

Born: 11.12.91

Province/Club: Canberra Royals

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Hard in contact and incredibly mobile for a front-rower, Siliva Siliva has the potential to play Super Rugby for many years to come.

2012 was a tough year for the young hooker, who despite being under the world class eyes of Stephen Moore, Dan Palmer and Ben Alexander, did not feature in a Super Rugby match thanks to multiple operations to fix a knee injury.

Making a return from the knee problems that plagued him early in the season, Siliva claimed his first state cap for the ACT playing against Wales at Canberra Stadium in their mid-week match. Coming off the bench, Siliva was competitive throughout the encounter, throwing well at the line-out and working hard around the field in attack and defence.

SCOTT SIO – PROP

Physical: 1.87m, 115kg

Born: 16.10.91

Province/Club: Tuggeranong Vikings

Super Rugby Caps: 4

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Sharks, Canberra

Scott Sio has the size, opportunity and ability to become one of Australia's leading props within the next three years.

Taking one of the University of Canberra Brumbies five EPS positions in 2012 gave Sio his first professional contract having spent the 2011 season in the Waratahs Academy, playing for Northern Suburbs in Sydney's Shute Shield.

Like fellow Brumbies Zack Holmes, Tom Cox and Ruiadhri Murphy, Sio was offered his spot on the Brumbies roster after impressing at the Talent Identification Camps in Narrabeen late last year.

JORDAN SMILER – FLANKER

Physical: 1.93m, 107kg

Born: 19.06.85

Province/Club: Easts, ACT

Super Rugby: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

A tall, athletic ball-runner and fearless defender, Jordan Smiler comes to the University of Canberra Brumbies after a successful career on the global Sevens circuit.

A former New Zealand Sevens squad member, Smiler switched his allegiances in 2011 to skipper the Australian side at the Oceania Championships in Samoa.

Having cut his teeth in Waikato's aged grade ranks, Smiler moved to Australia looking for greater opportunities.

ANDREW SMITH – CENTRE/WING

Physical: 1.94m, 104kg

Born: 10.01.85

Province/Club: Easts, ACT

Super Rugby Caps: 31

Super Rugby Points: 30 (6t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Blues, Auckland

Andrew Smith is a hard running outside centre with the ability to make metres over the advantage line.

At 1.94m and 104kg, bringing Smith down with a full head of steam is like trying to tackle a Harley Davidson. Making him even harder to defend is Smith's world-class ability to read the game, with the outside centre always looking for avenues to exploit a defender on the back foot or a big forward out of position.

In 2012, Smith formed a set of lethal backline combinations, both inside and out, that lead to tries from every corner of the rugby field. Linking with Joe Tomane against the Highlanders, Smith made the initial busts, putting one of Australia's best finishers in space and on his way to the try-line.

RUAN SMITH – PROP

Physical: 1.88, 123kg

Born: 24.01.90

Province/Club: Easts, ACT

Super Rugby: 2

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Blues, Auckland

Ruan Smith is a prolific junior representative prop who graduated from one of the world's toughest rugby nurseries in South Africa's Western Cape.

Switching between Brisbane and Cape Town during his late teens, Smith became one of few players to represent two countries at schoolboys' level when he was picked for the Australian and South African sides in consecutive years.

Since then he has been part of the Stormers, Reds and Force Academy systems, earning his first Super Rugby caps for the Western Australian franchise in 2012.

MARK SWANEPOEL – SCRUMHALF

Physical: 1.81m, 91kg

Born: 26.10.90

Province/Club: Canberra Royals

Super Rugby: 4

Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Bulls, Perth

Joining the University of Canberra Brumbies after two years in Canterbury with the champion Crusaders, Mark Swanepoel joins the ACT-based franchise with eyes on claiming the No 9 jersey.

A quick, strong scrumhalf who previously represented the Force at Super Rugby level, Swanepoel makes the move to Canberra with ambitions of working his way into the Brumbies starting side.

An aged-grade international who represented Australia at schools and Under 20's level, Swanepoel provides extra competition for the Brumbies halfback stocks of Ian Prior and Nic White while also providing extra cover.

HENRY SPEIGHT – WING

Physical: 1.86m, 97kg

Born: 24.03.87

Province/Club: Gungahlin Eagles

Super Rugby Caps: 28

Super Rugby Points: 55 (11t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Chiefs, Canberra

Henry Speight has quickly developed into one of the Southern Hemisphere's most dangerous outside backs. His eight tries in 2012 made him the highest try-scorer in not only the University of Canberra Brumbies ranks, but throughout all provinces in the Australian Conference.

Lightning-quick off the mark, Speight's deadly right-to-left double step is the envy of all outside backs. His ability to change direction at pace, stepping off either foot has handed the Brumbies five-pointers in some of the most unlikely circumstances.

With backs against the wall, Speight's tries against the Blues and Waratahs in 2012 clearly demonstrated his ability to find space in traffic, with both five-pointers handing the Brumbies breathing space at key points.

JOE TOMANE – WING

Physical: 1.88m, 101kg

Born: 11.02.90

Province/Club: Uni-Norths Owls

Super Rugby Caps: 12

Super Rugby Points: 20 (4t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Force, Canberra

Test Caps: 1

Test Points: 0

Test Debut: 2012 v Scotland, Newcastle

After just 12 Super Rugby games, Joe Tomane has been hailed as the most successful league convert since Lote Tuqiri joined the Waratahs in 2002.

A big, strong outside-back who can play outside centre, wing or fullback, Tomane put the competition on notice with two sensational tries against the Highlanders at Canberra Stadium, his first since returning to the game he grew up with.

The Nudgee College old boy was an Australian Schoolboys star in the same generation as James O'Connor, with the pair tearing Queensland's GPS competition apart as a flyhalf-fullback combination in 2007.

MATT TOOMUA – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.82m, 90kg

Born: 02.01.90

Province/Club: Canberra Royals

Super Rugby Caps: 29

Super Rugby Points: 20 (3t, c, dg)

Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Hurricanes, Canberra

At the ripe old age of 22, it feels like Matt Toomua has been playing professional rugby for decades.

A quality 10 with silky-smooth skills, Toomua makes the play making role look easy as he glides across the pitch looking for options. One of the University of Canberra Brumbies biggest lifters in the gym, Toomua is constantly working on his game, body and mind to ensure he is in perfect condition come game day.

Unfortunately for Toomua, 2012 was one he would personally rather forget with a serious knee injury sidelining him after just three games. It came as a massive blow to the aspiring young playmaker, who had turned in Man of the Match performances in two of the three trial matches played during Brumbies pre-season.

ITA VAEA – NO.8/FLANKER

Physical: 1.87m, 108kg

Born: 09.02.89

Province/Club: Gungahlin Eagles

Super Rugby Caps: 26

Super Rugby Points: 5 (t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Chiefs, Canberra

University of Canberra Brumbies powerhouse Ita Vaea will storm into his third year of Super Rugby in 2013 after claiming 27 caps over the last two seasons.

A born No.8, Jake White experimented with Vaea during 2012, moving the hulking Tongan from the back of the scrum to both blind and open-side flanker.

One of the most feared ball carriers in the competition, Vaea made his presence felt against the Sharks in Canberra last season, running over the top of Bismarck Du Plessi after a powerful fend to the champion hooker's sternum. It was a textbook Vaea play and one that bought the entire crowd at Canberra Stadium to its feet.

STEPHAN VAN DER WALT – OUTSIDE BACKS

Physical: 1.92m, 98kg

Born: 21.04.91

Province/Club: Easts, ACT

Super Rugby: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Another South African born Brumbies recruited for the 2013 Super Rugby season, Stephan Van Der Walt is a big physical outside back who would rather run over his opposition than around it.

After moving to Queensland from South Africa at the age of eight, Van Der Walt has made a name for himself in the Sunshine State as a powerful weapon in attack and solid defender. Primarily used as an outside centre or wing, Van Der Walt made his 1st Grade debut in Queensland alongside All Blacks Caleb Ralph and hasn't looked back since.

Van Der Walt has signed a one-year deal with the Brumbies and occupies one of five EPS positions with the club.

NIC WHITE – SCRUMHALF

Physical: 1.73m, 82kg

Born: 13.06.90

Province/Club: Queanbeyan Whites

Super Rugby Caps: 17

Super Rugby Points: 14 (1t, 3p)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Reds, Brisbane

Long known for its quality wines, the Hunter Valley has produced a different kind of vintage recently with talented playmakers exporting their freakish abilities to the rugby-crazy Australian public.

First it was rugby league magician Andrew Johns, then Wallabies playmaker Luke Burgess. But more recently Nic White has taken the mantle of the Hunter's most dynamic rugby success after a breakout season in the University of Canberra Brumbies No 9 jersey.

A boisterous scrumhalf, White has quickly developed into a key ingredient the Brumbies could not do without. Thrown in the deep end with three different fly-halves rotating through the starting side in 2012, White stuck to his processes and produced consistent, world class rugby.

- For the first time in history, the Melbourne Rebels will play the British and Irish Lions at AAMI Park Tuesday 25 June.
- Welsh International Gareth Delve will be the first player International player in Australian Super Rugby history to be officially named as Season Captain.
- 2013 will Wallaby Scott Higginbotham will make his debut for the Melbourne Rebels.

DAMIEN HILL – HEAD COACH

 Born: 02.12.70

 Rebels Coaching Debut: 2011

 Coaching: Suntory (Japan) Sydney University, Melbourne Rebels (current)

Damien began his Rugby coaching career at an early age, where he would watch his father, Brian, coach the Wagga City first hand as a 10 year old. Hill continued to play sport, although not Rugby, playing state representative honours in AFL, Rugby League and Soccer.

In 1999 Damien joined the ACT Brumbies Staff as a Development Officer, progressing into a Coaching Development role under Eddie Jones.

In 2002 Hill moved to Japan to become Coaching Coordinator and Backs Coach of Suntory Rugby Football Club, before returning to the Shute Shield with Sydney University, winning three consecutive premierships.

As the RaboDirect Rebels Head Coach Damien has been influenced by many great Rugby mentors, including former Wallaby and Japan National Coach Eddie Jones and Rebels foundation Head Coach Rod MacQueen.

JOHN MUGGLETON – SENIOR ASSISTANT COACH

 Born: 31.03.60

 Melbourne Rebels Coaching Debut 2012

 Coaching: Wallabies, USA National Team, Georgia National Team, Llanelli Scarlets (Wales), Queensland Reds, NSW Waratahs, ACT Brumbies, Melbourne Rebels (current)

John is a highly regarded coach who comes to the RaboDirect Rebels with experience coaching over 140 Tests. After a successful career with the Wallabies, USA, Llanelli Scarlets and most recently Georgia at the 2011 Rugby World Cup, his fourth as a coach, he returned to Australia regarded as one of the world's best coaches in his defensive field.

During his 10 years as the Wallabies' defence coach, John played a major role in winning five Bledisloe Cups, two Tri-Nations titles and the 1999 World Cup where the Wallabies conceded only one try throughout the tournament.

An accomplished Rugby League player in his own right, the Club's Senior Assistant was a member of the undefeated Australian Kangaroo tour of 1982 and won three premierships with the Parramatta Eels.

John's sons Jarrod and Joshua both display similar sporting prowess, with Jarrod excelling in soccer at the University of Alabama and Joshua in racing where he is among the top five in the world.

NATHAN GREY – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 31.03.75

Rebels Coaching Debut 2011

Super Points: 100 (20t)

Tests: 36

Test Points: 20 (4t)

Coaching: Kyushu Electric Power Company (Japan), Melbourne Rebels (current)

Upon finishing the 2005 season with the NSW Waratahs, Former Wallaby Nathan moved to Japan, where he played and coached with Kyushu Electric Power Company's team, Kyuden, for five years. In 2011, Nathan joined the RaboDirect Rebels as Skills Coach for the Club's inaugural season. In October 2011, he was promoted to the role of Assistant Coach, under Damien Hill.

As a player, Nathan was known as an aggressive go forward centre with strong defensive skills, and played 35 Tests over seven years for the Wallabies throughout his international career. He was part of the successful 1999 Rugby World Cup campaign, as well as a member of the 2003 World Cup squad. With 94 caps, Nathan holds the record as the most capped centre in NSW Waratahs history, and was renowned for his team first ethos and professionalism throughout his playing career, traits that he has carried into his young coaching career.

MATT COCKBAIN – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 19.09.72

Playing: State Caps: 91 (Reds)

Tests: 63

Test Points: 5 (1 Try)

Coaching: Queensland Reds, Melbourne University, Melbourne Rebels (Current)

Former Wallaby Matt Cockbain has been a welcome addition to Victoria, since his move from Brisbane to be a player for the original Rebels during the 2007 Australian Rugby Championships.

Matt enjoyed a successful professional career, which included 91 matches for the Queensland Reds and 63 Tests for the Wallabies. During his international career he participated in two World Cups, including the successful 1999 campaign under Rod Macqueen.

After retirement, Matt transitioned into coaching and was appointed as the Reds' lineout coach in 2007, before moving to Melbourne. Since then, Matt has taken up various coaching roles with Melbourne University Rugby Club and the Victorian State team.

In 2010, Matt formed part of the Rebel Rising coaching team and played a significant role in developing Rugby Union players within the Victorian community. It was through his work with grassroots Rugby and his technical expertise that Matt was appointed Assistant Coach of the RaboDirect Rebels for the 2012 season.

EDDIE AHOLELEI – PROP

Born: 03.12.81

Physical: 1.90m, 120kg

Province/Club: Northern, Melbourne

Super Rugby Caps: 1

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Brumbies, Canberra

Eddie's experience proves that good things come to those who wait. At 30 years of age, Eddie has been promoted from the Extended Playing Squad into the full-time RaboDirect Rebels Squad for 2013.

The Tongan Born: prop is able to play both sides of the scrum, and is regarded as having one of the best attitudes and work ethic at the Club.

Eddie offers great coverage to all of our props, and is also a fantastic role model for young Polynesian players in the local community.

PAUL ALO-EMILE – PROP

Born: 22.12.91

Physical: 1.81m, 119kg

Province/Club: Powerhouse, Melbourne

Super Rugby Caps: 2

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Lions, Johannesburg

In 2012, Paul played the final two games of the RaboDirect Rebels season, debuting as a replacement hooker on their tour of South Africa. At such a young age for a prop, Paul still has a lot of time to develop into a top class front row forward, although his rise has been rapid.

The 120kg prop arrived in Victoria with massive potential. A fixture in the Australian Under 20 squad in 2010 and 2011, Paul was a key member of the group that finished third in the Junior World Championships, alongside Rebels teammate, Luke Jones.

Known for his powerful scrummaging and remarkable athleticism for a man his size, Paul is earmarked for big things in the coming years.

Paul spent 2011 with the Western Force, but didn't manage to break through to the match day 22. He joined the Force after playing for Sunnybank in the Brisbane Premier Competition, during which he spent time with the Queensland Reds Academy.

KURTLEY BEALE – FLYHALF/FULLBACK

Born: 06.01.89
Physical: 1.80m, 90kg
Province/Club: Footscray, Melbourne
Super Rugby Caps: 78 (68 Waratahs)
Super Rugby Points: 407 (14t 74c 60p 3d)
Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Lions Johannesburg
Tests: 36
Test points: 80 (10t 10p)
Test Debut 2009 v Wales Cardiff

The kid they call 'KB' is recognised as one of the best Rugby players on the planet.

Kurtley's 2012 season was severely interrupted by injury, however despite playing just 10 games for the Rebels, he took out the Players' Player of the Year Award. Whether playing from fullback or Flyhalf, Kurtley's brilliance in breaking the line or putting a teammate through a defensive hole is extraordinary.

In recent times, the former Waratah back has received many accolades, including the John Eales Medal in 2011, and was nominated for the IRB Player of the Year in 2010.

He made his Super Rugby debut in 2007 at 18 years of age, and quickly asserted himself in the Super Rugby Competition. Later that year he competed for Australia A, then made his full international debut in 2009 where he was later honoured as Australia's Rookie of the Year.

TIM DAVIDSON – BACK ROW

Born: 03.11.82
Physical: 1.92m, 103kg
Province/Club: Melbourne University, Melbourne
Super Rugby Caps 39 (5 Western Force, 7 Waratahs, 27 Rebels)
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut 2006 v Hurricanes, Wellington

As the inaugural Club Captain (off-field leadership role) and one of the leaders within the playing group, Tim Davidson is a vital member of the RaboDirect Rebels squad. The industrious back rower has played in 27 of the Rebels' matches in the Club's two year existence.

With his calm assurance and wealth of experience from his time skippering the all-conquering Sydney University, Tim has played an important role establishing the culture of success in the Club's formative stages.

The Rebels are Tim's third Super Rugby club, after he debuted for the Western Force in 2006 and played with the Waratahs in 2007. He made five appearances with the Force and eight with the Waratahs before moving to English Premiership side Leeds Carnegie. The 29 year old has also played for the Australian Sevens.

GARETH DELVE – BACK ROW

 Born: 30.12.82

 Physical: 1.91m, 114kg

 Province/Club: Wyndam City, Melbourne

 Super Rugby Caps: 31

 Super Rugby Points: 20 (4t)

 Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Waratahs, Melbourne

 Tests: 11

 Test points: 5

 Test Debut: 2006 v Scotland, Cardiff

In 2013, Delve will take over from Stirling Mortlock as the RaboDirect Rebels Captain. Gareth has been a stand out recruit and one the most consistent performers for the RaboDirect Rebels since arriving from Gloucester in 2011.

The Welsh number eight was appointed Vice Captain for the Club's debut season in Super Rugby, and became the first non-Australian to Captain an Australian side in the Super Rugby Competition.

Furthermore, he is also the first – and thus far only – Welshman to take part in the Southern Hemisphere's premier provincial Rugby contest.

The Welsh international has only missed one match since joining the Rebels, even managing to get his name on the score sheet on three occasions in 2012. His ball carrying and breakdown work is respected enormously throughout the competition.

SCOTT FUGLISTALLER – BACK ROW

 Born: 16.04.87

 Physical: 1.83m, 101kg

 Province/Club: Footscray, Melbourne

 Super Rugby Caps: 2 (Highlanders)

 Super Rugby Points: 0

 Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Bulls, Dunedin

Scott joins the RaboDirect Rebels from ITM Cup side, the Wellington Lions.

At 101kg, Scott represents the traditional openside flanker, with great presence at the breakdown and an immense work rate around the park.

Fuglistaller waited patiently for his Super Rugby debut with his hometown team, Wellington, but seized an opportunity (through injury) to play a starring role with the Otago Highlanders late in the 2012 Super Rugby season.

A New Zealand under 19s representative in 2006, Scott has played 54 matches for Wellington since his debut in 2008. He will now look to be a permanent starter for the Rebels, after the departures of regular openside flankers Michael Lipman, and Tom Chamberlain. Scott has signed for a two year term with the Club, and is considered a developing foreign player, which demonstrates the faith shown in the ability of the Taranaki born flanker.

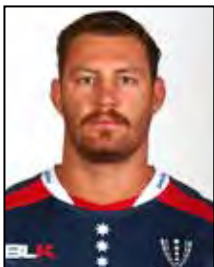

NIC HENDERSON – PROP

Born: 01.05.81
Physical: 1.87m, 112kg
Province/Club: Footscray, Melbourne
Super Rugby Caps: 103 (70 Brumbies, 8 Force, 25 Rebels)
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2004 v Blues, Canberra
Tests: 3
Tests Points: 0
Test Debut: 2004 v Pacific Islands, Adelaide

Foundation RaboDirect Rebel Nic Henderson was only the 11th player in the history of Super Rugby to play 100 Super Rugby matches at 31 years of age. The loosehead forward packed down in 10 matches for the 2011 season, following that with all but one of the 2012 matches.

Nic's career began in Melbourne in 1999, where he was part of the Melbourne Rugby League Club, the Melbourne Storm, before converting to Rugby Union. He debuted for the ACT Brumbies in their Premiership year of 2004 and, incredibly, featured in every Brumbies game until the end of the 2008 season.

On his departure from the nation's capital, Nic spent a season with the Western Force, before joining the Rebels and buying a house in Melbourne, a city he now calls home.

SCOTT HIGGINBOTHAM – BACK ROW

Born: 05.09.86
Physical: 1.95m, 110kg
Province/Club: Geelong
Super Rugby Caps: 63 (Reds)
Super Rugby Points 85 (9t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Bulls, Brisbane
Tests: 23
Test Points: 10 (2t)
Test Debut : 2010 v France, Paris

With the signing of Scott Higginbotham for the 2013 season, The RaboDirect Rebels acquired one of the brightest and most flamboyant forwards in world Rugby.

The 2012 Super Rugby Player of the Year runner up is the ultimate back row forward, with his exceptional vertical leap and robust nature in contact – which has caused havoc among his opposition since his debut in 2009.

Having experienced success at a young age with a Super Rugby title at the Queensland Reds, Scott has made his intentions clear – he wants to return to the Super Rugby summit with his new club in Melbourne.

SHOTA HORIE – HOOKER

 Born: 21.01.86

 Physical: 1.80m, 104kg

 Province/Club: Boroondara, Melbourne

 Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

 Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

 Tests: 19 (Japan)

 Test Points: 25 (5t)

 Test Debut: 2009 v Canada, Miyagi

The industrious hooker debuted for Otago in the 2012 ITM Cup, and was also part of the Japanese national side in the 2011 Rugby World Cup, where he played every game and scored a try against Canada in the group stages.

Shota spent two seasons with the Canterbury Academy in New Zealand, before returning to Japan in 2008 to play for the Sanyo Club where he won the Japan Top League, scoring eight tries in the process.

The Cherry Blossom hooker became the first Japanese player ever to sign with an Australian Super Rugby Club. He will be looking to make history in 2013, being the first Japanese player to ever play in the Super Rugby competition since its inception in 1996.

MITCH INMAN – CENTRE

 Born: 24.10.88

 Physical: 1.91m, 105kg

 Province/Club: Melton, Melbourne

 Super Rugby Caps: 31 (19 Force)

 Super Rugby Points: 0

 Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Brumbies, Perth

Mitch joined the RaboDirect Rebels at the start of the 2012 season. He was an immediate success, filling in for the injured Stirling Mortlock.

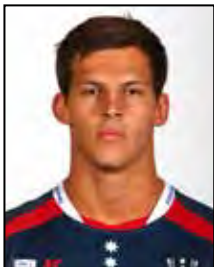

In 2012 Mitch was a standout player, in defence in particular, where he always leads by example.

His efforts were rewarded when Wallaby coach Robbie Deans called the young centre onto the Wallabies Spring Tour, where he fell agonisingly short of making his Wallaby debut.

Mitch is well known in Rugby circles for his time spent at Sydney University in the Shute Shield competition, where this year he won his fourth premiership. His first premiership was in 2008, alongside current Rebels Head Coach Damien Hill.

Before dominating the Australian Sevens arena, injury stunted any early success for Inman. An elbow injury and hamstring issues curtailed parts of his 2011 and 2012 seasons.

LUKE JONES – BACK ROW/LOCK

Born: 02.04.91
Physical: 1.96m, 110kg
Province/Club: Melbourne University, Melbourne
Super Rugby Caps 15
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Hurricanes, Wellington

Luke's 2012 season was a breakout year, where he displayed the same kind of talent witnessed in his 12 games as a young schoolboy sensation at St Pius.

Luke is the prototype modern forward. Tall enough to operate in the second row, he is also athletic and skilful enough to line up anywhere in the back row. He debuted for the Rebels as a blindside flanker, but in his next outing represented his Club as a lock.

Luke's season was crippled with misfortune. After stringing eight matches in a row and sustaining suspension, Luke suffered a ruptured volar plate in his foot, which he battled through until season's end before having it surgically corrected.

JAMES KING – LOCK/BACK ROW

Born: 16.03.87
Physical: 2.00m, 114kg
Province/Club: Moorabbin, Melbourne
Super Rugby Caps: 4 (Blues)
Super Rugby Debut: 2011, Auckland

2013 will be King's second season at the RaboDirect Rebels, after arriving from the New Zealand Super Rugby side, the Auckland Blues.

The New Zealand Born: lock will not be difficult to miss around the Club this year, standing at 2.00m tall and often sporting one of the game's most colourful scrum caps.

The 25 year old made his Super Rugby debut in 2011, making four appearances in total for the Blues as well as being a regular starter in the ITM Cup for North Harbour.

James' ride in Rugby has been rapid, with a breakout year in New Zealand in 2009. However, a raft of shoulder injuries since has stalled his progress as a Rugby player. Given his training efforts in the off season, it seems only a matter of time before he displays that same form when many were predicting him as a future All Black.

RICHARD KINGI – UTILITY BACK

 Born: 17.03.89

 Physical: 1.77m, 80kg

 Province/Club: Northern, Melbourne

 Super Rugby Caps: 27 (5 Reds)

 Super Rugby Points: 13 (1t, 4c)

 Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Crusaders, Christchurch

RaboDirect Rebel Richard Kingi is one of the competition's most underrated performers, easily claiming to be a specialist in every position in the backline.

Richard proved his versatility by making 12 appearances for the Rebels in the Club's debut season; half of which he began as the starting fullback, a quarter as a winger and the remaining three from the bench. He went on to play 10 matches in 2012 as he battled with Nick Phipps, although still made a massive contribution when given the chance.

Born: in New Zealand, Richard moved to Queensland when he was 15 and quickly became an integral part of his state and Australian representative sides. His performance for Australia at the IRB Junior World Championship in 2009 earned him a place on the shortlist for that year's world Junior Player of the Year.

PAT LEAFA – HOOKER

 Born: 16.03.89

 Physical: 1.81m, 108kg

 Province/Club: Box Hill, Melbourne

 Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

 Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

 Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

The young hooker joins the RaboDirect Rebels after being promoted from an Extended Playing Squad (EPS) following an outstanding off season in 2012, continuing from his club form in Canberra in that year.

Leafa moved from New Zealand to Canberra in 2012, taking up a spot in the ACT Brumbies Development Squad and playing for the Tuggeranong Vikings.

Having moved to Melbourne in September, Leafa has flourished in his new home town, and taken his Super Rugby opportunity with great enthusiasm. A scrumaging purist, Pat will be looking to bring a new approach to the hooking role in 2013, and has already captured the attention of Rebels Head Coach Damien Hill with his form at training and in his transition into the professional environment.

Although prolific in attack and defence, Pat's demeanour is the opposite off the training paddock, where he has already proven to be a Club favourite with his kind hearted approach to local charities and the Victorian Rugby community.

LACHLAN MITCHELL – CENTRE/WING

Born: 30.09.87

Physical: 1.78m, 96kg

Province/Club: Melbourne

Super Rugby Caps: 31

Super Rugby Points: 20 (4t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Waratahs, Melbourne

Tireless outside back Lachlan Mitchell may appear to be one of the quiet achievers at the RaboDirect Rebels, but both his teammates and the AAMI Park crowd certainly know his worth.

Playing as either a centre or a wing, the 25 year old appeared in 31 of a possible 32 games for the Rebels in their first two seasons. Only a sickening clash against the Hurricanes in Wellington (Mitchell was stretchered from the field), saw him miss the following week's game against the ACT Brumbies.

The composed back joined the Rebels from English Premiership side London Wasps, where he had been since 2008. Prior to that, Mitchell spent time with the Waratahs Academy following impressive performances for Sydney University in the Shute Shield.

CADEYRN NEVILLE – LOCK

Born: 09.11.88

Physical: 2.02m, 120kg

Province/Club: Eltham, Melbourne

Super Rugby Caps: 8

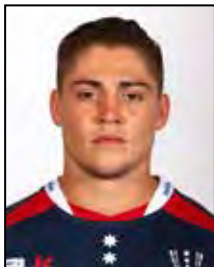

Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Bulls, Melbourne

Not many people in Super Rugby would have heard of the name Cadeyrn Neville early 2012, but after debuting in round eight against the Bulls at AAMI Park, he quickly established himself as one of the lock forwards of the Australian Conference.

Following his starting debut and the RaboDirect Rebels win over the Crusaders, Cadeyrn took the competition by storm in Perth, with two tries and a victory over the Western Force. He went on to play all remaining games for the Rebels in 2012, winning both the Rookie of the Year and Matt Cockbain Rebel Rising Medal at the end of year awards event.

Success followed his debut season, with a call up to Wallabies extended training squad during the mid-season Test fixtures against Scotland and Wales, which continued into the Rugby Championship and end of season Spring Tour.

JAMES O'CONNOR – FLYHALF / FULLBACK

 Born: 05.07.90

 Physical: 1.80m, 89kg

 Province/Club: Brimbank/Harlequins, Melbourne

 Super Rugby Caps: 46 (38 Force)

 Super Rugby Points: 204 (12t, 36c, 24p)

 Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Reds, Perth

 Tests: 37

 Tests Points: 201 (12t, 36c, 23p)

 Test Debut: 2008 v Italy, Padova

It's hard to believe RaboDirect Rebel James O'Connor is one of the youngest players in the squad, although he is rich beyond his years in experience. His blistering pace causes havoc when he lines up on the wing or at fullback, yet he has the leadership and creativity to play in a Flyhalf role. His strength and combative defensive technique make him a powerful centre, at 12 or 13. He is also the owner of one of Australia's most potent pair of boots, and is the Wallabies' first choice goal kicker.

In James' debut season with the Force in 2008, he became Super Rugby's youngest player at just 17 years of age. He debuted for the Wallabies later that year, becoming the second youngest Australian to pull on the famous gold jersey. In 2009, he became the first Wallaby to bag a hat trick of tries on his full run on debut. He capped off that stellar season being named the Australian Rookie of the Year.

NICK PHIPPS – SCRUMHALF

 Born: 09.01.89

 Physical: 1.80m, 87kg

 Province/Club: Maroondah, Melbourne

 Super Rugby Caps: 32

 Super Rugby Points: 25 (5t)

 Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Waratahs, Melbourne

 Tests: 12

 Test Points: 0

 Test Debut: 2011 v Samoa, Sydney

Now in his third year of Super Rugby, RaboDirect Rebel Nick Phipps is one of the competitions premier halfbacks. Nick's rise to fame was rapid. In 2010, Phipps was recruited by the Rebels out of third grade in the Sydney Shute Shield competition, with the intention to be part of a development plan for the Club's marquee halfbacks.

In his debut season, he was awarded the 2011 Super Rugby Rookie of the Year. He also received the inaugural Rebels Player's Player of the Year Award from his teammates, as their choice for the Club's best player that season.

Nick's rise through the ranks has been nothing short of meteoric. In 2009 he was part of Sydney University's successful program, which earned him a spot in the Australian Sevens Squad. Through this, he won a silver medal at the 2010 Commonwealth Games which later lead to a spot on the Wallabies Spring Tour, culminating in an appearance for the midweek side against Munster. This call up, although not a cap, made Nick the first RaboDirect Rebel to be selected for the Wallabies.

HUGH PYLE – LOCK

Born: 21.09.88

Physical: 2.01m, 117kg

Province/Club: Hume, Melbourne

Super Rugby Caps: 28

Super Rugby Points: 20 (4t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2001 v Cheifs, Waikato

RaboDirect Rebel Hugh Pyle is now in his third year of Super Rugby, where the flamboyant lock has established himself as one of Australia's most elusive and dynamic lock forwards.

Having played 12 matches in his rookie year, Hugh played every match for the Rebels last season and has blossomed into a young leader. In 2012, he was announced as Co-Vice Captain, and holds the responsibility of calling the Rebels lineout, whilst still only being 24 years of age.

Hugh's ability to carry and call lineouts makes the 2.01m lock a huge asset for the Rebels, along with his knack of finding the try line, where he has scored four tries in two seasons.

ANGUS ROBERTS – FLYHALF / FULLBACK

Born: 17.12.90

Physical: 1.86m, 92kg

Province/Club: Moorabbin, Melbourne

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Angus Roberts moves to the RaboDirect Rebels on a two year deal, with many Australian Club's chasing the promising 22 year old.

Although not decorated with representative honours, Angus is highly regarded amongst his Rebels peers, with many of the coaches claiming he is one of the most natural footballers they have ever seen at the Club.

Having played his junior Rugby Union in country New South Wales for the Gunnedah Red Devils, Angus went on to attend St Ignatius College where many tipped Angus to immediately progress through the grade system of Sydney. He had a different view, deciding to take a break from his studies to travel, whilst working as a Physical Education teacher in the UK.

GED ROBINSON – HOOKER

Born: 20.06.83

Physical: 1.78m, 105kg

Province/Club: Harlequin, Melbourne

Super Rugby Caps: 36 (6 Hurricanes)

Super Rugby Points 15 (3t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Waratahs, Wellington
--

RaboDirect Rebels hooker Ged Robinson appeared in every match of the Rebels debut season, followed by 14 of a possible 16 in 2012, gaining widespread acclaim for his industry and technique.

At the close of the 2011 campaign, Ged was honoured with the Spirit of Weary Dunlop Award in recognition of his dedication to the team's cause.

Before joining the Rebels, Robinson had made five appearances in Super Rugby with the Hurricanes, all in the 2009 season. This followed a breakthrough in 2010, seeing the Wellington Born: forward receiving a call up for the Junior All Blacks.

Now in his third season at the Club, Ged is firmly established as a Rebels leader, after gaining responsibilities during the Club's Development Tour of the UK and Ireland in 2011 and forming part of the 2012 game day strategy group.

ALEX ROKOBARO – FULLBACK/WING

Born: 06.10.89

Physical: 1.83m, 91kg

Province/Club: Harlequins, Melbourne

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

RaboDirect Rebel Alex Rokobaro returns to Super Rugby after a successful stint at French glamour club, Stade Français.

Alex began playing Rugby Union in his hometown of Adelaide, where he quickly became one of the state's brightest young stars.

His young Rugby journey took him to Brisbane, where he represented both Australian and Queensland Schools.

Alex again moved, relocating to Sydney, where he won a Colts Premiership for Sydney University as well as featuring in many of their grade triumphs. His success was rewarded by NSW Waratahs selectors, when he was drafted into their Academy system in 2010.

JARROD SAFFY – BACK ROW

Born: 24.10.84

Physical: 1.89m, 107kg

Province/Club: Melbourne

Super Rugby Caps: 24

Super Rugby Points: 15 (3t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Waratahs, Melbourne

Unfortunately for Jarrod an injury ruined his 2012 campaign, which saw him featuring in only seven games for the RaboDirect Rebels. However his form during this past off season would suggest that he will once again be a wrecking ball in Super Rugby.

A formidable ball carrier and pilferer, Saffy has one the highest work rates at the Club, with the back rower landing the most tackles of any player in the competition in 2011. Listed on the interchange bench for his debut, Jarrod quickly forced his way into the side, starting 13 of the remaining games, completing the full 80 minutes in nine of them.

Jarrod's success is not only limited to Rugby Union, but also in Rugby League, playing an integral role in the St. George-Illawarra Dragons 2010 NRL Premiership win.

RORY SIDNEY – CENTRE/WING

Born: 04.07.86

Physical: 1.88m, 100kg

Province/Club: Power House, Melbourne

Super Rugby Caps: 30 (26 Waratahs, 4 Force)

Super Rugby Points: 25 (5t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Reds, Brisbane

Sidey's Rugby Union rise has been unlike any other, but knowing Rory he would not have wanted it any other way.

Rory is another player who is tipped for a huge season at the RaboDirect Rebels. At only 26, he has had a taste of European Rugby with Newport-Gwent Dragons, and has spent the last three seasons with Super Rugby clubs the NSW Waratahs and Western Force, collecting 30 caps along the way.

The robust and agile centre showed his class and versatility immediately, scoring a try on debut for the Waratahs against the Reds at Suncorp Stadium, a moment he claims as his finest.

KIMAMI SITAUTI – WINGER

Born: 21.04.91

Physical: 1.83m, 93kg

Province/Club: Box Hill, Melbourne

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Kimami's rise through the Rugby ranks has been turbulent, yet the schoolboy prodigy has proven this off season he will no doubt be a player of the future.

Having grown up in and representing Auckland at a young age, Kimami travelled to Brisbane, attending Nudgee College. Here, he represented Souths in the premier Rugby competition whilst still at school.

Upon leaving school, Kimami debuted for the Australian Sevens side in Darwin, before traveling to Delhi to compete at the 2010 Commonwealth Games.

During the following season with the Queensland Reds, Kimami was selected in the Australian under 20s side at the 2011 IRB Junior World Championships. His form was rewarded with an opportunity to head south to Canberra, for a full time position at the ACT Brumbies in 2012.

NIC STIRZAKER – SCRUMHALF

Born: 08.03.91

Physical: 1.79m, 82kg

Province/Club: Wydnham City, Melbourne

Super Rugby Caps: 4

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Highlanders, Invercargill

2012 was the perfect initiation to professional Rugby Union for Nic Stirzaker, playing four Super Rugby games and turning in stellar performances for the Rebel Rising. His efforts saw him win the post season Rebel Rising Best Player Award, with many predicting big things for him in the future.

Blessed with great speed off the mark, Nic is the quickest player over 20 and 40 metres in the Rebels squad, with his 20 metre record of 2.71 seconds, a time better than the quickest ever time at AFL draft camp. He also leads the Club in all agility testing, but it's his service at the ruck that is his strongest attribute, with the careful guidance of former Wallaby and Rebels halfback Sam Cordingley.

In a competitive environment strongly endorsed by Damien Hill for every position, Nic will provide plenty of impetus for the halfback role against incumbent Wallaby half Nick Phipps, and utility back Richard Kingi.

CHRIS THOMSON – LOCK

Born: 10.07.85

Physical: 2.05m, 120kg

Province/Club: Southern Districts, Melbourne

Super Rugby Caps: 11 (Waratahs)

Super Rugby Debut: 2009, Sydney

RaboDirect Rebels lock Chris Thomson returns to Super Rugby following a two year stint with Narbonne Racing Club in France, a move that will see him with the Club until the end of 2014.

Having played since the age of seven, Chris spent a year abroad after high school, before returning to the ARC competition, where he signed his first Super Rugby contract with the NSW Waratahs, earning nine caps.

Chris is regarded as one of the best lineout technicians at the Club, and at 2.04m, there is no doubt where his abilities lie. 2012 has seen a transformation in Thomson's game, trimming down to his best playing weight since his first professional rugby season, and proving to be one of the most prominent ball carriers at training.

COOPER VUNA – WINGER

Born: 05.07.87

Physical: 1.87m, 100kg

Province/Club: Endeavor Hills, Melbourne

Super Rugby Caps: 29

Super Rugby Points: 55 (11t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Waratahs, Melbourne

Tests: 2

Test points: 0

Test Debut: 2012 v Wales, Brisbane

In his first season with the RaboDirect Rebels, Cooper Vuna exploded onto the Super Rugby scene, proving to be one of the competition's most dynamic ball carriers and the Club's top try scorer.

His form continued into 2012, with Cooper achieving what many had predicted – he gained his first cap for the Wallabies against Scotland in Newcastle, the second Wallaby debutant through the Rebels system.

A serious shoulder injury sustained while playing for his local Club, Endeavour Hills, saw him miss most of 2012, which would have seen the Wallaby winger feature heavily in the Rugby Championships.

Although only his second year, Cooper's speed, strength and mercurial ball skills have made him a crowd favourite at AAMI Park and many rugby grounds throughout New Zealand.

LAURIE WEEKS – PROP

 Born: 05.04.86

 Physical: 1.80m, 115kg

 Province/Club: Boroondara, Melbourne

 Super Rugby Caps: 45 (23 Reds)

 Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)

 Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Bulls, Pretoria

Having featured in every match in 2011, gaining five starts and playing under All Black legend Greg Somerville, 2012 ended for Weeks in the sixth round when he suffered a serious shoulder injury that required a full reconstruction.

It was a devastating moment for Weeks, given many had him pinned for Wallaby honours that season.

One of the most outgoing and personable members of the squad, Laurie is a similarly effervescent presence on the pitch. Technically solid and a powerful scrummager, he is also extremely mobile, having an uncanny knack to always pop up in the right place at the right time.

JASON WOODWARD – FULLBACK

 Born: 17.05.90

 Physical: 1.88m, 97kg

 Province/Club: Southern Districts, Melbourne

 Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

 Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

 Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Jason joins the RaboDirect Rebels as one of the finds of the 2012 ITM Cup, having played a starring role for the Wellington Lions at fullback.

The former New Zealander Under 20 representative joins the star studded Rebels backline for two seasons, where he will be looking to reproduce the form that saw many New Zealanders disappointed to see him head across the ditch.

Jason's greatest assets are his speed, skill and versatility. He plays first five, fullback or wing, and possesses the ability to kick from both feet.

MICHAEL CHEIKA – HEAD COACH

Born: 04.03.67, Sydney NSW

Waratahs Coaching Debut: 2013

Other Coaching Roles: Petrarca Rugby Padova (coach, 2000), Randwick (head coach second grade 2002, first grade 2003-2005), Leinster (head coach, 2005-2010), Stade Francais (head coach, 2011-2012)

An Australian U21 and NSW representative, former Randwick No.8 Michael Cheika made 212 first grade appearances for the club, winning seven Premiership titles in his 14-year playing career, before adding another title, this time as coach, in 2004. In May 2005, Cheika replaced Declan Kidney as Head Coach of Leinster, where he stayed for five years, leading the Province to a first ever Heineken Cup Victory. He took over as the NSW Waratahs head coach in October 2012 on a three-year contract and has already instilled a hard work ethic and clear team identity that he hopes will become the foundations of future success.

ALAN GAFFNEY – ASSISTANT COACH

Other Coaching Roles: Randwick (coach, 1984-1996), HSBC Waratahs (assistant coach, 1997-1999), Leinster (backs coach, 2000-2002), Munster (head coach, 2002-2005), Australia (assistant coach, 2005-2006), Saracens (director of rugby, 2006-2008), Leinster (technical consultant, 2008-2010), Ireland (backs coach, 2008-2011)

The 2013 season will be Alan Gaffney's second consecutive season with the HSBC Waratahs and fourth year in total. Well known to new head coach Michael Cheika, Gaffney served as his assistant during his second stint at Leinster, when the pair guided the Irish Province to Heineken Cup victory. A life member of Randwick Rugby Club in Sydney, Gaffney coached them for more than a decade, whilst also holding various roles including coach of the NSW Under 21s and assistant coach of the Waratahs. A highly accomplished and former Celtic League, Celtic Cup, Heineken Cup, Six Nations and Grand Slam-winning coach, Gaffney has also served with both the Wallabies and Ireland, whom he worked with through to RWC 2011.

DARYL GIBSON – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 02.03.75, Lumsden NZ

Waratahs Coaching Debut: 2013

Other Coaching Roles: Crusaders (assistant coach, 2008-2012), Maori All Blacks (assistant coach 2010, 2012), Glasgow Warriors (backs coach 2007-2008)

As an inside centre, Daryl Gibson played 19 Tests for the New Zealand All Blacks between 1999 and 2002, including the 1999 RWC. He made a team record 78 appearances for the Crusaders in Super 12 between 1996 and 2002, scoring 14 tries and winning four championships in 1998, 1999, 2000 and 2002. As a player he also played 80 matches for Canterbury (claiming 35 tries and twice winning the New Zealand Provincial Championship) and represented the New Zealand Maori, New Zealand Barbarians and English Premiership sides Bristol Shoguns and Leicester Tigers and the Glasgow Warriors in the Magners League, where he was a player as well as a backs coach. After four years with the Crusaders, he joins the NSW Waratahs for the 2013 season.

ADAM ASHLEY-COOPER – UTILITY BACK

Physical: 1.82m, 98kg

Born: 27.03.84, Sydney NSW

Senior Club: Northern Suburbs

Provincial Rugby Caps: 94 (NSW 16, ACT 78)

Provincial Rugby Points: 78 (15t, 1d), (Brumbies 70 (14t); NSW 8 (1t, 1dg))

Super Rugby Debut: 2005 v Crusaders

Test Rugby Caps: 77

Test Rugby Points: 115 (23t)

Test Rugby Debut: 2005 v South Africa

A former NSW junior representative, Adam Ashley-Cooper enters his second season with the HSBC Waratahs on the back of yet another season of international consistency.

Despite having a passion for rugby as a six-year-old, the talented and versatile outside back only started to take the game seriously at the age of 17. Educated at Berkeley Vale High School, Adam got his first real taste of the sport as a 15-year-old while living on the NSW Central Coast. Having played junior rugby for local side Ourimbah, he began playing junior state representative football, before moving to Sydney to coincide with his university studies with the aim of becoming a professional rugby player. At the age of 19, he moved to Canberra to take up his first professional contract.

OLLIE ATKINS – SECOND ROW

Physical: 2.00m, 117kg

Born: 12.08.88, Hobart TAS

Senior Club: Sydney University

Provincial Rugby Caps: 2 (Western Force)

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2012 v Blues
(Western Force)

Super Rugby Caps: 2 (Western Force)

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Blues
(Western Force)

After impressing in the recent Shute Shield finals series, including the 2012 Grand Final win over Southern Districts, 24-year-old Ollie Atkins became the penultimate addition to the HSBC Waratahs' 2013 roster.

Described as a stand out for his work rate and the impact around the ground, the Students' lock puts his 117kg, 2.00m frame to good use across the field, whether it's with ball in hand, at the breakdown or tackle or in the set piece.

BERRICK BARNES – FLYHALF

Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v HSBC Waratahs (Reds)

Test Rugby Caps: 50

Test Rugby Points: 200 (8t, 17c, 34p, 8d)

Test Rugby Debut: 2007 v Japan (RWC)

A star on the Super Rugby and international stages and a firm favourite with fans, Berrick Barnes became the 37th Australian to earn his 50th Test cap against Wales in the final match of the 2012 season.

The 2013 season will be Berrick Barnes' fourth season in the sky blue. An accomplished goal kicker, Barnes overtook Lote Tuqiri (148) to become the seventh highest points' scorer in NSW Super Rugby history with 158 points in the 2012 round 17 loss to the Brumbies at ANZ Stadium. A former rugby league star, Barnes has long been a favourite with NSW and Australian rugby fans, his popularity is as much down to his down to earth attitude and willingness to sign every last autograph, as it is to his impressive on field skills.

PETER BETHAM – WING

Physical: 1.92m, 98kgs

Born: 06.01.89, Wellington NZ

Senior Club: Unattached

Provincial Rugby Caps: 2

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2011 (Rebels)

Super Rugby Caps: 10 (Rebels 8,
HSBC Waratahs 2)

Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 (Rebels)

Former Australia Under 20 winger Peter Betham made his HSBC Waratahs debut against the Crusaders in April 2012, in front of a 30,000-strong home crowd at Allianz Stadium. Turning in a composed debut performance, the 23-year-old proved his potential against one of the in-form sides in the competition and has been rewarded with a place in the 30-man squad for 2013.

A strong and elusive outside back, Peter returned to NSW pre-season training in October last year after spending the off-season playing for New Zealand premiership side Tasman. Seeking a challenge and the opportunity to play alongside childhood friend and fellow Shute Shield player, Jeremy Sua, the experience has brought an added confidence to Peter's game. He finished the tournament as one of the top three offensive players, scoring six tries throughout Tasman's campaign, which ended with a semi final loss to Otago.

TOM CARTER – INSIDE CENTRE

Physical: 1.89m, 100kg

Born: 25.02.83, Young NSW

Senior Club: Sydney University

Provincial Rugby Caps: 79

Provincial Rugby Points: 85 (17t)

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2004 v Salta

Super Rugby Caps: 72

Super Rugby Points: 75 (15t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Hurricanes

A contract extension in 2013 will see the hard-running Tom Carter play his tenth successive season with the HSBC Waratahs. Known for his passion and fierce competitive spirit, Tom wears his heart on his sleeve every time he pulls on a NSW jersey.

Carter played his first game for his state as a 21-year-old against Salta in Argentina back in 2004 – making his debut alongside current HSBC Waratahs teammate Benn Robinson. However ongoing injury problems then stalled his promising career until 2008, when he made his Super Rugby debut on the wing against the Hurricanes in Sydney.

Carter has gone on to notch up an impressive 79 caps for NSW, giving him the illustrious honour of being the 18th most capped player in NSW rugby history. His 15 tries also place him in the top ten try scorers for the HSBC Waratahs in Super Rugby, just one behind teammate Drew Mitchell.

CAM CRAWFORD – FULLBACK

Physical: 1.93m, 98kg

Born: 14.11.88, Sydney NSW

Senior Club: Northern Suburbs

Provincial Rugby Caps: 2 (ACT Brumbies 2)

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2012 v Wales
(ACT Brumbies)

Super Rugby Caps: 1 (ACT Brumbies 1)

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Western Force
(ACT Brumbies)

Sydney -born, Northern Suburbs fullback Cam Crawford joins the HSBC Waratahs this season, returning home to NSW after two years with the Brumbies.

A skillful and versatile fullback, Cam spent five years with Northern Suburbs before moving to Canberra to accept an Academy position for the 2011 season. Unfortunately, a torn medial ligament ruled him out of Super Rugby action that season but after returning to Shute Shield action and proving his fitness with Norths later that year, finishing as the Shute Shield's third highest try scorer for the second year running, he was rewarded with a full time contract that saw him make his Brumbies' debut in an exhibition match against Wales in 2012. His only other appearance for the side was his Super Rugby debut, which came from the bench against the Western Force. It was this lack of game time that proved pivotal in the 23-year-old's decision to move home to Sydney.

DAVE DENNIS – BLINDSIDE FLANKER

Physical: 1.92m, 110kg

Born: 10.01.86, Sydney NSW

Senior Club: Sydney University

Provincial Rugby Caps: 47

Provincial Rugby Points: 30 (6t)

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2007 v Crusaders

Super Rugby Caps: 47

Super Rugby Points: 30 (6t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Crusaders

Test Rugby Caps: 15

Test Rugby Debut: 2012 v Scotland

However after being a bolter on the Wallabies 2009 Spring Tour, Dennis has gone on to feature in 30 of the HSBC Waratahs 31 Super Rugby matches in the past two seasons and in 2012, amassed 14 caps for Australia and rounded off the season by collecting the prestigious Player's Player of the Year award.

Well-respected amongst his teammates, Dennis polled third in the previous year's Matthew Burke Cup voting behind Kurtley Beale and Tafa Tu'ipulotu. His strong form in 2011 saw him again selected in the Wallaby squad and, while not a member of the final 30-man RWC 2011 squad, he was one of a select group of players to train-on throughout the tournament. His reward was a place on the Spring Tour to the UK, where he started in non-cap XV that defeated the Barbarians by 60-11 at Twickenham.

KANE DOUGLAS – LOCK

Physical: 2.02m, 119kg
Born: 01.06.89, Maclean NSW
Senior Club: Southern Districts
Provincial Rugby Caps: 43
Provincial Rugby Debut: 2010 v Queensland
Super Rugby Caps: 43
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Reds
Test Rugby Caps: 6
Test Rugby Debut: 2012 v Argentina

Kane Douglas has risen as a Test performer during 2012. The 2.02m tall second rower was propelled into the Wallabies' starting XV for the match against Argentina on the Gold Coast as part of the inaugural Castrol EDGE Rugby Championship in 2012. Douglas featured in the remaining three Tests of the Rugby Championship which helped him secure his ticket for the 2012 Spring Tour to Europe.

Establishing a Test place was the logical next step in the career of the 23-year-old, who has been a regular figure for the HSBC Waratahs since his debut four years ago. Kane hails from Yamba on the Far North Coast of New South Wales, where he went to Yamba Public School and Maclean High School. He began his rugby career at 15, when he joined the Yamba Buccaneers Under-15 – Under-17 Academy for rugby union. He quickly developed into a dominant physical presence, representing his state at Under-17 level and playing for the Australian Under 20s team in Japan in 2009.

DAMIEN FITZPATRICK – HOOKER

Physical: 1.83m, 106kg
Born: 08.06.89, Sydney NSW
Senior Club: Eastwood
Provincial Rugby Caps: 22
Provincial Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Provincial Rugby Debut: 2009 v Crusaders
Super Rugby Caps: 22
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Crusaders

Following a horror run of injuries, Damien Fitzpatrick again be forced to spend the majority of the 2013 season on the sidelines. Despite showing enormous promise, the talented hooker has been restricted to just 22 caps across four seasons of Super Rugby, with another knee operation forcing him to wait until 2014 to add to that tally.

He made his debut for the HSBC Waratahs against the Crusaders in 2009, at just 19 years of age. The same year, he captained Australia in the Under 20 Junior World Championship and was selected in the Wallabies preliminary squad for the spring tour.

ISRAEL FOLAU – WING

Physical: 1.93m, 103kg

Born: 03.04.89, Minto NSW

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Israel Folau joined the HSBC Waratahs in December 2012 after completing a high-profile code-switch that will see him swap the Greater Western Sydney Giants for the NSW Waratahs.

A highly acclaimed and exceptionally talented rugby league player, Israel played 90 games for the Melbourne Storm (including two Grand Finals) and Brisbane Broncos from 2007-2010 before announcing his switch to join the AFL in June 2010. In two years with the Greater Western Sydney Giants, he played 13 games for the western Sydney side in their debut AFL season, making his debut in the code against the Sydney Swans in round one of 2012, playing as a key forward and occasional ruckman.

Having broken the NRL's record for most tries in a debut year and earned the Dally M award for Rookie of the Year in his inaugural season with the Melbourne Storm in 2007/2008, he went on to make history as the youngest rugby league player to represent Australia (18 years and 194 days).

BERNARD FOLEY – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.82m, 89kg

Born: 08.09.89, Sydney NSW

Senior Club: Sydney University

Provincial Rugby Caps: 14

Provincial Rugby Points: 21 (3t, 2p)

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2011 v Blues

Super Rugby Caps: 14

Super Rugby Points: 21 (3t, 2p)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Blues

Bernard Foley proved to be an attacking revelation at fullback and flyhalf for the HSBC Waratahs last season, exhibiting the flair and vision he had honed in his time on the international sevens circuit.

His stellar season was capped off when he won the Chris Whitaker Aspiring Waratah Medal for 2012.

Bernard had the rare honour of making his Super Rugby debut in a finals match, coming on in the closing stages of the 2011 Qualifying Final against the Blues. He was a silver medallist with the Australian Sevens team at the 2010 Commonwealth Games and went on to captain the national squad on the 2010/11 IRB Series. After making his first debut in state colours, he enjoyed a stellar season with Sydney University where his skill and versatility earned him a call-up to the Australian Barbarians and a full-time Super Rugby contract.

GRAYSON HART – SCRUMHALF

Physical: 1.85m, 91kg

Born: 19.06.88, Kaitaia NZ

Senior Club: Southern Districts

Provincial Rugby Caps: 40 (Auckland 25, North Harbour 6, Blues 7, HSBC Waratahs 2)

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2007 v Bay of Plenty (Auckland)

Super Rugby Caps: 9 (Auckland Blues 7, HSBC Waratahs 2)

Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Bulls (Auckland Blues)

The nephew of former All Blacks coach John Hart, 24-year-old Grayson Hart steps up into the full squad for the 2013 season. A member of the 2012 Extended Playing Squad, the Southern Districts youngster was rewarded with a senior contract after impressing in his debut performance against the Brumbies at ANZ stadium and in the final round of his team's 2012 campaign, against the Reds in Brisbane.

A former national representative at New Zealand Under 19 and Under 20 level, when he played alongside All Blacks Aaron Smith, Sam Whitelock and Zac Guildford, in 2007 he made his NPC debut at just 19 years of age, playing for Auckland and then North Harbour. He went on to play Super Rugby for the Blues, debuting against the Bulls in 2009 and playing seven games before making the decision to cross the Tasman to Sydney on the advice of his uncle who he credits as having a "massive" influence on his career.

MICHAEL HODGE – WING

Physical: 1.83m, 90kg

Born: 27.05.89, Canberra ACT

Senior Club: Sydney University

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Born: in Canberra, Michael Hodge joined the HSBC Waratahs squad in 2013, on the back of consistent excellence at club level.

Voted Players' Player of the Year for 2011 by his club Sydney University, Hodge was a member of the Students' side that contested last year's Shute Shield Grand Final, losing to eventual winners Eastwood.

A former Australian Sevens player, Michael left Canberra in favour of Sydney five years ago. After taking up the sport as an under-eight with ACT junior side South Tuggernong, he represented his Canberra school Marist College before earning a place in the ARU's National Training Squad at the age of 15.

MICHAEL HOOPER – OPEN SIDE FLANKER

Physical: 1.82m, 97kg
Born: 29.10.91, Sydney NSW
Senior Club: Manly
Provincial Rugby Caps: 30 (ACT Brumbies 30)
Provincial Rugby Points: 25 (5t)
Provincial Rugby Debut: 2010 v Chiefs (ACT Brumbies)
Super Rugby Caps: 30 (ACT Brumbies 30)
Super Rugby Points: 25 (5t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Chiefs (ACT Brumbies)
Test Rugby Caps: 13
Test Rugby Debut: 2012 v Scotland, Newcastle

A product of the Manly Marlins, 23-year-old Michael Hooper returns home to Sydney for the 2013 Super Rugby season having become one of the hottest properties in Australian rugby.

Known for an incredible work rate and tenacity at the breakdown, the Wallaby newcomer made his Super Rugby debut for the Canberrians against the Chiefs in 2010. In 2011, he was awarded the Australian Under 20 Player of the Year award and, after a stellar 2012 season for the Brumbies, he went on to make his full international debut against Scotland in Newcastle in June.

One of the Brumbies' best performers of last season, Hooper consistently topped the tackle count and proved himself as one of the competition's best ball scavengers.

ROB HORNE – OUTSIDE CENTRE

Physical: 1.86m, 90kg
Born: 15.08.89, Greenacre NSW
Senior Club: Southern Districts
Provincial Rugby Caps: 47
Provincial Rugby Points: 55 (11t)
Provincial Rugby Debut: 2008 v ACT Brumbies
Super Rugby Caps: 47
Super Rugby Points: 55 (11t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v ACT Brumbies
Test Rugby Caps: 14
Test Rugby Points: 15 (3t)
Test Rugby Debut: 2010 v Fiji

Rob Horne will be back in action in 2013 after being forced to miss the Wallabies' Spring Tour after sustaining a hamstring injury whilst helping his club Southern Districts to a semi final victory in the Shute Shield.

Known as a hard-running, fast-paced outside-centre with an aggressive attitude to defence, Rob made his HSBC Waratahs' debut against the Brumbies in his first year out of school at just 18 years of age and went on to score a try in his run on debut against the Western Force in Perth later that season.

SEKOPE KEPU – PROP

Physical: 1.88m, 120kg
Born: 05.02.86, Sydney NSW
Senior Club: Randwick
Provincial Rugby Caps: 47
Provincial Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Provincial Rugby Debut: 2008 v Highlanders
Super Rugby Caps: 47
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Highlanders
Test Rugby Caps: 23
Test Rugby Debut: 2008 v Italy

Able to play on the both sides of the scrum, Sekope Kepu has been a mainstay in state and national colours since his debut for the HSBC Waratahs in 2008.

Despite being born in Sydney, Kepu was raised in Auckland, where he attended Wesley College – the same school as All Black legend Jonah Lomu. During the 2011 Rugby World Cup, Kepu revisited the school to present the jersey he wore in the final game of the successful 2011 Tri Nations tournament.

The chance to return home to Sydney came in 2008, when the HSBC Waratahs offered the physically imposing prop a spot in their elite squad. A hugely successful debut season was capped off with Kepu being named in the Wallabies squad for the end of season tour. He made his Test debut against Italy in Padova the same year. Kepu has gone on to play 23 matches for the Wallabies.

TOM KINGSTON – RIGHT WING

Physical: 1.90m, 90kg
Born: 19.06.91, Sydney NSW
Senior Club: Sydney University
Provincial Rugby Caps: 19
Provincial Rugby Points: 25 (5t)
Super Rugby Caps: 19
Super Rugby Points: 25 (5t)

Capable of playing on the wing or at outside centre, the electric Tom Kingston is rapidly becoming an indispensable asset in the HSBC Waratahs' backline. In 2012, Tom scored four tries and made 15 appearances during the regular season.

Kingston attended St Aloysius' College in North Sydney for his primary and secondary education, but moved to Hong Kong as a teenager, where he spent five years playing for the Stanley Fort Rugby Club.

When he returned to Australia, Kingston impressed NSW selectors with his pace and finishing ability while playing for his Shute Shield club, Sydney University. Strong pre-season training performances with the HSBC Waratahs in 2011 saw him earn a contract upgrade before the Super Rugby tournament had even commenced.

PAT MCCUTCHEON – OPEN SIDE FLANKER

Physical: 1.87m, 105kg
Born: 24.06.87, Narromine NSW
Senior Club: Sydney University
Provincial Rugby Caps: 14
Provincial Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Provincial Rugby Debut: 2010 v Highlanders
Super Rugby Caps: 14
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Highlanders

With the retirement of Phil Waugh in 2011, Pat took over as the first choice openside flanker in the squad for the 2012 Super Rugby season. However, a horrific ankle injury against the Highlanders in round three of the competition saw him sidelined for the rest of the season.

A member of the Waratahs pathway since 2006, Pat McCutcheon was named captain of the Australian Sevens team in the 2009/10 IRB Series before being required for Super 14 duty.

BRENDAN MCKIBBIN – SCRUMHALF

Physical: 1.75m, 86kg
Born: 19.09.85, Irvine, Scotland
Senior Club: Eastern Suburbs
Provincial Rugby Caps: 30 (Queensland 4, NSW 26)
Provincial Rugby Points: 104 (1t, 21c, 19p), (Queensland 10 (5c); NSW 94 (1t, 16c, 19p))
Provincial Rugby Debut: 2009 v Chiefs (Queensland)
Super Rugby Caps: 30 (Reds 4, HSBC Waratahs 26)
Super Rugby Points: 104 (1t, 21c, 19p), (Reds 10 (5c); HSBC Waratahs 94 (1t, 16c, 19p))
Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Chiefs (Queensland Reds)

Brendan McKibbin was rewarded for an outstanding 2012 Super Rugby season with a call up to the Wallabies' squad for the last Test match of the year. Standing in for the injured Brett Sheehan, McKibbin was named on the bench for the final match of the Spring Tour, against Wales in Cardiff, gaining valuable experience although not a cap on this occasion.

Earning a position in the senior squad and widely considered the best goal-kicker at the time, McKibbin's opportunities were limited by the presence of Luke Burgess, with his longest appearance of the 2011 season totalling just 18 minutes. In 2012, Burgess' departure was compensated for by the arrival of South African marquee signing Sarel Pretorius.

Last season, McKibbin went on to become the team's first choice halfback and goal kicker, playing in all but one of the team's 16 Super Rugby matches, making the starting XV on eight occasions.

DREW MITCHELL – WING

Physical: 1.82m, 95kg
Born: 26.03.84, Liverpool NSW
Senior Club: Balmain
Provincial Rugby Caps: 102 (Queensland 37, WA 38, NSW 27)
Provincial Rugby Points: 175 (35t), (Queensland 50 (10t), WA 45 (9t), NSW 80 (16t))
Provincial Rugby Debut: 2004 v Highlanders (QLD)
Super Rugby Caps: 100 (Reds 35, Force 38, HSBC Waratahs 27)
Super Rugby Points: 170 (34t), (Reds 45 (9t), Force 45 (9t), HSBC Waratahs 80 (16t))
Super Rugby Debut: 2005 v Highlanders (QLD Reds)
Test Rugby Caps: 63
Test Rugby Points: 150 (30t)
Test Rugby Debut: 2005 v South Africa

One of the most prolific try scorers in Super Rugby history, Drew Mitchell completed his Super Rugby century when he took to the field in the HSBC Waratahs' final match of the 2012 season.

Mitchell made his NSW debut in 2010 against his former Queensland team mates. In July 2012, he played his 100th game against the same opposition, when he represented the HSBC Waratahs for the 27th time, having already played for the Reds (on 37 occasions, including 35 Super Rugby matches) and the Force (38 times) earlier in his career.

WYCLIFF PALU – NO.8

Physical: 1.94m, 118kg
Born: 27.07.82, Sydney NSW
Senior Club: Manly
Provincial Rugby Caps: 85
Provincial Rugby Points: 60 (12t)
Provincial Rugby Debut: 2003 v Samoa
Super Rugby Caps: 80
Super Rugby Points: 60 (12t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2005 v Chiefs
Test Rugby Caps: 46
Test Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Test Rugby Debut: 2006 v England

Widely acknowledged as one of the most influential figures in the HSBC Waratahs' squad, Wycliff Palu is also one of the most longstanding.

Starting the 2012 season in strong physical condition, Palu went on to play in 13 of the HSBC Waratahs' 16 Super Rugby matches – including 11 in the run on side – and finish the season as Best Forward, just four points behind Matthew Burke Cup winner Dave Dennis.

GREG PETERSON – LOCK

Physical: 2.04m, 122kg

Born: 23.03.90, Sydney NSW

Senior Club: Manly

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Having been drafted into the playing squad in 2012, Greg spent a frustrating year on the sidelines behind his more experienced HSBC Waratah team mates. But after a season spent training with the squad and the departures of Dan Vickerman and Dean Mumm, Peterson will be looking to play a far greater role in 2013.

Following a standout season in schoolboy rugby, Peterson joined the Waratahs Academy in 2009. In 2010, he made his Shute Shield debut for the Manly Marlins, making his mark by winning the 2010 Shute Shield Rookie of the Year award in his first year out of school.

TATAFU POLOTA-NAU – HOOKER

Physical: 1.81m, 113kg

Born: 26.07.85, Sydney NSW

Senior Club: Parramatta

Provincial Rugby Caps: 94

Provincial Rugby Points: 60 (12t)

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2005 v Auckland

Super Rugby Caps: 93

Super Rugby Points: 60 (12t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Reds

Test Rugby Caps: 44

Test Rugby Points: 10 (2t)

Test Rugby Debut: 2005 v England

One of the most damaging front-rowers in the game, Tatafu Polota-Nau is one of Australia's first choice hookers who will undoubtedly put up a challenge to be picked to take on the 2013 British & Irish Lions front row.

Since making his debut in 2006 against the Reds, Polota-Nau has gone on to register 93 Super Rugby appearances and over 40 Test appearances. He became the youngest player in NSW Rugby history to register 50 caps for his state, missing just seven games in his first six seasons with the club. In 2010, his hard work saw him awarded the Matthew Burke Cup for Player of the Year. He is also one of the most popular members of the HSBC Waratahs squad, having won the 2012 Members' Choice Player of the Year, which was voted on by the general public.

BENN ROBINSON – PROP

Physical: 1.83m, 113kg
Born: 19.07.84, Sydney NSW
Senior Club: Eastwood
Provincial Rugby Caps: 101
Provincial Rugby Points: 40 (8t)
Provincial Rugby Debut: 2004 v Salta
Super Rugby Caps: 94
Super Rugby Points: 30 (6t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Reds
Test Rugby Caps: 56
Test Rugby Points: 10 (2t)
Test Rugby Debut: 2006 v South Africa

The 2012 season was a year of milestones for the man known to his teammates as 'Cat'. He bought up his 100th cap for NSW in the penultimate round against the Brumbies, a feat that saw him become the sixth most capped player in NSW history. He also became the 163rd player to captain the state, leading the side out on ten occasions in place of the injured Rocky Elsom. Remarkably, it was the first time he had captained a side at any level.

In 2004, he was invited to tour Argentina with the Waratahs, and made his provincial debut in a 51-22 win against local side Salta. He went on to play every minute of every game in the 2005 Under 21 World Championships in Argentina.

PADDY RYAN – PROP

Physical: 1.89m, 120kg
Born: 09.08.88 Tamworth NSW
Senior Club: Sydney University
Provincial Rugby Caps: 13
Provincial Rugby Debut: 2011 v Chiefs
Super Rugby Caps: 13
Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Chiefs
Test Rugby Caps: 1
Test Rugby Debut: 2012 v France

Ryan has had a great grounding at the HSBC Waratahs since his introduction to the side in 2011 and has loomed as a potential Test player since his selection for the Australian Schoolboys in 2006.

With the retirement of Al Baxter at the end of the 2011 season, Paddy was capped for NSW ten times in 2012 and would have enjoyed even more game time had he not suffered a frustrating layoff with a Lisfranc fracture in his foot. His physicality in general play and strong scrummaging effort caught the eye of national coach Robbie Deans, and he was fast tracked into the Wallabies squad for the 2012 Rugby Championship, after just 13 appearances in Super Rugby.

JEREMY TILSE – PROP

Physical: 1.90m, 120kg

Born: 02.06.86, Newcastle NSW

Senior Club: Sydney University

Provincial Rugby Caps: 19

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2006 v Saracens A

Super Rugby Caps: 16

Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Cheetahs

The 2013 season will be Jeremy Tilse's eighth year with the HSBC Waratahs, making him one of the most experienced members of the 30 man squad. The big front rower made his state debut on the 2006 Development Tour to the UK and Ireland, and has gone on to make 19 provincial appearances between 2006 and 2012.

A multiple-premiership winner with the Sydney University club, Tilse made his Super 14 debut against the Cheetahs in Kimberley in 2007, but an abundance of front row talent saw the talented young prop struggle for game time behind Wallabies Al Baxter, Benn Robinson and Sekope Kepu. However in 2010, with the injury-enforced absence of Benn Robinson and Sekope Kepu, Tilse took the opportunities presented to him with both hands and established himself as an important component of the squad.

LOPETI TIMANI – NO.8

Physical: 1.93m, 117kg

Born: 28.09.90, Navutoka Tonga

Senior Club: Southern Districts

Provincial Rugby Caps: 14

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2012 v
Queensland Reds

Super Rugby Caps: 14

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Queensland Reds

Backrower Lopeti Timani graduates to the HSBC Waratahs squad this year after a breakthrough season playing out of the Extended Playing Squad in 2012. The powerful young forward debuted against the Queensland Reds in round one, and went to play in all but two of the remaining fixtures last year (2012).

Growing up in Tonga, Lopeti attended Atele Boys College and played his rugby for the Silapelu'ua club. He moved to Australia to pursue a rugby league career with the Canterbury Bulldogs, where he played 24 games in the Under 20 Toyota Cup between 2009 and 2010. His physical playing style and his prior experience in rugby union caught the eye of selectors, and he was offered a contract to come back into the rugby fold with the HSBC Junior Waratahs for 2011.

From there, Lopeti's professional rugby career has gone from strength to strength. He represented the HSBC Junior Waratahs in the 2011 IRB Pacific Rugby Cup and played alongside Grayson Hart at Southern Districts in the Shute Shield where he developed his ability to play at lock in addition to the back row.

SITALEKI TIMANI – LOCK

Physical: 2.03m, 120kg
Born: 19.09.86, Navutoka Tonga
Senior Club: Southern Districts
Provincial Rugby Caps: 43 (Western Force 3, Brumbies 12, HSBC Waratahs 28)
Provincial Rugby Points: 30 (6t), (Brumbies 10 (2t), HSBC Waratahs 20 (4t))
Provincial Rugby Debut: 2008 v Sharks (Western Force)
Super Rugby Caps: 39 (Western Force 3, Brumbies 8, HSBC Waratahs 28)
Super Rugby Points: 25 (5t), (Brumbies 5 (1t), HSBC Waratahs 20 (4t))
Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Sharks (Western Force)
Test Rugby Caps: 10
Test Rugby Debut: 2011 v Samoa

Since returning to the HSBC Waratahs for a second season in 2012, Sitalaki Timani has gone on to become a powerful new force on the international stage.

From there, the former Tongan Schoolboys football goal-keeper made rapid strides, becoming a first choice selection in the Qantas Wallabies forward pack and earning 10 Test caps. With a promising Super Rugby season ahead, there is little doubt that will be just as much of a force against the British & Irish Lions in 2013.

LACHIE TURNER – WING

Physical: 1.89m, 96kg
Born: 11.05.87, Sydney NSW
Senior Club: Eastwood
Provincial Rugby Caps: 75
Provincial Rugby Points: 138 (25t, 2c, 3p)
Provincial Rugby Debut: 2006 v Reds
Super Rugby Caps: 69
Super Rugby Points: 125 (25t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Stormers
Test Rugby Caps: 15
Test Rugby Points: 20 (4t)
Test Rugby Debut: 2008 v France

After a frustrating injury lay-off last season, the electric Lachie Turner bring his pace, skill and experience back to the HSBC Waratahs backline in 2013. Prior to tearing his hamstring in the 2012 pre-season trial against Samoa, Turner hadn't missed a match since his HSBC Waratahs debut – an impressive run of 67 consecutive Super Rugby appearances.

In the 2007 season, he earned his first Super Rugby cap in round seven against the Stormers in Sydney, going on to play every match in the remainder of the year. His head-turning debut season was capped off when he won the Super Rugby Rookie of the Year award and received a call up to the Australia-A side to play Tonga in Sydney.

JOHN ULUGIA – HOOKER

Physical: 1.80m, 113kg

Born: 17.10.86, Auckland NZ

Senior Club: Southern Districts

Provincial Rugby Caps: 40 (ACT 14, NSW 26)

Provincial Rugby Points: 5 (1t), HSBC
Waratahs 5 (1t)

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2006 v Cheetahs (ACT)

Super Rugby Caps: 38 (Brumbies 12,
HSBC Waratahs 26)

Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t),
HSBC Waratahs 5 (1t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Cheetahs (Brumbies)

Since spending a year in limbo in 2010, working in a meat factory and playing for his Shute Shield side, Southern Districts, Ulugia has become an integral part of the HSBC Waratahs squad. Capable of playing hooker or tight head prop, the talented front rower has earned 26 NSW Super Rugby caps over his two seasons with the club.

John was born across the ditch, in Auckland, but moved to Victoria to study at Noble Park High School. He started his Super Rugby career in 2006 for the Brumbies, where he earned 12 caps over four seasons with the club. Unwanted in Canberra for the 2010 season, Ulugia spent a year away from Super Rugby until hard work and determination saw the big hooker earn a place in the HSBC Waratahs' wider training squad for 2011.

Injury to Tatafu Polota-Nau midway through the 2011 season presented Ulugia the chance to make his NSW Super Rugby debut against the Cheetahs in round five. Under a wave of public pressure, Ulugia was a standout against the Western Force when he scored the match-winning try in a headline-grabbing performance. A further string of strong performances earned him a contract extension, keeping him in NSW until 2013.

EWEN MCKENZIE – DIRECTOR OF COACHING

Born: 21.06.65

Reds Coaching Debut: 2010 v Waratahs,
Suncorp Stadium

Coaching Appointments:

Director of Coaching – Queensland Reds, 2013

Head Coach – Queensland Reds, 2010-2012

Head Coach – Stade Francais, 2009

Head Coach – Australia A, 2005

Head Coach – Waratahs, 2003-2008

Assistant Coach/Coaching Coordinator –
Wallabies, 2000-2003

Coaching Coordinator – ACT Brumbies,
1998-2000

Ewen McKenzie has successfully transformed the St.George Queensland Reds into the powerhouse Rugby province of Australia with the team's second straight conference title in 2012 coming only a year after guiding the team to their maiden Super Rugby championship in 2011. In his first three years at the helm, Ewen contributed to the Reds winning every major piece of available silverware.

He succeeded Bob Dwyer as Head Coach of the Waratahs. He led the team to the 2005 Super 12 final in just his second year at the helm, and to the semi-final in 2006 and final again in 2008. He is currently the Waratahs' longest serving coach in history. McKenzie has also been involved with the Brumbies, Australia A, and French club Stade Francais.

RICHARD GRAHAM – HEAD COACH

Born: 05.08.72

Reds Coaching Debut: 2013

Coaching Appointments:

Head Coach – Western Force, 2011-2012

Backs Coach – Western Force, 2010

Skills Coach – Wallabies, 2009-2010

Head Coach – Saracens, 2009

Backs and Defence / Coaching Coordinator –
Saracens, 2006-2009

Skills, Backs and Defence Coach –
Bath, 2002-2006

Richard Graham joins the St.George Queensland Reds in 2013 as Head Coach and will bring with him a wealth of knowledge gained as both a player and coach at an elite level. Richard played for the Reds between 1998 and 2002 and returns home to Queensland after serving as Head Coach of the Western Force since 2010. Richard commenced his professional coaching career in 2002 with Bath and enjoyed early success with Bath English Premiership finalists in 2003-04; Powergen Cup finalists in 2004-05; and Heineken Cup semi-finalists in 2005-06. Richard moved to Saracens RFC in 2006.

Richard returned to Australia in 2009 as the Skills Coach of the Wallabies, while at the same time, combined his national role with being an Assistant Coach at the Western Force.

JIM MCKAY – SENIOR ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 25.10.66

Reds Coaching Debut: 2010 v Waratahs, Suncorp Stadium

Coaching Appointments:
Queensland Reds – Senior Assistant Coach, 2010-2013

Academy Coach – Leicester Tigers, 2009
Director of Rugby and Coaching – Cornish Pirates, 2004-2008

Assistant Coach – Orrell, 2003

Director of Rugby and Coaching –
Henley Hawks, 1999-2002

Director of Rugby and Coaching –
North Walsham, 1998

Assistant Coach – Norwich, 1997

Heading into his fourth season with the St.George Queensland Reds, Jim McKay has lived up to his reputation for having one of the best attacking minds in the game and was an influential figure in guiding the squad as Senior Assistant Coach to their first Super Rugby Championship in the professional Rugby era in 2011.

Proud of the path he has travelled on his way to Super Rugby, McKay is one of the quiet achievers behind the Reds' success. He is qualified as a Level 4 RFU Coach (elite level). In 2012, McKay also finished his Masters of Coaching and Education after completing his final thesis on the 'Role of Unstructured Practice in Elite Rugby'.

NIGEL AH WONG – BACKROW

Physical: 1.93m, 102kg

Born: 30.05.90, Wellington NZ

Senior Club: Sunnybank

School: Taita College, NZ

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

St.George Queensland Reds backrower Nigel Ah Wong has been signed to Queensland Rugby's Extended Playing Squad for the 2013 Super Rugby season. Nigel boasts an impressive Rugby resume which includes being a member of the Australian Rugby Union's National Academy in 2012, while in the same year he was also chosen to represent the Reds in their exhibition match against the Hurricanes on the Sunshine Coast. 2011 was another watershed year for the New Zealand-born talent with the powerful backrower playing an integral role in Sunnybank's Queensland Premier Rugby Hospital Cup victory. Also in 2011, Ah Wong was chosen on the Melbourne Rebels European Tour after first being selected in their 'Rebels Rising' development squad.

ALBERT ANAE – PROP/HOOKER

Physical: 1.85m, 114kg

Born: 21.06.89, Wellington NZ

Senior Club: Sunnybank

Provincial Rugby Caps: 6

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2011 v Hurricanes, Wellington

Super Rugby Caps: 6

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Hurricanes, Wellington

St.George Queensland Reds front-rower Albert Anae has progressed from the Extended Playing Squad in 2012 to a fulltime contract in 2013, where he will cover both prop and hooker positions. Albert earned his first Super Rugby starting appearance in 2012 when injury forced the youngster into the No.2 jersey against the Western Force at Suncorp Stadium in round two. The Reds won the game 35-20 with Albert excelling in the opportunity and finished the season with five caps. Capable of playing all three front-row positions, Albert was a major contributor to Sunnybank's Queensland Premier Rugby title in 2011 and in their bid for back-to-back Hospital Cups in 2012.

JARRAD BUTLER – NO.8

Physical: 1.86m, 106kg

Born: 20.07.91, Wellington NZ

Senior Club: Easts

Provincial Rugby Caps: 2

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2012 v Highlanders, Suncorp Stadium

Super Rugby Caps: 2

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Highlanders, Suncorp Stadium

Jarrad Butler has been signed to the St.George Queensland Reds Extended Playing Squad for 2013 after making his Super Rugby debut in 2012 after being plucked out of the National Academy by Director of Coaching Ewen McKenzie. Jarrad has followed the elite development pathway in his journey to the EPS and was a former QAS Reds Academy squad member in 2010 and 2011 before being selected by the Australian Rugby Union as a Brisbane-based member of their inaugural Academy in 2012. Jarrad impressed McKenzie enough in 2012 to be called into the Reds group for their late season campaign and debuted in round 17. Jarrad boasts an impressive Rugby resume that includes The Southport School 1st XV 2007-09; Queensland and Australian Schoolboys 2008; and the QAS Reds Academy and Reds 2nd XV 2010-11.

QUADE COOPER – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.86m, 92kg
Born: 05.04.88, Tokoroa, Waikato NZ
Senior Club: Souths
Provincial Rugby Caps: 72
Provincial Rugby Points: 436 (16t, 64c, 71p, 5d)
Provincial Rugby Debut: Feb 2007 v Crusaders, Jade Stadium, Christchurch
Super Rugby Caps: 71
Super Rugby Points: 436 (16t, 64c, 71p, 5d)
Super Rugby Debut: Feb 2007 v Crusaders, Jade Stadium, Christchurch
Test Rugby Caps: 38
Test Rugby Points: 68 (6t, 7c, 7p, 1d)
Test Rugby Debut: 2008 v Italy, Padova

Talented St.George Queensland Reds playmaker Quade Cooper in 2012 made a successful recovery from his World Cup knee reconstruction to ignite the Reds backline in the latter stages of the Super Rugby competition. After returning in round 13 against the Lions, Quade went on to feature in each of the Reds remaining five regular season matches where the team went undefeated to finish at the top of the Australian Conference.

Quade holds the Reds single-season point scoring record of 228, his efforts in 2011 breaking the previous best mark of 171 set also by Quade just a year earlier.

BEN DALEY – PROP

Physical: 1.84m, 112kg
Born: 27.06.88, Sydney NSW
Senior Club: Rugby Gold Coast
Provincial Rugby Caps: 51
Provincial Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Provincial Rugby Debut: Nov 2006 v Japan
Super Rugby Caps: 50
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Crusaders, Christchurch
Test Rugby Caps: 3
Test Rugby Debut: June 2010 v England, Perth

St.George Queensland Reds prop Ben Daley reached a major career milestone in 2012 when he made his 50th appearance for the Reds in their final regular season match of the year against the Waratahs at Suncorp Stadium. It turned out to be a night to celebrate for both the team and for Ben with the Reds scoring a four-try bonus point to top the Australian Conference and qualify for back-to-back finals series. Ben's rugged and physical style has been a major asset to the Reds and he has battled through to earn 32 of a possible 35 caps for the Reds during the past two seasons after first making his Test debut for Australia in 2010.

ROD DAVIES – WING

Physical: 1.80m, 90kg

Born: 18.05.89, Rockhampton QLD

Senior Club: University

Provincial Rugby Caps: 35

Provincial Rugby Points: 50 (10t)

Provincial Rugby Debut: March 2009 v Chiefs, Suncorp Stadium

Super Rugby Caps: 35

Super Rugby Points: 50 (10t)

Super Rugby Debut: March 2009 v Chiefs, Suncorp Stadium

Test Rugby Caps: 1

Test Rugby Debut: July 2011 v Samoa, Sydney

St.George Queensland Reds winger Rod Davies continued to be one of the Reds best attacking threats during an injury-hit 2012 campaign which netted a further 10 Super Rugby caps. When healthy, Rod proved equally impressive in stints at fullback and on the wing and will be confident of returning to a full bill of health in 2013 after recently re-committing to Queensland Rugby through until the end of 2014. A knee injury in May forced a premature end to Rod's 2012 season but only a year earlier the Rockhampton-born flyer exploded during a breakthrough year where he featured heavily in the Reds Super Rugby title-winning feat before going on to earn his Wallabies debut against Samoa on the wing. He is the only Reds player to score a hat-trick in one match for Queensland, coming in the Reds 2011 Semi-Final win over the Blues.

KEVIN DAVIS – HOOKER/PROP

Physical: 1.84m, 110kg

Born: 26.01.86, Bristol UK

Senior Club: University

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Kevin Davis enters his second year in the St.George Queensland Reds Extended Playing Squad, where he will be aiming to build on the experienced gained during his first year within the Reds setup. Kevin moved from England to take up a position with 2010 Premier Rugby champions University and has since progressed from the QAS Reds Academy in 2011 to the Extended Playing Squad in 2012 and 2013. During this time he has enjoyed extreme success with University at Queensland Premier Rugby level and won a second Hospital Cup in 2012. Kevin is a former England Under 20 Schoolboy representative and is renowned for his scrummaging ability while also impressing coaches with his training habits and enthusiasm.

BLAKE ENEVER – LOCK

Physical: 1.98m, 112kg
Born: 12.10.91, Buderim QLD
Senior Club: Easts
Provincial Rugby Caps: 1
Provincial Rugby Debut: 2012 v Rebels, Melbourne
Super Rugby Caps: 1
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Rebels, Melbourne

Blake Enever joins the St.George Queensland Reds Extended Playing Squad for 2013 after impressing coach Ewen McKenzie with each opportunity he received last season as a member of the Australian Rugby Union's National Academy. A former QAS Reds Academy member in 2011, Blake made his Super Rugby debut in 2012 with a short five-minute cameo against the Highlanders. Blake didn't follow the traditional Rugby pathway on his way to the QAS Reds Academy as he was first noticed not at school, but as part of the Sunshine Coast Stingrays colts' team. Blake was also chosen in the Australian Under 20s side to contest the Youth World Cup in Italy in 2011. With impressive size and athleticism, Blake possesses good aggression for a lock; while away from Rugby he studies Marine Biology.

CHRIS F'SAUTIA – WING/CENTRE

Physical: 1.81m, 92kg
Born: 17.11.93, Auckland NZ
Senior Club: Souths
Provincial Rugby Caps: 3
Provincial Rugby Points: 10 (2t)
Provincial Rugby Debut: May 2012 v Lions, Suncorp Stadium
Super Rugby Caps: 3
Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)
Super Rugby Debut: May 2012 v Lions, Suncorp Stadium

St.George Queensland Reds flyer Chris F'Sautia lived up to his reputation as the "next big thing" in his debut Super Rugby season with the young Samoan rising to the occasion in each of the three appearances he made for Queensland in 2012. Such was the buzz surrounding Chris that Reds Director of Coaching Ewen McKenzie signed the powerful winger to a fulltime contract while he was still completing his schooling at Brisbane State High School at just 17 years of age. But rather than succumb to the pressure and expectation, Chris flourished with each opportunity he received and enjoyed one of the more remarkable debut performances in recent memory, scoring in his first movement with the ball. Chris was also chosen in the Australian Under 20 squad for the Junior Rugby World Cup in South Africa in 2012 while the flyer is the most capped Australian Schoolboy in history, tied on 11 caps with Hugh Roach.

ANTHONY FAINGAA – CENTRE

Physical: 1.82m, 92kg
Born: 02.02.87, Queanbeyan NSW
Senior Club: GPS

Test Rugby Caps: 23
Test Rugby Points: 10 (2t)
Test Rugby Debut: 2010 v All Blacks, Melbourne

Hard-hitting St.George Queensland Reds centre Anthony Faingaa continued to go from strength to strength in 2012 as he stepped up to become one of the team's vocal leaders in their Australian Conference-winning campaign, surpassing the half-century mark for Super Rugby caps, before again being a staple within the Wallabies setup. His contributions, both on and off the field, were recognised at the Reds Gala Ball & Auction with Anthony taking home the Spirit of the Reds Award, awarded to the player who has demonstrated the behaviour and attributes that are hallmarks of the Reds' team culture.

SAIA FAINGAA – HOOKER

Physical: 1.87m, 108kg
Born: 02.02.87, Queanbeyan NSW
Senior Club: GPS
Provincial Rugby Caps: 53
Provincial Rugby Points: 35 (7t)
Provincial Rugby Debut: Feb 2009 v Bulls, Loftus Versfeld, Pretoria
Super Rugby Caps: 80 (53 Reds, 27 Brumbies)
Super Rugby Points: 35 (7t)
Super Rugby Debut: Feb 2009 v Bulls, Loftus Versfeld, Pretoria (2006 v Stormers, Cape Town for Brumbies)
Test Rugby Caps: 18
Test Rugby Debut: June 2010 v Fiji, Canberra

Hard-nosed St.George Queensland Reds hooker Saia Faingaa earned the honour of playing his milestone 50th game for Queensland in 2012 and, despite only being 25-years old, is now the second most experienced Super Rugby player within the Reds squad with 80 total appearances, behind only fellow front-rower Greg Holmes (87). After an ankle injury disrupted the opening part of his campaign, Saia made an impact on his return and reached his milestone 50th game for the Reds against the Melbourne Rebels in round 17.

NICK FRISBY – SCRUMHALF/UTILITY BACK

Physical: 1.84m, 84kg
Born: 29.10.92, Brisbane QLD
Senior Club: GPS
Provincial Rugby Caps: 9
Provincial Rugby Points: 10 (2t)
Provincial Rugby Debut: March 2012 v Sharks, Durban
Super Rugby Caps: 9
Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)
Super Rugby Debut: March 2012 v Sharks, Durban

The standout performances of 2012 Extended Playing Squad member Nick Frisby have earned the versatile scrumhalf a fulltime contract with the St.George Queensland Reds from 2013, where he will be aiming to improve on an impressive debut Super Rugby season which resulted in Reds Rookie of the Year honour. In his nine appearances, Nick excelled in a number of positions including scrumhalf, wing and fullback. In his debut against the Sharks, Nick showed he had the ability to compete at the highest level by scoring his first Super Rugby try.

WILL GENIA – SCRUMHALF

Physical: 1.74m, 82kg
Born: 17.01.88, Papua New Guinea
Senior Club: Sunshine Coast
Provincial Rugby Caps: 75
Provincial Rugby Points: 80 (15t, 1c, 1p)
Provincial Rugby Debut: Nov 2006 v Japan
Super Rugby Caps: 74
Super Rugby Points: 80 (15t, 1c, 1p)
Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Hurricanes, Suncorp Stadium, Brisbane
Test Rugby Caps: 41
Test Rugby Points: 35 (7t)
Test Rugby Debut: 2009 v All Blacks, Auckland

St.George Queensland Reds scrumhalf Will Genia was the real ironman of Queensland Rugby in 2012 as he featured in every minute of all 17 Super Rugby matches before finishing the season as the team's captain following a hamstring injury to James Horwill. The 75 Reds caps Will has earned heading into 2013 ranks him third on the current squad list of most games played for Queensland and he is now well on track to join the prestigious 100 Cap Club of Queensland Rugby after re-signing with the province for a further three seasons midway through the 2012 Super Rugby season.

LIAM GILL – OPENSIDE FLANKER

Physical: 1.83m, 96kg
Born: 08.06.92, Melbourne VIC
Senior Club: Sunnybank
Provincial Rugby Caps: 25
Provincial Rugby Points: 15 (3t)

Super Rugby Caps: 25
Super Rugby Points: 15 (3t)
Super Rugby Debut: Mar 2011 v Brumbies, Canberra
Test Rugby Caps: 8
Test Rugby Debut: 2012 v All Blacks, Auckland

St.George Queensland Reds flanker Liam Gill enjoyed a breakthrough season in 2012, playing in all but one match during the Reds' Australian Conference winning Super Rugby campaign and also debuting for the Wallabies at just 20 years of age. Liam flourished as Queensland's best breakdown scavenger in 2012, finishing the Super Rugby year with a competition-high 33 turnovers, including 26 breakdown or tackle steals. Liam was the only Australian to average more than 2 breakdown or tackle steals per game (2.4). Liam first earned a fulltime Reds contract in 2011 while still just 17 years of age.

JAMES HANSON – HOOKER

Physical: 1.83m, 104kg
Born: 15.09.88, Brisbane QLD
Senior Club: University
Provincial Rugby Caps: 35
Provincial Rugby Points: 20 (4t)

Super Rugby Caps: 35
Super Rugby Points: 20 (4t)
Super Rugby Debut: Feb 2010 v Crusaders, Suncorp Stadium, Brisbane
Test Rugby Caps: 1
Test Rugby Debut: 2012 v All Blacks, Suncorp Stadium

Hooker James Hanson is the yardstick for the St.George Queensland Reds in terms of resilience and consistency with the powerful No.2 selected in the Reds matchday squad for each of their 35 games during the past two Super Rugby seasons, putting him on track to reach the milestone 50-game mark for the Reds after re-committing his future to the province midway through 2012. James also captained University to their second Queensland Premier Rugby title in three years.

MIKE HARRIS – CENTRE/FLYHALF

Physical: 1.86m, 96kg
Born: 08.07.88, North Harbour NZ
Senior Club: University
Provincial Rugby Caps: 23
Provincial Rugby Points: 183 (3t, 27c, 37p, 1d)

Test Rugby Caps: 8
Test Rugby Points: 55 (1t, 1c, 16p)
Test Rugby Debut: 2012 v Scotland, Newcastle

2011 St.George Queensland Reds Rookie of the Year Mike Harris backed up his impressive debut Super Rugby season by solidifying his place within the Reds midfield during 2012 before going on to earn national honours in an incredible 12 month period. It was a record-breaking Super Rugby campaign for Mike with his accurate goal-kicking first drawing headlines after he broke South African sharpshooter Morne Steyn's goal kicking record of 21 successful attempts in a row, when he calmly slotted his 24th consecutive goal against the Western Force in round two. He also successfully kicked nine goals at Suncorp Stadium that night to equal the feat of Queensland great John Eales set back in 1996 for goals kicked in a single match.

GREG HOLMES – PROP

Physical: 1.87m, 114kg
Born: 11.06.83, Warwick QLD
Senior Club: Sunnybank
Provincial Rugby Caps: 88
Provincial Rugby Points: 30 (6t)

Super Rugby Points: 30 (6t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2005 v Blues, Auckland
Test Rugby Caps: 13
Test Rugby Points: 10 (2t)
Test Rugby Debut: 2005 v France, Marseille

A distinguished career by St.George Queensland Reds front-rower Greg Holmes has the Warwick-born powerhouse in line to become the next Queensland player to join the prestigious 100 Caps Club for the Reds, after he finished 2012 with 88 caps. Greg has been a staple in the Reds front-row for the past eight seasons and is now arguably in career best form after featuring heavily in all 17 matches during Queensland's 2012 Australian Conference winning Super Rugby campaign. Greg also excelled in 2011 and stepped up into the starting line-up for both the Super Rugby semi-final and final, where he replaced injured tighthead James Slipper.

JAMES HORWILL – LOCK

Physical: 2.00m, 116kg
Born: 29.05.85, Brisbane QLD
Senior Club: University
Provincial Rugby Caps: 81
Provincial Rugby Points: 35 (7t)
Provincial Rugby Debut: 2006 v NSW
Super Rugby Caps: 77
Super Rugby Points: 30 (6t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v NSW
Test Rugby Caps: 35
Test Rugby Points: 30 (6t)
Test Rugby Debut: 2007 v Fiji, Perth

Inspirational leader James Horwill was the backbone behind the St. George Queensland Reds unprecedented success at Super Rugby level in recent seasons, guiding the side to their second straight Australian Conference title in 2012 a year after captaining the Reds to the 2011 Super Rugby championship. He excelled in the chief leadership role both on and off the field during a 2012 season where he captained Queensland in their opening 13 games of the year before being cruelly struck down with a season-ending hamstring injury just one game prior to Australia's June Test window. James enters 2013 just 19 games shy of the prestigious 100-game milestone for Queensland and a healthy run to the Super Rugby final would see him capture the feat just eight seasons into a remarkable career.

DIGBY IOANE – WING/CENTRE

Physical: 1.82m, 96kg
Born: 14.07.85, Wellington NZ
Senior Club: Sunnybank
Provincial Rugby Caps: 56
Provincial Rugby Points: 85 (17t)
Provincial Rugby Debut: 2008 v Highlanders
Super Rugby Caps: 76 (56 Reds, 20 Force)
Super Rugby Points: 105 (21t) (85 Reds, 20 Force)
Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Highlanders (2006 v Brumbies for Force)
Test Rugby Caps: 34
Test Rugby Points: 55 (11t)
Test Rugby Debut: June 2007 v Wales, Suncorp Stadium

St. George Queensland Reds flyer Digby Ioane solidified his place as Australia's best winger during 2012 with his impact on the field and much-loved persona off it making him an extremely valuable and popular figure within the code. Digby reached the 50-game milestone for the Reds in 2012 before playing an integral role for the Wallabies in the June Test window, Rugby Championship and end-of-season tour. His showmanship has also seen the star flyer become a media favourite following his signature 'turtle' post-try celebration, which was a colourful highlight of Queensland's 16-year drought-breaking Super Rugby campaign in 2011.

JONO LANCE – FLYHALF/CENTRE/FULLBACK

Physical: 1.83m, 92kg

Born: 27.06.90, Canberra ACT

Senior Club: University

Provincial Rugby Caps: 7

Provincial Rugby Points: 3 (1p)

 Provincial Rugby Debut: 2011 v Force,
NIB Stadium, Perth

Super Rugby Caps: 7

Super Rugby Points: 3 (1p)

 Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Force,
NIB Stadium, Perth

St.George Queensland Reds playmaker Jono Lance entered the 2012 Super Rugby season with heightened expectation following a dynamic finish to his 2011 campaign, where he featured at fullback in the team's final four games, but was the victim of a long-term ankle injury that stifled what was a hugely promising beginning to the year. Jono received three caps before his injury against the Bulls in round five with his defence among the early season highlights of the Reds backline. His efforts had the talented playmaker in line to receive a significantly increased role before his season was cruelly cut short through injury. Jono is also an extremely talented goal kicker who has been instrumental to club Rugby side University at both Premier Rugby and Colts level in the past and is also a former Australia A Schoolboy, Australian Under 20 and Australian Sevens representative.

BEN LUCAS – SCRUMHALF/FLYHALF/FULLBACK

Physical: 1.78m, 84kg

Born: 30.12.87, Ipswich QLD

Senior Club: Sunnybank

Provincial Rugby Caps: 52

Provincial Rugby Points: 46 (3t, 5c, 7p)

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2008 v Brumbies

Super Rugby Caps: 52

Super Rugby Points: 46 (3t, 5c, 7p)

Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Brumbies

St.George Queensland Reds dynamo Ben Lucas excelled as the team's chief playmaker for large portions of the Reds' 2012 Australian Conference winning campaign and finished the year having earned his milestone 50th game for Queensland. Injury hampered Ben during the middle stages of 2012 although when healthy he showed an ability to shine at either scrumhalf, flyhalf or at fullback. It was in the No.10 jersey, however, where he enjoyed the majority of his success in 2012, playing a starring role in Queensland's most impressive win of the season against the eventual champions, the Chiefs. Also a gifted goal kicker, Ben earned his maiden selection in coach Robbie Deans Wallabies squad for the end-of-year Tour to the UK and Wales in 2011. Ben's brother Matt was signed by the NSW Waratahs in the offseason for 2013.

DAVID MCDULING – LOCK/FLANKER

Physical: 1.96m, 115kg

Born: 07.04.89, Sydney NSW

Senior Club: University

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Young St.George Queensland Reds backrower David McDuling entered 2012 as one of the team's most interesting prospects but was cruelly struck down by a season-ending knee injury only days before the Reds opening preseason game.

Dave was a standout preseason performer after graduating from the QAS Reds Academy in 2012 with flashes of training brilliance showing just why coach Ewen McKenzie was eager to bring the young lock into the fulltime squad. Dave was an impressive performer before joining the Reds and represented Australia at both Under 20 (2009) and Schoolboys (2007) level and was an integral part of the Sydney University 2010 premiership-winning Shute Shield team. A former St. Ignatius' College, Riverview student, the hardworking lock also possesses the ability to provide skilled cover in the backrow, playing both No.6 and No.8.

LUKE MORAHAN – FULLBACK/WING

Physical: 1.89m, 95kg

Born: 13.04.90, Brisbane QLD

Senior Club: University

Provincial Rugby Caps: 37

Provincial Rugby Points: 50 (10t)

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2009 v Lions,
Suncorp Stadium

Super Rugby Caps: 37

Super Rugby Points: 50 (10t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Lions,
Suncorp Stadium

Test Rugby Caps: 1

Test Rugby Debut: 2012 v Scotland, Newcastle

St.George Queensland Reds flyer Luke Morahan cemented his role as the team's first-choice fullback in an impressive 2012 Super Rugby season that was rewarded with his Wallabies debut when Australia faced Scotland in June. Luke featured in all 17 games during the Reds' Australian Conference success of 2012 and made arguably the most critical play of the season with his chip-and-chase try against the Brumbies in round 14 keeping the Reds finals dreams alive. In an action-filled season, Luke also made his return to the Sevens Rugby circuit following the Super Rugby season and was also an influential member in University winning their second Queensland Premier Rugby trophy in three seasons. In Sevens Rugby, Luke played an integral role in Australia winning silver at the 2010 Commonwealth Games.

JONO OWEN – PROP

Physical: 1.86m, 119kg

Born: 01.11.86, Hong Kong

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Cheetahs, Bloemfontein (for Brumbies)

Super Rugby Caps: 17 (9 Rebels; 8 Brumbies)

Jono Owen is the sole new recruit to the St. George Queensland Reds contracted 30-man squad for season 2013 after enjoying stints with the ACT Brumbies and Melbourne Rebels in 2012.

At 119kg and 1.86m tall, Jono will further strengthen the Reds front-row stocks and will be aiming to build of the 17 Super Rugby caps he earned during the past two seasons. Jono signed and then debuted for the Brumbies in 2011 before moving to the Rebels midway through the 2012 season, adding a further nine Super Rugby caps to his resume under former Sydney University coach Damien Hill. Before joining the Brumbies in 2011, Jono earned 13 caps for Counties-Manukau in New Zealand while he played for Sydney University in Australia between 2007 and 2009 and for Randwick in 2010.

EDDIE QUIRK – FLANKER

Physical: 1.91m, 108kg

Born: 28.08.91, Brisbane QLD

Senior Club: Easts

Provincial Rugby Caps: 12

Provincial Rugby Debut: May 2010 v Highlanders, Suncorp Stadium

Super Rugby Caps: 12

Super Rugby Debut: May 2010 v Highlanders, Suncorp Stadium

St. George Queensland Reds flanker Eddie Quirk enjoyed his best year of Super Rugby during a 2012 season where he matured as a player to become a regular performer within the matchday squad before a shoulder reconstruction ended a promising individual campaign. His impact was heavily felt on the field with his high work rate and accuracy at the breakdown giving the Reds a decisive edge. However, just as the young red-head was producing career-best form, a shoulder injury in the Reds exhibition game against the Hurricanes on the Sunshine Coast cruelly put an end to his campaign midseason. With flanker Scott Higginbotham making the move south to Melbourne, Eddie is expected to be a huge contributor in 2013. The powerful red head brings a hard edge to the forward pack and also valuable versatility with the ability to slot in comfortably at No.6 or No.8.

BEAU ROBINSON – FLANKER

Physical: 1.80m, 97kg

Born: 15.08.86, Alice Springs NT

Senior Club: Souths

Provincial Rugby Caps: 30

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2011 v Force,
Suncorp Stadium

Super Rugby Caps: 51 (30 Reds, 21 NSW)

Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Force, Suncorp
Stadium (2007 v Sharks for Waratahs)

Test Rugby Caps: 1

Test Rugby Debut: 2011 v Samoa, Sydney

St.George Queensland Reds flanker Beau Robinson produced arguably the bravest and most courageous individual 2012 Super Rugby campaign within the Reds squad as he battled an ankle injury on a weekly basis but still managed to play a heavy role in 15 of the team's 17 matches. For the second half of the season Beau was severely limited at training because of an ankle injury but battled through the pain to suit up on matchday. He was rewarded by playing his 50th career Super Rugby game – coming against his former province NSW Waratahs. During the year Beau and fellow flanker Liam Gill terrorised opponents with Beau's strategic selection at blindside flanker for numerous games giving the Reds an unrivalled one-two punch at the breakdown.

RADIKE SAMO – NO.8/FLANKER/LOCK

Physical: 1.98m, 117kg

Born: 09.07.76, Fiji

Senior Club: GPS

Provincial Rugby Caps: 28

Provincial Rugby Points: 25 (5t)

Provincial Rugby Debut: May 2010 v
Hurricanes, Wellington

Super Rugby Caps: 63 (28 Reds, 35 Brumbies)

Super Rugby Points: 45 (9t), (25 Reds,
20 Brumbies)

Super Rugby Debut: May 2010 v Hurricanes,
Wellington (2000 v Reds for Brumbies)

Test Rugby Caps: 23

Test Rugby Points: 15 (3t)

Test Rugby Debut: 2004 v Scotland, Melbourne

After a blockbuster 2011 campaign for Radike Samo, the dynamic St.George Queensland Reds backrower endured a slower than usual start to the 2012 Super Rugby season as he battled a shoulder complaint. However, once back to peak health and conditioning, the rampaging Fijian was re-called into the Reds matchday squad during a late season charge, where they finished the regular season with six consecutive wins and qualified for back-to-back finals series.

JAKE SCHATZ – NO.8/FLANKER

Physical: 1.92m, 109kg
Born: 25.07.90, Brisbane QLD
Senior Club: Sunnybank
Provincial Rugby Caps: 32
Provincial Rugby Debut: Feb 2010 v Crusaders, Suncorp Stadium, Brisbane
Super Rugby Caps: 32
Super Rugby Debut: Feb 2010 v Crusaders, Suncorp Stadium, Brisbane

A standout 2012 Super Rugby season for Jake Schatz saw the Brisbane-born talent solidify his place as one of the St.George Queensland Reds' first-choice backrow selections during their Australian Conference winning campaign. Featuring in all but one game during the Reds 2012 season, Jake fulfilled his potential as one of the game's rising stars with his consistency and high work rate invaluable to the team's success. It didn't take long for Jake to hit his strides in 2012 and his form was soon recognised by Wallaby coaches who selected the Sunnybank junior in their inaugural Rugby Championship squad. Unfortunately, shoulder surgery crippled any chance Jake had of making his Test debut although it's only a matter of when, not if, he will wear the green and gold. Jake will be required to take on a more senior role with the departure of flanker Scott Higginbotham to the Rebels.

ULUPANO 'UJ' SEUTENI – FLYHALF/UTILITY BACK

Physical: 185m, 94kg
Born: 09.12.93, Adelaide SA
Senior Club: Easts
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Ulupano 'UJ' Seuteni remains the youngest member of the St.George Queensland Reds Extended Playing Squad despite 2013 being his second year within Queensland Rugby's development setup. Such was the talent of UJ that he was contracted to the 2012 EPS at just 17 years-of-age and while still in his final year of schooling at The Southport School. In his inaugural year with the Reds, UJ was chosen in the Australian Under 20 side to compete at the Junior World Cup, where he featured predominantly in the number 15 jersey. A highly regarded and freakish schoolboy talent, UJ has represented South Australia from an under 12-18 level and he was also part of an Australian Schools Presidents XV team against Samoa.

DOM SHIPPERLEY – WING

Physical: 1.86m, 94kg

Born: 04.01.91, Redcliffe QLD

Senior Club: Brothers

Provincial Rugby Caps: 24

Provincial Rugby Points: 50 (10t)

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2011 v Hurricanes, Wellington

Super Rugby Caps: 24

Super Rugby Points: 50 (10t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Hurricanes, Wellington

Test Rugby Caps: 3

Test Rugby Debut: 2012 v South Africa, Perth

St.George Queensland Reds winger Dom Shipperley enjoyed a ground-breaking 2012 season, capped off with Wallaby honours, the Most Improved Player of the Year Award for the Reds, and Super Rugby's Try of the Year accolade. Dom ticked all the boxes for the coaching group after excelling in a season where he scored eight Super Rugby tries, equal with Ben Tune in the Reds' Super Rugby season try-scorers list and behind only Chris Latham's effort of 10 tries in 2002. His standout performances on the wing and ability to score points didn't go unnoticed at national level, receiving a 2012 starting Test debut against South Africa in Perth.

ROB SIMMONS – LOCK

Physical: 2.00m, 115kg

Born: 19.04.89, Theodore QLD

Senior Club: Sunnybank

Provincial Rugby Caps: 48

Super Rugby Debut: Feb 2009 v Bulls, Loftus Versfeld, Pretoria

Test Rugby Caps: 23

Test Rugby Debut: July 2010 v South Africa, Brisbane

Rob Simmons was a standout performer for the St.George Queensland Reds in 2012, appearing in every game of the season for the second year running to finish the year just two matches shy of his 50th Queensland and Super Rugby cap. After also featuring in every match during 2011, Rob backed his efforts up to be one of the team's leading performers as he elevated his game further once captain and fellow second-rower James Horwill succumb to a season-ending hamstring injury. A consistent performer for both the Reds and the Wallabies, Rob earned 16 Test Caps during the 2010 and 2011 Test seasons and featured in six of the seven games during the 2011 World Cup. He again was a member of the Wallabies 2012 campaign before a dangerous tackle charge ruled Rob out of the final three matches of their European tour, but he will be ready for a return in round one for the Reds.

JAMES SLIPPER – PROP

Physical: 1.86m, 117kg
Born: 06.06.89, Gold Coast QLD
Senior Club: Rugby Gold Coast
Provincial Rugby Caps: 34
Provincial Rugby Points: 15 (3t)
Provincial Rugby Debut: Feb 2010 v NSW Waratahs, Suncorp Stadium, Brisbane
Super Rugby Caps: 34
Super Rugby Points: 15 (3t)
Super Rugby Debut: Feb 2010 v NSW Waratahs, Suncorp Stadium, Brisbane
Test Rugby Caps: 34
Test Rugby Debut: June 2010 v England, Perth

James Slipper was the St. George Queensland Reds standout performer in 2012, not missing a single game and becoming just the second prop in Queensland Rugby history to win the prestigious Pilecki Medal, awarded to the Players' Player of the Year. A versatile prop, James' record 272 Pilecki Medal votes surpassed the previous mark set by Will Genia in 2011, polling in the top three for eight matches during the season including four of the last five critical rounds of the regular competition.

BEN TAPUAI – CENTRE

Physical: 1.80m, 95kg
Born: 19.01.89, Brisbane QLD
Senior Club: Sunnybank
Provincial Rugby Caps: 24
Provincial Rugby Points: 20 (4t)
Provincial Rugby Debut: 2009 v Crusaders, Christchurch
Super Rugby Caps: 24
Super Rugby Points: 20 (4t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Crusaders, Christchurch
Test Rugby Caps: 7
Test Rugby Debut: 2011 v Wales, Millennium Stadium

Centre Ben Tapuai commenced the 2012 Super Rugby season as the St. George Queensland Reds most consistent performer with his star performances critical in the team's perfect three-match stretch to begin the season. His form continued during the opening eight matches of the season before a colossal hit from Stormers centre Juan De Jough in round nine left the hard-running centre sidelined with a fractured collarbone. It was a big blow for the Reds but he continued his form in the later stages of the Super Rugby season to earn selection in the Wallabies Rugby Championship squad before cementing his place in the number 12 jersey for the Wallabies in a star-studded end of season tour to Europe.

AIDAN TOUA – WING/FULLBACK

Physical: 1.83m, 92kg

Born: 19.01.90, Port Moresby PNG

Senior Club: Easts

Provincial Rugby Caps: 3

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2011 v Force,
Suncorp Stadium

Super Rugby Caps: 3

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Force,
Suncorp Stadium

St.George Queensland Reds flyer Aidan Toua flashed his huge potential and ability in his sole Super Rugby appearance during 2012 in an otherwise frustrating season where he was plagued by injuries. Signed to the fulltime squad in 2012, Aidan was cruelly struck down with a hamstring injury in the Reds opening trial game before returning in round seven against the Brumbies at Suncorp Stadium. A stellar 56-minute performance at outside centre marked a successful return but despite showing exciting promise in that match, his other hamstring again proved his undoing when he broke down at training during a midweek session, forcing an end to his 2012 campaign. Aidan is set to return to a full bill of health in 2013 where his speed and x-factor play is set to be a valuable asset to the team.

ADAM WALLACE-HARRISON – LOCK

Physical: 2.00m, 114kg

Born: 24.09.79, Perth WA

Senior Club: Sunnybank

Provincial Rugby Caps: 27

Provincial Rugby Points: 10 (2t)

Provincial Rugby Debut: 2003 v Crusaders,
Ballymore

Super Rugby Caps: 62 (25 Reds, 37 Brumbies)

Super Rugby Points: 25 (5t), (10 Reds,
15 Brumbies)Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Brumbies,
Canberra (2005 v Sharks for Brumbies)

The experience of veteran lock Adam Wallace Harrison proved a huge asset to the St.George Queensland Reds in 2012 with coach Ewen McKenzie nominating the talented lineout general as the team's vice-captain following a season ending injury to James Horwill. Adam's knowledge of the game and steadfast nature made him the perfect candidate for the vice-captaincy role during Horwill's absence. Adam featured nine times for the Reds in 2012 with his return from a knee injury sustained during the preseason keeping him out of action until round 10 against the Blues. He also spent time as assistant coach to Queensland Premier Rugby heavyweights Sunnybank, who fell agonisingly short of back-to-back Hospital Cups after losing to University in the grand final at Ballymore.

Province/Club: UWA (WA)/Sydney University (NSW)
Super Rugby Caps: 39
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Stormers

Nathan Charles is a mobile, hard-working hooker that has become a permanent fixture in the Western Force 22-man squad over the past three seasons. Since making his debut against the Stormers two seasons ago, he has not missed a match and was the only Western Force player to start in every Super Rugby match for the club in 2012.

ANGUS COTTRELL – FLANKER/NO.8

Physical: 1.91m, 105kg

Born: 20.11.89, Brisbane QLD

Province/Club: Associates (WA)

Super Rugby Caps: 7

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Brumbies

Angus Cottrell is a hardworking member of the Western Force back row. Cottrell made the most of his opportunities in 2012, earning seven caps in his maiden season and has graduated from the Extended Playing Squad to a full contract. He was recruited from Brisbane club rugby for the Force's 2011 Samoan tour.

PEKAHOU COWAN – PROP

Physical: 1.85m, 116kg

Born: 02.06.86, Wellington NZ

Province/Club: Nedlands (WA)/

Super Rugby Points: 45 (9t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Sharks

Test Caps: 6

Test Points: 10 (2t)

Test Debut: 2012 v Argentina

Nick Cummins is an outstanding outside back for the Western Force, who is equally adept at outside centre or on the wing. Cummins was one of the standout performers in the Western Force backline last season with his consistent showing and ability to hit the line at pace leading to his long-awaited Test debut for the Wallabies against Argentina.

PATRICK DELLIT – CENTRE/FULLBACK

Physical: 1.92kg, 100kg

Born: 21.08.86, Sydney NSW

Province/Club: Nedlands (WA)/
Eastern Suburbs (NSW)

Super Rugby Caps: 17

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Lions

Patrick Dellit is a hard-running utility back who embarks on his third season of Super Rugby. Having established himself as one of the leading players in Sydney's Shute Shield, Dellit was picked up by the Western Force for the 2011 season. He was periodically sidelined with a groin injury throughout last year but managed five appearances in 2012.

SIAS EBERSOHN – FLYHALF

 Physical: 1.76m, 83kg

 Born: 23.02.89, Bloemfontein RSA

 Province/Club: TBC

 Super Rugby Caps: 30 (Cheetahs)

 Super Rugby Points: 220 (2t, 36c, 44p, 2dg)

 Super Rugby Debut: 2010 (Cheetahs) v Bulls

Sias Ebersohn is an attacking playmaker who joins the Western Force from the Cheetahs. The specialist flyhalf has been a regular starting pivot for the Cheetahs since making his Super Rugby debut in 2010. Ebersohn has represented South Africa at Schoolboys and Under 20 level as well as playing five seasons at the senior provincial level.

TETERA FAULKNER – PROP

 Physical: 1.78m, 117kg

 Born: 26.07.88, Tauranga NZ

 Province/Club: Wanneroo (WA)/
Southern Districts (NSW)

 Super Rugby Caps: 3

 Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Rebels

Tetera Faulkner is a supremely strong athlete that continues to forge his way towards regular Super Rugby representation. The Kiwi-born front-rower is a technically outstanding scrummager and has represented the Australian Schoolboys, Under 19 and Under 20 sides. Faulkner played two matches in 2012, earning his run-on debut against the Crusaders.

KYLE GODWIN – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.87m, 93kg

Born: 30.07.92, Harare Zimbabwe

Province/Club: Associates (WA)

Super Rugby Caps: 3

Super Rugby Points: 7 (1t, 1c)

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Reds

Kyle Godwin is a talented, local Perth product, who graduates to the Western Force senior squad from the Extended Playing Squad. Godwin had a stellar 2012 that featured his selection as starting flyhalf for the Australian Under 20 side at the IRB Junior World Championships, making his Super Rugby debut and a premiership with Perth club, Associates.

JAYDEN HAYWARD – CENTRE

Physical: 1.85m, 95kg

Born: 11.08.87

Province/Club: TBC

Super Rugby Caps: 24 (9 Highlanders, 15 Hurricanes)

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2009 (Highlanders) v Brumbies

Jayden Hayward joins the Western Force as a foreign developing player for 2013. Hayward joins the Force after spending two years each representing the Highlanders and Hurricanes. Hayward has been a consistent performer for Taranaki across five seasons of ITM Cup rugby, breaking a New Zealand first-class record – scoring a try in 10 consecutive matches in 2010 and 2011.

MATT HODGSON – FLANKER/NO.8

Physical: 1.85m, 103kg

Born: 25.06.81, Sydney NSW

Province/Club: Wanneroo (WA)

Super Rugby Caps: 83

Super Rugby Points: 25 (5t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Brumbies

Test Caps: 6

Test Points: 0

Test Debut: 2010 v Fiji

Matt Hodgson has been part of the backbone of the Western Force since joining the club for its inaugural season in 2006. The robust and versatile back-rower can play on either side of the scrum or at No.8, and is renowned for his high involvement and consistent ball-winning at the breakdown. He has been appointed Club Captain for the 2013 Super Rugby season.

KIERAN LONGBOTTOM – PROP

Physical: 1.81m, 113kg

Born: 20.12.85, Perth WA

Province/Club: Rockingham (WA)/
Eastwood (NSW)

Super Rugby Caps: 30

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Chiefs

Kieran Longbottom is a powerful, locally-produced loosehead prop, who lines up for his sixth season of Super Rugby. A neck injury restricted the 27-year-old to eight matches in 2012 with starts against the Hurricanes and Rebels. Longbottom is the first born-and-bred WA player to progress into the Western Force with his current contract keeping him in Perth until 2014.

TOBY LYNN – LOCK

Physical: 1.97m, 113kg
Born: 06.10.84, Hamilton NZ
Province/Club: Wanneroo (WA)
Super Rugby Caps: 47
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2007 (Chiefs) v Brumbies

Toby Lynn returns for his second season with the Western Force after joining from ITM Cup side, Waikato. Regarded as one of the most experienced tight forwards Waikato has produced, Lynn was a consistent performer for the Force, proving a reliable option in the lineout and crossed for his maiden Super Rugby try against the Brumbies.

SALESI MA'AFU – PROP

Physical: 1.84m, 118kg
Born: 26.03.83, Sydney NSW
Province/Club: Joondalup (WA)/ West Harbour (NSW)

Super Rugby Points: 20 (4t – Brumbies)
Super Rugby Debut: 2007 (Brumbies) v Chiefs
Test Caps: 13
Test Points: 5 (1t)
Test Debut: 2010 v Fiji

Salesi Ma'afu is a supremely powerful front-rower who returns for his seventh season of Super Rugby. The international tighthead prop joined the Western Force as a key signing for the 2012 season. A broken arm suffered towards the end of the season, ruled him out of the final three matches and robbed him of adding to his 13 Test caps.

ALFIE MAFI – WING/FULLBACK

 Physical: 1.82m, 95kg

 Born: 08.06.88, Tongatapu TON

 Province/Club: Perth Bayswater (WA)/Sydney University (NSW)

 Super Rugby Caps: 45 (9 Waratahs, 7 Brumbies)

 Super Rugby Points: 30 (6t) (5 Brumbies)

 Super Rugby Debut: 2008 (Waratahs) v Hurricanes

Alfie Mafi asserted himself as a 'must have' in the Western Force starting line-up in 2012. The former junior Australian representative played each match for the Western Force and finished the season as the side's top try scorer. Having played the bulk of his career on the wing, Mafi added another string to his bow, starting 10 matches at fullback during the 2012 season.

ALBY MATHEWSON – SCRUMHALF

 Physical: 1.73m, 93kg

 Born: 13.12.85, Hastings NZ

 Province/Club: Hawkes Bay (NZ)

 Super Rugby Caps: 83 (36 Hurricanes, 47 Blues)

 Super Rugby Points: 85 (17t) (20 Hurricanes, 65 Blues)

 Super Rugby Debut: 2007 (Hurricanes) v Reds

 Test Caps: 4

 Test Points: 0

 Test Debut: 2010 (New Zealand) v Australia

Alby Mathewson is a livewire scrumhalf who joins the Western Force as the side's international marquee player for 2013 and 2014. The four-time All Black is one of the competition's premier attacking scrumhalves, who has remained a consistent performer since making his debut for the Hurricanes in 2007. Mathewson has not missed a game through injury during his Super Rugby career.

LACHLAN MCCAFFREY – NO.8/FLANKER

Physical: 1.94m, 108kg
Born: 17.03.90, Sydney NSW
Province/Club: Nedlands (WA)/Eastwood (NSW)
Super Rugby Caps: 8 (1 Waratahs)
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 (Waratahs) v Cheetahs

Locky McCaffrey is a grafting back-rower who returns for his second season with the Western Force. McCaffrey, who made his Super Rugby debut for the Waratahs in 2010, played seven matches for the Force last season, starting at No.8 against the Blues and Crusaders. McCaffrey has represented the Australian Schoolboys (2007) and Under 20's (2010).

BEN MCCALMAN – LOCK/NO.8/FLANKER

Physical: 1.92m, 106kg
Born: 18.03.88, Dubbo NSW
Province/Club: Sydney University (NSW)
Super Rugby Caps: 37
Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Brumbies
Test Caps: 21
Test Points: 10 (2t)
Test Debut: 2010 v South Africa

Ben McCalman is a big, powerful utility, who has become a key member of the Western Force. With the ability to play lock or across the back row, McCalman is one of the Force pack's most valuable assets. Prior to his injury-depleted 2012, McCalman had been a part of every Force match day 22 since making his Super Rugby debut.

DAVE RENNIE – HEAD COACH

Born: 22.11.63, Upper Hutt NZ

Chiefs Coaching Debut: 2011

Other Coaching Roles: Head Coach Manawatu NPC 2006-2011, Head Coach New Zealand Under 20 2008-2010, Head Coach IRANZ 2003-2007, Assistant Coach Hurricanes 2002, Head Coach Hurricanes U23 2001, Head Coach Wellington NPC 2000-2002.

In his first year coaching the Chiefs, Dave Rennie led his side to win both the 2012 Investec Super Rugby title and the New Zealand Conference. Prior to joining the Chiefs he was the Head Coach of the Manawatu NPC side from 2006 and took the team to the final of the ITM Cup Championship in 2011. As the New Zealand Under 20 coach his side won three consecutive world championship titles from 2008-2010. Dave was the Head Coach of the International Rugby Academy of New Zealand (IRANZ) from 2003 – 2007 and made his Super Rugby debut in 2002 as the Assistant Coach of the Hurricanes. In his first year as Head Coach of the Wellington NPC team his side won the 2000 NPC Championship. Dave played 59 games as a midfield back for the Wellington Lions from 1986 also representing Cook Islands in 1990 and retired from playing in 1991.

TOM COVENTRY – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 24.11.65, Hamilton NZ

Chiefs Coaching Debut: 2011

Other Coaching Roles: Manu Samoa 2010-2011, Hawke's Bay NPC 2007-2011, New Zealand Under 20 Resource Coach 2008-2009, New Zealand Schools Head Coach 2005-2006, Chiefs Development Head Coach 2002-2003.

Tom Coventry was an integral part of the Chiefs winning performance in 2012. His work with the forwards transformed an area that had previously been under scrutiny. He coached Manu Samoa from 2010 – 2011 which included their historic victory over the Wallabies prior to the Rugby World Cup 2011. Tom coached the Hawke's Bay NPC side from 2007, winning the ITM Cup Championship in 2011. As a player, he captained the New Zealand University team. He played NPC for Otago and 52 games for the Waikato NPC side as a loose forward, winning the Ranfurly Shield in 1993 and the 1992 NPC title with them.

WAYNE SMITH – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 19 04.57, Putaruru NZ

Chiefs Coaching Debut: 2011

Other Coaching Roles: Crusaders 1997-98, All Blacks Technical Advisor 1998-99, All Blacks Coach 2000-01, Northampton Saints Coach 2001-04, All Blacks Assistant Coach 2004-11

It was an impressive twelve months of rugby for Wayne Smith, having been part of the Chiefs inaugural Investec Super Rugby title and assisting the All Blacks to the 2011 Rugby World Cup win. He was named a Companion of the Order of New Zealand for his services to rugby in the 2012 Queen's Birthday Honours list. Wayne was involved as the All Blacks attacking coach from 2004 until 2011 and was previously All Blacks Technical Advisor in 1998 and 1999 before taking over the Head Coach role for the following two seasons. Wayne then spent three seasons with English club Northampton. He coached the Crusaders to the Super 12 title in 1998 with Peter Sloane and again in 1999 with Steve Hansen. As a rugby player, Wayne played 35 games (17 Tests) at first five-eighth for the All Blacks between 1980 and 1985. He scored six tries and four drop goals for the All Blacks. Unusually, all six of his Test points were scored by dropped goal. Wayne played 74 games for Canterbury at first-five scoring the winning try for Canterbury when the Ranfurly Shield was lifted from Wellington in 1982.

ANDREW STRAWBRIDGE – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 05.08.64, Christchurch NZ

Chiefs Coaching Debut: 2001

Other Coaching Roles: Blues Development Coach 2010-2011, Auckland NPC Assistant Coach 2009-2011, NZRU Resource Coach 2003-2011, NZ Under 20 Skills Coach 2008-2009, North Harbour NPC Assistant Coach 2003-2004, Chiefs Skills Coach 2001-2002, Chiefs Development Coach 2002-2003

Andrew Strawbridge played his rugby in the Waikato from 1983-1995. He retired with 131 games and 53 tries to his name. He won the National Provincial Championship with the side in 1992 and the Ranfurly Shield in 1993. The former All Blacks trialist played rugby in Scotland and retired from the game after changing codes to play Soccer. Strawbridge was involved with the Chiefs in 2001 as a kicking coach until he became Assistant Coach at North Harbour in 2003. He assisted with the New Zealand Under 20 in 2008 and 2009 and was the Auckland ITM Cup Assistant Coach and Blues Development Coach prior to re-joining the Chiefs. Strawbridge was also a New Zealand resource coach for eight years.

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Highlanders

Mike Fitzgerald is in his second year with the Chiefs. The young lock played every game in the 2012 ITM Cup competition for his side Manawatu. He got limited game time in his Investec Super Rugby debut season but added impact off the bench with his uncompromising attitude in contact. The ultimate work horse has proven to be a solid tackler. Fitzgerald represented the Heartland XV that toured the United States in 2009.

ROMANA GRAHAM – LOCK

Physical: 2.00m, 115kg

Born: 29.05.86, Hastings NZ

Province: Waikato

Provincial Points: 20 (4t)

Provincial Debut: 2008 v Otago

Super Rugby Caps: 18

Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Western Force

The current Maori All Black was part of the Waikato side who lifted the Ranfurly Shield in 2012. He is strong aerially and highly skilled. Graham has represented Waikato for the past five years and heads into his fifth year with the Chiefs. Romana is a former New Zealand basketball representative and will be looking to make an impact this season.

ANDREW HORRELL – FIRST FIVE-EIGHTH

Physical: 1.82m, 93kg

Born: 18.07.88, Lincoln NZ

Province: Hawke's Bay

Provincial Caps: 34

Provincial Points: 204 (7t, 26c, 39p)

Provincial Debut: 2009 v Bay of Plenty

Super Rugby Caps: 14

Super Rugby Points: 5

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Blues

Andrew Horrell enjoyed a strong debut Investec Super Rugby season. Initially selected as a first five-eighth, he forced his way into the starting line-up at fullback, before settling in midfield for the play-offs. Horrell earned his Super Rugby position on the back of an impressive ITM Cup competition in 2011 where he helped his province Hawke's Bay win the ITM Cup Championship.

RICHARD KAHUI – MIDFIELD BACK

Physical: 1.90m 105kg

Born: 09.06.85, Tokoroa NZ

Province: Waikato

Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Cheetahs
(for Highlanders)

Test Caps: 17

Test Points: 50 (10t)

Test Debut: 2008 v England

Richard Kahui is one of the most experienced players in the side and notched up his 50th match for Chiefs last year before enduring a season ending shoulder injury which kept him out of the All Blacks. A true team man, Kahui contributes greatly to the franchise both on and off the field. He was part of the 2011 Rugby World Cup winning side scoring two tries on the wing in the opening match. A strong all rounder, Kahui is equally comfortable on both attack and defence, proving to be a handful for his opposition.

TAWERA KERR-BARLOW – HALFBACK

Physical: 1.87m, 89kg

Born: 15.08.90, Melbourne VIC

Province: Waikato

Provincial Caps: 36

Super Rugby Caps: 28

Super Rugby Points: 15 (3t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Brumbies

Test Caps: 2

Test Points: 0

Test Debut: 2012 v Scotland

Tawera Kerr-Barlow made his All Blacks debut against Scotland on the Northern Hemisphere end of year tour. He was one of the stand-out players from last season's Investec Super Rugby showing the opposition that he is tenacious and aggressive. He was an influential part of Waikato's Ranfurly Shield win, having made his ITM Cup debut in his first year out of school for Waikato in 2010. The son of a former Women's Australian rugby international, Kerr-Barlow represented New Zealand in school rugby and was part of 2010 IRB World Championship winning side.

TANERAU LATIMER – LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 1.87m, 101kg
Born: 06.05.86, Te Puke NZ
Province: Bay of Plenty

Super Rugby Points: 35 (7t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Western Force (for Crusaders)
Test Caps: 5
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2009 v France

Honoured with the captaincy of Maori All Blacks in 2012 after an impressive Investec Super Rugby season, Tanerau Latimer is a highly respected contributor both on and off the field. He is calm under pressure, extremely professional with an outstanding work rate. Latimer is a triple New Zealand representative having made his All Blacks debut in 2009, Maori All Blacks debut in 2010 and was part of the All Blacks Sevens side who won gold at the 2006 Commonwealth Games. He plays his ITM Cup rugby for Bay of Plenty.

FRITZ LEE – NO.8

Physical: 1.90m, 107kg
Born: 29.08.88, Samoa
Province: Counties Manukau
Provincial Caps: 53
Provincial Points: 45 (9t)
Provincial Debut: 2007 v Northland
Super Rugby Caps: 16
Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Brumbies

Fritz Lee had a dream start to the 2012 ITM Cup, scoring two tries in the opening game for his Tana Umaga coached Counties Manukau side. In round four he incurred a season ending arm injury. Despite not getting much game time over the last year, Lee showed he is a team player by bringing his physical edge and pushing hard behind the scenes. He has appeared for the All Blacks Sevens team and is aggressive with ball in hand.

BRENDON LEONARD – HALFBACK

Physical: 1.83m, 93kg

Born: 16.04.85, Morrinsville NZ

Province: Waikato

Provincial Caps: 63

Provincial Points: 75 (15t)

Super Rugby Caps: 68

Super Rugby Points: 90 (18t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Brumbies

Test Caps: 13

Test Points: 10 (2t)

Test Debut: 2007 v France

Brendon Leonard enters his seventh season with the Chiefs. The former All Black missed a big part of the 2012 Investec Super Rugby last season with a hamstring injury. He is a highly dedicated player who offers a wealth of experience to the young side. Leonard was part of the 2012 Ranfurly Shield winning Waikato side, made two finals in 2010 and 2011 and won a National Provincial title in 2006 with them.

PAULIASI MANU – PROP

Physical: 1.84m, 115kg

Born: 23.12.87, Vavau TON

Province: Auckland

Province caps: 39

Province Points: 15

Province Debut: 2007 v Poverty Bay

Super Rugby Caps: 5

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Waratahs (Blues)

Pauliasi Manu joins the Chiefs after two seasons with the Blues. The explosive prop is a strong and agile ball carrier. Manu was in the Auckland Academy and the Blues wider training squad before being called into the starting line up against the Waratahs in 2011. He had a strong ITM Cup season and is looking forward to securing a starting role.

RHYS MARSHALL – HOOKER

Physical: 1.84m, 104kg

Born: 12.10.92, New Plymouth NZ

Province: Taranaki

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Rhys Marshall makes his Investec Super Rugby debut this season. The hooker was part of New Zealand Under 20 side in 2012, having a strong tournament at the Junior World Championship in South Africa. He captained the Hawke's Bay Under 20 side that won the Central Region competition and was captain of the New Plymouth Boys First XV. He is joining Taranaki for the 2013 ITM Cup, a side his father has also represented.

LELIA MASAGA – WINGER

Physical: 1.83m, 95kg

Born: 30.08.86, Wellington NZ

Province: Bay of Plenty

Provincial Caps: 81

Provincial Points: 220 (44t)

Super Rugby Caps: 75

Super Rugby Points: 165 (33t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Western Force

Test Caps: 1

Test Points: 0

Test Debut: 2009 v Italy

Nicknamed 'Flash', Lelia Masaga is one of the most entertaining players in the competition. The former All Black and Junior All Black is renowned for his try scoring prowess and celebrations. In his eighth season with the Chiefs, the winger plays his ITM Cup rugby for Bay of Plenty and was the top try scorer in the Under 21 Rugby World Cup in 2006.

LIAM MESSAM – LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 1.90m, 108kg
Born: 25.03.84 Blenheim NZ
Province: Waikato
Provincial Caps: 84
Provincial Points: 148 (29t, 1d)

Super Rugby Caps: 96
Super Rugby Points: 110 (22t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v The Sharks
Test Caps: 20
Test Points: 15 (3t)
Test Debut: 2008 v Scotland

All Blacks Liam Messam is on track to become the Chiefs first centurion. He is currently the highest capped Chief and has cemented the All Blacks no 6 jersey due to his solid work rate. Messam is one of the Chiefs' biggest communicators and plays a pivotal leadership role both on and off the field. The former Maori All Blacks captain is also a double Gold Commonwealth Games sevens winner and was a finalist of the 2012 for Maori Sportsperson of the Year and won the 2012 Tom French Memorial Maori Player of the Year at the NZRU Steinlager Awards.

TIM NANAI-WILLIAMS – FULLBACK/WINGER

Physical: 1.81m, 87Kg
Born: 12.06.89, Auckland NZ
Province: Counties Manukau
Provincial Caps: 46
Provincial Points: 234 (16t, 29c, 32p)
Provincial Debut: 2008 v Northland
Super Rugby Caps: 39
Super Rugby Points: 58 (10t, 1c, 2p)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v The Sharks

Tim Nanai-Williams is an exciting attacking back, entering his fourth season with the Chiefs. The versatile former All Blacks Sevens player's agility and speed make him highly threatening with the ball in hand. He earned a nomination in the 2012 Steinlager Awards for ITM Cup Player of the Year after being a key play maker in Counties Manukau's ITM Cup Championship win.

CHARLIE NGATAI – MIDFIELD BACK

Physical: 1.86m, 97kg

Born: 17.08.90, Gisborne NZ

Province: Wellington

Provincial Caps: 37

Provincial Points: 45 (9t)

Provincial Debut: 2008 v Wanganui
(Poverty Bay)

Super Rugby Caps: 11

Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Chiefs

Charlie Ngatai makes his Chiefs debut this season bringing with him valuable experience and a solid skill set. The Maori All Black is quick and has represented New Zealand in the Colgate games as a sprinter. He is a former New Zealand Under 20, New Zealand Schools team member and Hurricane. He plays his ITM Cup rugby for Wellington.

PATRICK OSBORNE – WINGER

Physical: 1.89m, 105kg

Born: 14.06.87, Suva FIJI

Province: Canterbury

Provincial Caps: 17

Provincial Points: 25 (5t)

Provincial Debut: 2010 v Hawke's Bay

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Patrick Osborne makes his Chiefs debut this season having been part of the Crusaders squad last year and is looking forward to making his on-field debut. His agility, acceleration and try scoring abilities make him an exciting player to watch. The tall Fijian born winger made his ITM Cup debut for Canterbury in 2010 but had limited 2012 ITM Cup action due to a broken collar bone. The physically aggressive player has come through the Canterbury academy system.

AUGUSTINE PULU – HALFBACK

Physical: 1.79m, 93kg

Born: 04.01.90, Otahuhu NZ

Province: Counties Manukau

Provincial Caps: 40

Provincial Points: 10 (2t)

Provincial Debut: 2009 v Bay of Plenty

Super Rugby Caps: 8

Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Blues

Augustine Pulu was part of the Chiefs wider training squad last year, but injury saw him called into the side where he capitalised on his opportunities and earned an early Chiefs contract for the 2013 season. He was instrumental in Counties Manukau's ITM Cup Championship win in 2012 and was awarded Player of the Day in the final. Pulu is a talented young player with a bright future.

BRODIE RETALLICK – LOCK

Physical: 2.04m 117kg

Born: 31.05.91, Rangiora NZ

Province: Bay of Plenty

Provincial Caps: 12

Provincial Points: 5 (1t)

Provincial Debut: 2010 v Auckland

Super Rugby Caps: 17

Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Highlanders

Test Caps: 13

Test Points: 0

Test Debut 2012 v Ireland

Brodie Retallick has had an outstanding last twelve months. The talented young lock earned a call into the All Blacks in 2012 after an impressive Investec Super Rugby debut season. One of the strongest locks in the competition last year, Retallick was a key driving player for the Chiefs forward pack. He was presented the Chiefs Rookie of the Year and Player of the Year awards. With his massive work rate and mobility the former 2011 World Champion New Zealand Under 20 member has a long bright future ahead.

ROBBIE ROBINSON – FULLBACK

Physical: 1.81m, 89kg
Born: 22.08.89, Westport NZ
Province: Southland
Provincial Caps: 51
Provincial Points: 165 (3t, 44c, 53p, 1d)
Provincial Debut: 2008 v Bay of Plenty
Super Rugby Caps: 35
Super Rugby Points: 64 (4t, 7c, 9p, 1d)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Reds

Robbie Robinson enters his second season with the Chiefs as one of the stand-out performers at the business end of the previous season. He has played all his ITM Cup for Southland but his 2012 season was cut short with a broken leg. Robinson was part of the 2011 Ranfurly Shield winning side, slotting a memorable kick for the win. The dynamic fullback is a former Maori All Black, was part of the 2009 New Zealand Under 20 Junior World Championship winning side and captained New Zealand Secondary Schools in 2007. He has also played for the Highlanders.

SOLOMOANA SAKALIA – PROP

Physical: 1.90m, 118kg
Born: 02.02.91, Porirua NZ
Province: Wellington
Provincial Caps: 7
Provincial Points: 0
Provincial Debut: 2012 v Hawke's Bay
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Solomoana Sakalia makes his Investec Super Rugby debut this season. The tall prop plays his ITM Cup for Wellington but had limited action in the 2012 competition due to a shoulder injury. The mobile former 2011 New Zealand Under 20 Junior World Championship-winning team member has also represented New Zealand Secondary Schools.

MAHONRI SCHWALGER – HOOKER

Physical: 1.84m, 107kg
Born: 15.09.79, Apia SAMOA
Province: Counties Manukau
Provincial Caps: 98
Provincial Points: 90 (18t)
Provincial Debut: 1999 v Waikato (for Hawke's Bay)
Super Rugby Caps: 46
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2005 v Stormers (Highlanders)
Test Caps: 42 (Samoa)
Test Points: 20 (4t)
Test Debut: 2000 v Wales

Mahonri Schwalger was one of the stand-out hookers of last year's Investec Super Rugby competition. The former captain of Samoa and three time RWC veteran joined forces with Tana Umaga at Counties Manukau and helped the side to their ITM Cup Championship title win. A player who possesses outstanding leadership skills, Schwalger captained Samoa to their historic win over Australia in 2011. He has played for the Sale Sharks, Llanelli Scarlets, Highlanders, Hurricanes and Taranaki ITM Cup side.

TOBY SMITH – PROP

Physical: 1.89m, 115kg
Born: 10.10.88, Townsville QLD
Province: Waikato
Provincial Caps: 40
Provincial Points: 30 (6t)
Provincial Debut: 2008 v Bay of Plenty
Super Rugby Caps: 26
Super Rugby Points: 15 (3t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Reds

Toby Smith is in his fourth season with the Chiefs. He is dynamic around the field with good scrummaging technique. Smith was a consistent performer in the ITM Cup and helped his side Waikato win the Ranfurly Shield in 2012. This season will see the former New Zealand Under 20 2008 Junior World Championship winning team member try to cement a starting position.

BEN TAMEIFUNA – PROP

Physical: 1.84m, 137kg
Born: 30/08/1991, Auckland NZ
Province: Hawke's Bay
Provincial Caps: 14
Provincial Points: 5 (1t)
Provincial Debut: 2010 v Counties Manukau
Super Rugby Caps: 16
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Blues

Ben Tameifuna entered last year's Investec Super Rugby competition as injury cover and quickly made his mark with his strong scrummaging skills for such a young player and was nominated for Chiefs Rookie of the Year. The former halfback was part of the New Zealand Under 20 IRB Junior World Championship winning team and has proven he is a big defender who is strong with the ball in hand.

Tameifuna played ITM Cup for Hawke's Bay and represented New Zealand Schools in 2009.

ASAELI TIKOIROTUMA – WINGER

Physical: 1.88m, 92kg
Born: 24.06.86, Fiji
Province: Manawatu
Provincial Caps: 62
Provincial Points: 155 (31t)
Provincial Debut: 2005 v North Otago (for Wanganui)
Super Rugby Caps: 15
Super Rugby Points: 35 (7t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Highlanders

Asaeli Tikoirotuma enters his second season with the Chiefs after a solid start to his Investec Super Rugby career. The winger's confidence grew as the competition progressed. He scored four tries in a match against the Blues, joining the Super Rugby elite group of only ten other players to have achieved this, including former Chief Sitiveni Sivivatu. Fijian-born Tikoirotuma has played three ITM Cup seasons for Manawatu, aiding them to the final of the ITM Cup Championship in 2011. He won the Heartland Player of the Year in 2009 with Wanganui in his fifth season with the provincial side.

MILESTONES

- Three players have a good chance of reaching 50 Super Rugby caps this season – Ryan Crotty (45 caps), Adam Whitelock (42 caps) and Samuel Whitelock (42 caps). Robbie Fruean has 50 Super Rugby caps but one of those was for the Hurricanes, so he should get his 50th Crusaders cap this season.
- Halfback Andrew Ellis is approaching his 100th Super Rugby cap, having played 89 games for the Crusaders by the end of last season.
- Four players in the Crusaders squad have already surpassed 100 Super Rugby games – Richie McCaw (120 caps), Corey Flynn (119 caps), Daniel Carter (109 caps), Wyatt Crockett (104 caps).
- The Crusaders had the highest point's differential in the 2012 season, at 142 points.
- Daniel Carter's 1377 Super Rugby points (30 tries, 228 conversions, 246 penalties, 6 drop goals) is the highest total in Super Rugby history.

TODD BLACKADDER – HEAD COACH

Born: 20.09.73, Rangiora NZ

Crusaders Coaching Debut: 2009

Other Coaching Roles: Tasman Coach 2008; Tasman Director of Rugby 2007; Crusaders Technical Assistant 2007; Edinburgh Gunners Coach 2006; Scotland Assistant Coach 2004-05; Edinburgh Forwards Coach 2004-05.

Former All Blacks and Crusaders Captain, Todd Blackadder returns for his fifth year as Head Coach of the Crusaders. He has guided the team to three semi-finals and one final in his four years as coach to date.

Blackadder took on the Crusaders role after playing and coaching in Scotland and then taking Tasman to the quarter-finals of New Zealand's national provincial competition in 2008.

He had previously enjoyed an illustrious playing career consisting of 25 All Blacks games including 14 as All Blacks captain; captain of the Crusaders Super Rugby team and the only man to ever lift the Super Rugby trophy three times as captain of the winning team; and captain of the Canterbury provincial team, which included leading the team to its first NPC success in 14 years in 1997 and a second NPC triumph immediately prior to his departure in 2001.

DAVE HEWETT – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 14.07.71, Christchurch NZ

Crusaders Coaching Debut: 2011

Other Coaching Roles: Crusaders Scrum Coach 2009; Crusaders Technical Advisor – Forwards 2010.

Former All Blacks prop, Dave Hewett, first joined the Crusaders coaching team as a Scrum Coach in 2009 and in 2010 he was a Technical Advisor – Forwards. In 2011 and 2012 he was one of the Assistant Coaches.

Hewett's expert guidance with the forwards helped ensure that the Crusaders had the most efficient scrum out of all the Super Rugby teams in the 2012 season.

Hewett played 22 tests for the All Blacks after making his first appearance at age 30. He scored a try on his test debut against Ireland at Dublin in 2001 and played the last of his 22 tests for New Zealand at the 2003 Rugby World Cup. He also played 71 times for the Crusaders, 55 times for the Canterbury provincial team and eight times for South Canterbury. He played 35 games for Edinburgh, under the stewardship of fellow coach Todd Blackadder for 2 years.

TABAI MATSON – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 14.05.73, Fiji

Crusaders Coaching Debut: 2013

Other Coaching Roles: Canterbury Head Coach 2012, Canterbury Assistant Coach 2009-2011, Head Coach Gold Coast Eagles RC 2009, Gold Coast Breakers Div 1 Head Coach 2008, University of Queensland Assistant Coach 2007; Head Coach Yamaha Rugby Club 2003-2006

Tabai Matson joins the Crusaders coaching team fresh from a season as head coach of Canterbury. He led the team to its fifth successive national provincial title plus set try scoring and defensive records for Canterbury and the ITM Cup. His focus with the Crusaders will be on improving the attack play.

Matson is also a former All Black, Canterbury and Crusaders centre and a Fijian International. Having lived in France, England, Japan and Australia for more than ten years, Matson brings a wealth of overseas playing and coaching experience. He would be one of a very few New Zealand Coaches to have the ARU Top Coaching Qualification.

AARON MAUGER – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 29.11.80 Christchurch NZ

Crusaders Coaching Debut: 2013

Other Coaching Roles: Canterbury Attack Coach 2012, High School Old Boys Coach 2011-2012

Aaron Mauger has been picked up by the Crusaders coaching team after impressing with the work he did on skills and attack with the Canterbury provincial team.

He is another former Canterbury, Crusaders and All Blacks player, who made his mark with his ability to find gaps, run outstanding lines, stand his line solidly in defence, pass intelligently to set up his outside players, and kick like a first-five – all skills he'll be aiming to impart on the 2013 Crusaders back line. Throughout his entire career with the Crusaders he managed to rack up over 150 points, dotting down a staggering 22 times, with an additional 10 conversions, two penalties and six drop goals. He did this from many different positions on the park, ranging from fullback, to centre and first or second five. He played for the All Blacks at second five from 2001 to 2007.

DOMINIC BIRD – LOCK

Physical: 2.06m, 112kg
Born: 09.04.91
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 13
Provincial/State Points: 0
Provincial/State Debut: 2011 v Manawatu
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Bird, the tallest member of the Crusaders squad, has earned a place in the 2013 line-up after an impressive campaign with the 2012 ITM Cup Premiership-winning Canterbury team. After two seasons in the Crusaders' wider training group and only a single provincial cap prior to the 2012 season, patience and hard work paid off for Bird in the 2012 provincial season. He appeared in every match for Canterbury and shone as one of the best lineout technicians in the competition.

The towering lock grew up in the farming community of Waipukurau in the Hawkes Bay, but moved to Christchurch at the end of 2009 to further his rugby career.

Bird was also a member of the 2011 New Zealand Under 20 team that competed in the IRB Junior World Championship in Italy.

TYLER BLEYENDAAL – FIRST FIVE-EIGHTH

Physical: 1.85m, 96kg
Born: 31.05.90
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 21
Provincial/State Points: 101 (2t, 23c, 14p, 1dg)
Provincial/State Debut: 2011 v Wellington
Super Rugby Caps: 5
Super Rugby Points: 44(4c, 12p)
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Blues

Tyler Bleyendaal was born and raised in Christchurch. He started off playing soccer when he was younger but by about the age of eight had switched to rugby. It was a wise move as Bleyendaal captained the Under 20 New Zealand side which lifted the World Championship title in Argentina in 2010, and was selected in both the Crusaders and Canterbury ITM squads in 2011.

His Crusaders debut came last season against the Blues and saw him continue the remarkable record of Christchurch Boys' High School old boys, such as Colin Slade, Stephen Brett, Aaron Mauger, Andrew Mehrrens and Daniel Carter, who have started at number 10 for the Crusaders.

DANIEL CARTER – FIRST FIVE-EIGHTH

Physical: 1.78m, 94kg
Born: 05.03.82
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 27
Provincial/State Points: 289(12t, 47c, 45p)
Provincial/State Debut: 2002 v Marlborough
Super Rugby Caps: 109
Super Rugby Points: 1377 (30t, 228c, 246p, 11d)
Super Rugby Debut: 2003 v Hurricanes
Test Caps: 94
Test Points: 1385 (29t, 245c, 244p, 6d)
Test Debut: 2003 v Wales

As the highest points scorer in both Super Rugby and test match rugby, Carter is regarded as one of the world's best current first-fives and is believed by many to be one of rugby's greatest ever.

Carter made his provincial debut for Canterbury in 2002 and joined the Crusaders the following season. He also made his All Blacks debut in 2003, scoring 20 points against Wales in Hamilton and going on to make the 2003 Rugby World Cup squad. He also played in the 2007 and 2011 Rugby World Cups, although a groin injury kept him out of the 2011 RWC playoffs and saw him miss the early stages of the 2012 Super Rugby season.

SHANE CHRISTIE – LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 1.84m, 107kg
Born: 23.09.85
Province/Club: Tasman
Provincial/State Caps: 31
Provincial/State Points: 10 (2t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2010 v Wellington
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Christie is one of three new loose forwards in the Crusaders squad. He received the call-up after an outstanding provincial season where he was one of the star players for Tasman.

He is a physical openside flanker who generates turnovers and has an impressive work rate.

He has also played in the All Blacks Sevens team and in the Maori All Blacks squad for the 2012 European tour.

WYATT CROCKETT – PROP

Physical: 1.93m, 116kg
Born: 24.01.83
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 72
Provincial/State Points: 30 (6t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2005 v Marlborough
Super Rugby Caps: 104
Super Rugby Points: 30 (6t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Highlanders
Test Caps: 11
Test Points: 5 (1t)
Test Debut: 2009 v Italy

Loosehead prop Crockett joined the Canterbury side and the Crusaders wider training group in 2005, and the following year was named a member of the Crusaders playing squad. He has become a pivotal part of the team and earned his 100th Crusaders cap last season.

He has also represented at all levels nationally, as a member of New Zealand's 2002 Under 19 World Cup and 2004 Under 21 World Cup championship sides, and making his All Blacks debut in 2009.

He is a skilled scrummager who also boasts an excellent work rate around the field.

RYAN CROTTY – SECOND FIVE-EIGHTH

Physical: 1.79m, 91kg
Born: 23.09.88
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 43
Provincial/State Points: 35(7t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2008 v Otago
Super Rugby Caps: 45
Super Rugby Points: 25(5t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Hurricanes

An intelligent midfielder and natural leader, Crotty really started to hit his straps for the Crusaders last season.

He earned his first start for the Crusaders in 2009 against the Western Force and scored his first Super Rugby try early in that match.

Crotty was a member of the successful New Zealand Under 20 team at the Junior World Championship in Wales in 2008 and captained the team against Ireland. He was also selected for the Junior All Blacks in 2009. Ryan's father, Steve played rugby for Nelson Bays and his mother Robyn is a former New Zealand Waterpolo representative.

ISRAEL DAGG – FULLBACK

Physical: 1.86m, 95kg
Born: 06.06.88
Province/Club: Hawkes Bay
Provincial/State Caps: 43
Provincial/State Points: 64(11t, 3c, 1p)
Provincial/State Debut: 2006 v Counties Manukau
Super Rugby Caps: 52
Super Rugby Points: 193(20t, 18c, 19p)
Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Brumbies
Test Caps: 25
Test Points: 62 (12t, 1c)
Test Debut: 2010 v Ireland

Talented fullback Israel Dagg rejoins the Crusaders for a third season, after making the move from the Highlanders Franchise in 2011.

He is a naturally gifted and instinctive player whose talent was spotted at an early age. While still in high school, Dagg represented Hawke's Bay at Under 16 and Under 19 level, and in 2006 he became the first secondary school player to be selected for Hawke's Bay since Danny Lee.

His debut season with the All Blacks was in 2010 and he made an immediate impact with two match winning tries against the Springboks in Wellington and Soweto.

He has also represented New Zealand in Sevens in 2007 and 2008, New Zealand Under 19 in 2007 and New Zealand Schools in 2006.

TOM DONNELLY – LOCK

Physical: 2.00m, 113kg
Born: 01.10.81
Province/Club: N/A
Provincial/State Caps: 73
Provincial/State Points: 20(4t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2002 v Marlborough
Super Rugby Caps: 79
Super Rugby Points: 15(3t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2004 v Chiefs
Test Caps: 15
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2009 v Australia

Donnelly joined the Crusaders in 2012 after eight years and 65 caps with the Highlanders.

He is an experienced lock who is a great scrummager, excellent lineout technician and ball winner.

Donnelly played for the Junior All Blacks in 2006 and 2007 and made his All Blacks debut in 2009 against Australia.

ANDREW ELLIS – HALFBACK

Physical: 1.82m, 89kg
Born: 21.02.84
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 61
Provincial/State Points: 69(12t, 3d)
Provincial/State Debut: 2005 v Nelson Bays
Super Rugby Caps: 89
Super Rugby Points: 89(16t, 3d)
Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Reds
Test Caps: 26
Test Points: 20 (4t)
Test Debut: 2006 v England

Ellis has been the first choice halfback for the Crusaders since his debut season in 2006. He has scored 89 Super Rugby points in as many games and will be hoping to add enough to that tally to top 100 this season.

A member of the Rugby World Cup winning All Blacks side in 2011, Ellis was unlucky to miss selection in 2012.

As well as excelling on the rugby field, Ellis is a former Canterbury age group cricketer and a talented landscape gardener who has won numerous awards at the prestigious Ellerslie Flower Show and a gold award at the Singapore Garden Festival last year.

COREY FLYNN – HOOKER

Physical: 1.84m, 108kg
Born: 05.01.81
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 82
Provincial/State Points: 40 (8t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2001 v Otago
Super Rugby Caps: 119
Super Rugby Points: 80(16t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2002 v Blues
Test Caps: 15
Test Points: 15 (3t)
Test Debut: 2003 v Canada

Veteran hooker Corey Flynn is an important member of the Crusaders team, bringing physicality and toughness to the front row, as well as valuable experience.

Flynn celebrated 100 Super Rugby caps in the 2011 semi final match against the Stormers in Capetown.

Flynn made his international debut for the All Blacks against Canada in the 2003 Rugby World Cup. He was also included in the 2011 RWC squad and has previously played for the Maori All Blacks and the Junior All Blacks.

Flynn follows in the footsteps of his father who played for Southland, his uncle, Robbie Flynn, who played Tests for the United States and nephew Aaron Flynn who played for the Crusaders from 1998-2000.

OWEN FRANKS – PROP

Physical: 1.85m, 118kg
Born: 23.12.87
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 18
Provincial/State Points: 5 (1t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2007 v North Harbour
Super Rugby Caps: 60
Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Force
Test Caps: 45
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2009 v Italy

Tighthead prop Owen Franks has become a key part of the Crusaders front row since he debuted for them in 2009. With older brother Ben moving to the Hurricanes this season, Owen will be partnering up with loosehead props Wyatt Crockett and Joe Moody. His impressive strength and scrummaging technique should help the Crusaders to establish a formidable scrum this season.

Franks has represented New Zealand at Secondary School, Under 21 and All Blacks level, making his first run on for the All Blacks against Italy in Christchurch in 2009.

ROBBIE FRUEAN – CENTRE

Physical: 1.90m 104kg
Born: 13.07.88
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 52
Provincial/State Points: 120 (24t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2007 v Auckland
Super Rugby Caps: 50
Super Rugby Points: 65 (13t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Blues

Fruean is a dynamic and inspirational player who has brought speed and power to the Crusaders midfield since he joined the squad in 2010.

In 2007 he represented NZ in the Under 19 Rugby World Championship, was named the IRB World Under 19 Player of the Year, and made his provincial debut for Wellington. However his rugby career then had to be put temporarily on hold while he underwent open-heart surgery to repair a potentially life-threatening inflammation of the heart known as pancarditis. It didn't hold him back for long though and in his debut season with Canterbury in the 2010 ITM Cup he was the joint leading try scorer and ITM Cup Player of the Year. He has continued to impress in recent seasons and will no doubt continue to be a serious threat on attack this season.

BEN FUNNELL – HOOKER

Physical: 1.80m 105kg
Born: 06.06.90
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 22
Provincial/State Points: 5 (1t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2011 v North Otago
Super Rugby Caps: 1
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Waratahs

Funnell returns to the Crusaders after his debut season last year and two impressive seasons with the Canterbury provincial side.

He and fellow young hooker Codie Taylor clearly benefitted from some more regular game time with Canterbury in 2012 and, with the experience and expertise of former All Blacks hooker Corey Flynn to draw on, they can only continue to improve.

Ben was a former captain of Palmerston North Boys High school Rugby team and was a member of the 2008 NZ Secondary Schools squad. He also captained the Crusader Knights development team in 2012.

ZAC GUILDFORD – WING

Physical: 1.82m, 94kg
Born: 08.02.89
Province/Club: Hawkes Bay
Provincial/State Caps: 56
Provincial/State Points: 175 (35t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2007 v Taranaki
Super Rugby Caps: 66
Super Rugby Points: 135 (27t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Stormers
Test Caps: 10
Test Points: 30 (6t)
Test Debut: 2009 v Wales

Terrific speed, an impressive work rate and a knack for finding the gap make winger, Guildford, an important asset to the Crusaders.

Like fellow Crusaders back Israel Dagg, Guildford hails from the Hawkes Bay and plays his provincial rugby there. He moved to the Crusaders from the Hurricanes in 2010.

Guildford has had an extensive representative career, being involved in the New Zealand Secondary schools, Under 19 and Under 20 squads, as well as winning the IRB Junior World Championships in 2008 and 2009.

Guildford was first selected for the All Blacks for the end of year tour in 2009 and was the youngest player in the squad. He has also represented the All Blacks Sevens rugby.

WILLI HEINZ – HALFBACK

Physical: 1.79m 92kg
Born: 24.11.86
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 34
Provincial/State Points: 35 (7t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2009 v Waikato
Super Rugby Caps: 23
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Chiefs

This will be Willi Heinz's fourth season with the Crusaders, and going on recent form it's likely to be his best yet. Fresh from a fourth championship win in a row with the Canterbury provincial team, Heinz really showed his class in this most recent season and clearly benefitted from more regular game time thanks to regular rotation with fellow halfback Andy Ellis.

A strong all-round player with a good pass, Heinz will be continuing to push for the starting halfback spot.

NEPO LAULALA – PROP

Physical: 1.84m, 116kg
Born: 06.11.91
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 17
Provincial/State Points: 5 (1t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2011 v North Otago
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Laulala is one of nine new recruits in this year's Crusaders squad, earning the call-up after a second impressive provincial season for Canterbury.

As the younger brother of former All Black Casey Laulala, it is already clear that there is plenty of natural talent for this tighthead prop but it is his attitude and commitment that most impressed the Crusaders selectors.

He will benefit from the mentorship of fellow tighthead and All Blacks Owen Franks this season and will provide useful back-up to him.

TOM MARSHALL – UTILITY BACK

Physical: 1.83m 91kg

Born: 07.05.90

Province/Club: Tasman

Provincial/State Caps: 26

Provincial/State Points: 101(5t, 11c, 18p)

Provincial/State Debut: 2010 v Wellington

Super Rugby Caps: 24

Super Rugby Points: 15 (3t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Waratahs

Tom Marshall was selected for the Crusaders after a successful season with his provincial side, Tasman, in 2010. He had an impressive debut season with the Crusaders, gaining regular starts in the second half of the campaign.

A versatile back, Marshall is a talented second-five however he has also frequently stepped into the fullback position for the Crusaders. No matter where he plays he brings a hard edge to the backline, with a physical tackle and great step.

RICHIE MCCAW – FLANKER

Physical: 1.87m, 107kg

Born: 31.12.80

Province/Club: Canterbury

Provincial/State Caps: 34

Provincial/State Points: 50(10t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2000 v North Harbour

Super Rugby Caps: 120

Super Rugby Points: 130 (26t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2001 v Hurricanes

Test Caps: 116

Test Points: 95 (19t)

Test Debut: 2001 v Ireland

As a master of the breakdown and one of the coolest heads in the game, McCaw is considered by many as the greatest openside flanker of all time.

He debuted for the Crusaders in 2001 and was also selected for the All Black's end-of-year tour that year despite having only played a total of eight minutes of Super Rugby. He quickly became the first choice openside flanker and was first named All Blacks captain in 2004 at just 23 years of age. In 2012 he became the first player to achieve 100 test victories – an incredible record given he has only lost 12.

McCaw captained Canterbury to the national provincial title in 2004 and then led the Crusaders to back to back titles in 2005 and 2006 and again in 2008.

JOHNNY MCNICHOLL – WING

Physical: 1.85m, 96kg
Born: 24.09.90
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 22
Provincial/State Points: 75(15t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2011 v North Otago
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

McNicholl is one of the exciting new talents in this year's Crusaders squad. He is not completely new to the environment, having trained in the Crusaders Wider Training Squad in 2012. But it was his outstanding season with the championship Canterbury team in the 2012 national provincial competition that secured his call-up to the Crusaders squad.

He has excelled at both wing and fullback. His remarkable ability to break through tackles saw him regularly cross the chalk for the Canterbury team.

JOE MOODY – PROP

Physical: 1.88m, 112kg
Born: 18.09.88
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 13
Provincial/State Points: 5(1t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2011 v North Otago
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Joining the Crusaders after two championship-winning seasons with the Canterbury provincial team, Moody is looking to make his mark in the loosehead prop position this year. He will receive invaluable mentorship from Canterbury stalwart and All Black Wyatt Crockett.

As a former rugby league junior and New Zealand wrestling representative who won a Junior Commonwealth Games bronze medal and competed at the world junior championships, Moody will be no pushover in the scrum.

KIERAN READ – NO.8

Physical: 1.93m, 110kg
Born: 26.10.85
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 37
Provincial/State Points: 50(10t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2006 v Wairarapa Bush
Super Rugby Caps: 84
Super Rugby Points: 65(13t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Blues
Test Caps: 48
Test Points: 45 (9t)
Test Debut: 2008 v Scotland

Read began his senior representative career as a blindside flanker but has evolved as the starting No.8 for both the Crusaders and All Blacks.

Read represented New Zealand at Schools, Under 19, Under 21 and Junior All Blacks Level. He joined the Canterbury Rugby Football Union Academy just one year out of high school and was playing for Canterbury in the national provincial competition within a year.

Read was first selected for the Crusaders in 2007 and then for the All Blacks in 2008. In 2010 he was named New Zealand Rugby Player of the Year. He has captained Canterbury, the Crusaders and the All Blacks at various times.

Read was also a talented cricketer, being selected for the New Zealand Under 17 tournament side in 2002.

LUKE ROMANO – LOCK

Physical: 1.99m, 115kg
Born: 16.02.86
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 26
Provincial/State Points: 20(4t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2009 v Tasman
Super Rugby Caps: 31
Super Rugby Points: 20(4t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Bulls
Test Caps: 11
Test Points: 5 (1t)
Test Debut: 2012 v Ireland

2012 was a breakthrough year for Romano, impressing for both the Crusaders and for the All Blacks in his debut season.

His professional rugby career started with the Canterbury provincial team in 2009. This will be his third season for the Crusaders and he seems to be going from strength to strength as he gains in experience and confidence.

A builder by trade, Romano was a promising cricketer until he was overcome by injury and made the switch to rugby.

JEREMY SU'A – HALFBACK

Physical: 1.77m, 92kg
Born: 10.11.88
Province/Club: Tasman
Provincial/State Caps: 11
Provincial/State Points: 0
Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Canterbury
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Su'a is one of the Crusaders' new recruits in 2013 but he does not lack in experience. He is a former Australian age-group representative player, has previously been contracted to the Waratahs, was in the Melbourne Rebels wider training squad, and represented Samoa at the 2011 Rugby World Cup. But it was his 2012 season with the Tasman Makos in New Zealand's national provincial competition where he really shone.

With his impressive pace and strong pass, he will challenge experienced Crusaders Andy Ellis and Willi Heinz for the halfback role.

JORDAN TAUFUA – NO.8

Physical: 1.82m, 100kg
Born: 29.01.92
Province/Club: Tasman/Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 12
Provincial/State Points: 10 (2t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Canterbury
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

One of three new loose forwards in the Crusaders squad for 2013, Taufua is an explosive player who will play an important role in this year's forward pack.

Taufua made his professional debut in 2012 in the national provincial competition. He had an outstanding season for Tasman in the ITM Cup and made a real impact when he joined the Canterbury squad for the semi-final and final.

Taufua was also part of the Under 20 team which competed in the 2012 IRB Junior World Championship.

CODIE TAYLOR – HOOKER

Physical: 1.83m, 106kg

Born: 31.03.91

Province/Club: Canterbury

Provincial/State Caps: 10

Provincial/State Points: 10 (2t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Auckland

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

An impressive young player with surprising speed for a hooker, this will be Codie Taylor's debut Super Rugby season. He has already gained valuable experience with the Crusaders though as a member of the Wider Training Squad in 2012.

2012 was also Taylor's first season for the Canterbury provincial team, where he really showed his worth and gained further beneficial experience packing down between players of the calibre of All Blacks props Ben Franks and Wyatt Crockett.

Taylor was part of the Under 20 team which won the 2011 IRB Junior World Championship.

TOM TAYLOR – FIRST/SECOND FIVE-EIGHTHS

Physical: 1.83m 90kg

Born: 11.03.89

Province/Club: Canterbury

Provincial/State Caps: 22

Provincial/State Points: 272 (5t, 56c, 45p)

Provincial/State Debut: 2011 v North Otago

Super Rugby Caps: 12

Super Rugby Points: 146(1t, 15c, 37p)

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Chiefs

Taylor joined the Crusaders squad in 2012 after being involved in the wider training squad in 2011. He had an outstanding debut season, taking goal kicking duties while Dan Carter recovered and establishing himself as one of the most accurate boots in the competition.

He has also been part of the Canterbury provincial team in its last two championship winning seasons, and was also involved in the 2009 New Zealand Under 20 championship side.

Tom is the son of All Blacks Warwick Taylor who played for the national side from 1983-1988. Warwick also played for Canterbury from 1982-1990. Uncle, Murray Taylor, was also an All Black.

MATT TODD – LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 1.85m 104kg
Born: 24.03.88
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 44
Provincial/State Points: 25 (5t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2009 v Waikato
Super Rugby Caps: 34
Super Rugby Points: 20 (4t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Chiefs

This is Matt Todd's season to shine – with All Blacks openside flanker Richie McCaw being on sabbatical for the first part of the year, Todd will have more opportunity than ever to make his mark during this Crusaders campaign. His intelligence will be highly valued by the team as will his outstanding defensive abilities and skills at the breakdown.

Todd first joined the Crusaders in 2011 after a year in the Wider Training Squad and an impressive ITM Cup campaign for Canterbury, which resulted in him being awarded the 2010 Canterbury player of the year.

JIMMY TUPOU – FLANKER

Physical: 1.96m, 109kg
Born: 08.08.92
Province/Club: Counties Manukau
Provincial/State Caps: 12
Provincial/State Points: 5 (1t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Southland
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

One of three new loose forwards in the 2013 Crusaders squad, Jimmy Tupou would have the least rugby experience of anyone in the squad. He was a rugby league player until his final year at Pukekohe High School, when his school principal suggested he give rugby union a shot. It was a wise move, with Tupou soon making it into the Counties Manukau Under 18 side, followed by the New Zealand Under 20 and the Counties Manukau ITM Cup team in 2012.

Tupou has the ability to play at lock, 6 or 8 and will benefit from training and playing alongside some experienced payers in each of those positions in the Crusaders squad.

ADAM WHITELOCK – CENTRE

Physical: 1.85m 95kg
Born: 17.04.87
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 32
Provincial/State Points: 35 (7t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2008 v Wellington
Super Rugby Caps: 42
Super Rugby Points: 35 (7t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Brumbies

Adam debuted for the Crusaders in 2009 against the Brumbies, after moving from the Manawatu to study accountancy at the University of Canterbury in 2006. Prior to his Crusaders selection, he played for the Canterbury Under 19, Canterbury Colts and then made his debut for the Canterbury team in 2008.

While an injury cut short his 2011 Crusaders campaign and prevented him from playing for Canterbury in the 2011 ITM Cup, he was back for both the Crusaders and Canterbury 2012 seasons and was a standout player in both campaigns.

GEORGE WHITELOCK – LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 1.90m 106kg
Born: 27.03.86
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 69
Provincial/State Points: 45 (9t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2007 v Southland
Super Rugby Caps: 60
Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Lions
Test Caps: 1
Test Points: 5 (1t)
Test Debut: 2009 v Italy

The captain of the victorious Canterbury team for the last four campaigns, George is a talented loose forward with strong leadership qualities. He has also previously captained the 2005 New Zealand Under 19 side and the New Zealand Under 21 side against Canada in 2007. He is a leader who truly leads by example and is known for his incredible work rate.

George is the eldest of four brothers in the squad and was the first to be selected in the Crusaders.

George made his All Blacks debut against Italy in 2009, where he scored a try in front of a home crowd at AMI Stadium.

LUKE WHITELOCK – LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 1.90m 104kg
Born: 29.01.91
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 14
Provincial/State Points: 5 (1t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2011 v Wellington
Super Rugby Caps: 10
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Chiefs

The newest of the Whitelock recruits to the Crusaders, Luke joined the squad for the 2012 season after being involved in the wider training group in 2011. He is a loose forward like eldest brother George, but specialises at number 8.

He debuted for Canterbury in 2011 and had another excellent season with the provincial side in 2012.

Luke also has great leadership potential, already having captained the New Zealand Under 20 side in the 2011 IRB Junior World Championship.

SAM WHITELOCK – LOCK

Physical: 2.02m 116kg
Born: 12.10.88
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 19
Provincial/State Points: 15 (3t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2008 v Wellington
Super Rugby Caps: 42
Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Highlanders
Test Caps: 39
Test Points: 20 (4t)
Test Debut: 2010 v Ireland

Sam has been an integral part of the Crusaders squad since his debut in 2010. He impressed the All Blacks selectors enough to also make his debut for the national side in 2010, scoring two tries in his first match against Ireland in New Plymouth. In 2011 he was selected into All Blacks Rugby World Cup 2011 squad and started every game bar the first pool match.

It was his second world championship win, having previously been a member of the New Zealand Under 20 side that won the 2008 IRB Junior World Championship.

MILESTONES

- Chris King 97 Caps – Tight-head prop Chris King is only three games away from 100 games in Super Rugby. King started his Super Rugby career for the Crusaders in 2003, and then moved south in 2005 to join the Highlanders where he's remained loyal ever since. King has been the cornerstone of the Highlanders' scrum during the past eight seasons and reaching 100 games in Super Rugby while playing for the Highlanders is wonderful reward for a hardworking player and great bloke.
- Brad Thorn 92 Caps – Brad played all of his 92 games for the Crusaders before joining the Highlanders this season. Thorn has a decorated professional sporting career, including success in the NRL with the Brisbane Broncos and Queensland, Super Rugby with the Crusaders and more recently with Irish-based rugby club Leinster who lifted the Heineken Cup in the European League. It will be a remarkable achievement when he runs out with the Highlanders in 2013 for his 100th Super Rugby game.
- Hosea Gear 86 Caps – Hosea joined the Highlanders in 2012 and quickly enhanced his reputation on the field as a world class player. Gear has played the majority of his Super Rugby games for the Hurricanes, but since making his Super Rugby debut for the Highlanders in 2012 he has been warmly welcomed by all Highlanders fans. Gear will be looking for another stellar season in 2013 and with the responsibility of vice captain he will no doubt lead by example.
- A number of players are in line to make their debuts for the Highlanders in 2013: Liam Coltman, Jason Emery, Ma'a Nonu, Declan O'Donnell, Jake Paringatai, Hayden Parker, Fumiaki Tanaka, Brad Thorn, Joe Wheeler and Tony Woodcock.

JAMIE JOSEPH – HEAD COACH

Born: 21.11.69, Blenheim NZ

Highlanders Coaching Debut: 2011

Other Coaching Roles: Wellington Coach 2007-2010, Maori All Blacks Coach 2010-2012

Jamie joined the Highlanders in 2011 as head coach following coaching success with the Maori All Blacks team and the Wellington Lions. Following a distinguished player career, which included 20 tests for the All Blacks, Jamie took up an assistant coaching role with the Wellington Lions in 2003.

In 2007 Jamie took the reins at Wellington and coached the team to consecutive domestic finals in 2008 and 2009 both against Canterbury. In 2010 Jamie was appointed as Maori All Blacks Coach and guided them to a clean sweep against the NZ Barbarians, Ireland and a famous victory over England.

SCOTT MCLEOD – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 28.02.73, Brisbane QLD

Highlanders Coaching Debut: 2013

Other Coaching Roles: Chiefs and Waikato

Scott joins the Highlanders from Hamilton where he has been the Waikato ITM Cup coach for the past two seasons. Scott has also been involved with the Chiefs since 2009. Scott played 113 first class games, including 10 test matches for the All Blacks between 1995 and 2001.

JON PRESTON – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 15.11.67, Dunedin NZ

Highlanders Coaching Debut: 2013

Other Coaching Roles: Wellington ITM Cup

Former All Blacks Preston also joins the Highlanders' coaching staff this season. Jon played 10 tests for the All Blacks between 1991 and 1997. He has been involved with the Wellington Lions as a specialist skills coach over the past few seasons.

KEES MEEUWS – SCRUM COACH

Born: 26.07.74, Auckland NZ

Highlanders Coaching Debut: 2012

Other Coaching Roles: Otago ITM Cup

As an Otago and All Blacks legend Kees Meeuws returned to the deep South in 2009 to reclaim his starting position as prop for Otago. Kees played for the Highlanders from 1997-2001 and also played 42 tests for the All Blacks between 1998 and 2004, scoring 10 test tries.

JOSH BEKHUIS – LOCK

Physical: 2.00m, 111kgs

Born: 26.04.86, Invercargill NZ

Province/Club: Southland

Provincial/State Caps: 82

Provincial/State Points: 40 (8t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2006 v North Otago

Super Rugby Caps: 57

Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Brumbies

Josh Bekhuis is now one of the senior players in the Highlanders tight five. With 57 caps in the Investec Super Rugby competition, Bekhuis will be looking to build on the consistent form that has made him the first choice locking option in the Highlanders engine room. A specialist lineout option, Bekhuis is also developing his running game and this will keep opposition defences on their toes during the 2013 season.

TIM BOYS – LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 1.88m, 98kgs
Born: 19.02.84, Oamaru NZ
Province/Club: Southland
Provincial/State Caps: 89
Provincial/State Points: 25 (5t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2005 v North Otago
Super Rugby Caps: 41
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Cheetahs

Tim Boys made his debut for the Highlanders in 2006 and he was re-selected from 2008 to 2010. In 2011 he made a return to the squad from the Wider Training Group for one game and played a further 6 games in 2012 as a replacement for injury. As a traditional open-side flanker, Boys had an impressive 2012 and was always near the loose ball. An agile player, he is elusive with ball in hand and effective at the breakdown. Boys will team up with the likes of John Hardie, Nasi Manu, Elliot Dixon and Jarrad Hoeata in 2013 to form a formidable loose unit.

PHIL BURLEIGH – MIDFIELD BACK

Physical: 1.82m, 92kgs
Born: 22.10.86, Christchurch NZ
Province/Club: Bay of Plenty
Provincial/State Caps: 42
Provincial/State Points: 67 (11t, 3c, 2p)
Provincial/State Debut: 2009 v Northland
Super Rugby Caps: 15
Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Waratahs (Chiefs)

Phil Burleigh made his debut for the Highlanders in 2012 after selection from the Chiefs wider training group at the beginning of the season. He made a sensational start to his Super Rugby season against the Crusaders in Dunedin by scoring a critical try, at a sold-out Forsyth Barr Stadium, which ensured a Highlanders win. Phil was a consistent performer through the remainder of the 2012 season and 2013 promises to be another big season for him.

LIAM COLTMAN – HOOKER

Physical: 1.85m, 109kgs

Born: 25.01.90, New Plymouth NZ

Province/Club: Otago

Provincial/State Caps: 29

Provincial/State Points:

Provincial/State Debut: 2010 v Counties Manukau

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Liam Coltman played his third season for Otago in 2012 and was impressive whether playing at prop or his preferred position of hooker. He was a member of the New Zealand Under 20 team that won (and retained) the world title in 2010. Coltman was a member of the Highlanders wider training group in 2012 and has earned his spot in the playing group in 2013 through a consistent 2012 ITM Cup with Otago.

ELLIOT DIXON – LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 1.93m, 110kgs

Born: 04.09.89, Christchurch NZ

Province/Club: Southland

Provincial/State Caps: 27

Provincial/State Points: 15 (3t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2010 v North Otago

Super Rugby Caps: 2

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Brumbies

Elliot Dixon was unlucky to be injured at the start of the 2011 Highlanders' campaign. He made his debut for the southern franchise against the Brumbies in 2012. Dixon had an impressive season at the back of the Southland scrum in the 2011 and 2012 ITM Cups, and will bring this outstanding form into the 2013 Highlanders pack. He made his provincial debut in 2010 for the Southland Stags and, with only 27 provincial games, will be looking forward to getting some game time in 2013.

TAMATI ELLISON – MIDFIELD BACK

Physical: 1.85m, 96kgs
Born: 01.04.83, Wellington NZ
Province/Club: Otago
Provincial/State Caps: 52
Provincial/State Points: 94 (12t, 8c, 6p)
Provincial/State Debut: 2003 v Auckland (Wellington)
Super Rugby Caps: 69
Super Rugby Points: 45 (9t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2005 v Waratahs (Blues)
Test Caps: 4
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2009 v Italy

Tamati Ellison was a new signing for the 2012 season and he brought a wealth of experience to the Highlanders' midfield. A versatile player, Ellison can play in the midfield and also on the wing, which gives the Highlanders' coaching staff additional selection options. A former Hurricane, Ellison made his Super Rugby debut in 2005 playing for the Blues against the Waratahs. He subsequently played 53 games for the Hurricanes. He is building on this tally for the Highlanders as he is a regular starter in the midfield.

JASON EMERY – MIDFIELD BACK

Physical: 1.74m, 92kgs
Born: 21.09.93, Tauranga NZ
Province/Club: Manawatu
Provincial/State Caps: 10
Provincial/State Points: 12 (2t, 1c)
Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Wellington
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Jason Emery has just completed his first ITM Cup season for Manawatu in 2012. He has been impressive in the Turbos' mid-field since making his debut against Wellington. He was part of the New Zealand Under 20 Team that played in the Junior World Championship in South Africa in 2012. Emery joins the Highlanders for his first season of Super Rugby in 2013.

MA'AFU FIA – PROP

Physical: 1.80m, 114kgs

Born: 22.11.89, Tonga

Province/Club: Manawatu

Provincial/State Caps: 42

Provincial/State Points: 10 (2t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2008 v Tasman

Super Rugby Caps: 9

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Hurricanes

Ma'afu Fia was new to the Highlanders squad in 2012, when he joined the vastly experienced 'front row club' of Chris King, Jamie Mackintosh, Jason Rutledge, Bronson Murray and Andrew Hore. Fia plays his provincial rugby for Manawatu and has played 42 games since making his debut in 2009. A robust prop forward, Fia is good with ball in hand, and adds real impact to the running forward game of the Highlanders.

HOSEA GEAR – WING

Physical: 1.88m, 103kgs

Born: 16.3.84, Gisborne NZ

Province/Club: Wellington

Provincial/State Caps: 78

Provincial/State Points: 210 (42t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2002 v Wanganui

Super Rugby Caps: 86

Super Rugby Points: 155 (31t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2004 v Chiefs

Test Caps: 14

Test Points: 30 (6t)

Test Debut: 2008 v Australia

All Black, Hosea Gear, was another new signing for the Jamie Joseph coached Highlanders in 2012. Gear has played 86 Super Rugby games, and is a dynamic player who knows his way to the try line. With 31 tries in Super Rugby and 42 tries at provincial level, Gear is proven out wide as a strike weapon, and 2013 will be no different. At 1.88m and 102kgs, he will be a handful for all opponents in this season's competition. Hosea will also have more of a leadership role within the squad being named vice captain for 2013.

JOHN HARDIE – FLANKER

Physical: 1.83m, 103kgs
Born: 27.07.88, Lumsden NZ
Province/Club: Southland
Provincial/State Caps: 44
Provincial/State Points: 30 (6t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2008 v Manawatu
Super Rugby Caps: 25
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Crusaders

John Hardie made his Highlanders debut in 2010 against the Crusaders and played 11 of the 13 games in his first season. 2011 was another solid season for Hardie with plenty of game time. He is a strong ball runner and his tenacity at the breakdown resulted in numerous turnovers for the Highlanders in 2011. A typically rugged loose forward, Hardie had a stellar 2011 ITM Cup season for the Southland Stags. Injury restricted his appearances to four games for the Highlanders in 2012; he did not appear in the ITM Cup. Hardie will be focusing on securing the number one loose forward spot in 2013.

JARRAD HOEATA – LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 1.98m, 115kgs
Born: 12.12.82, Porirua NZ
Province/Club: Taranaki
Provincial/State Caps: 59
Provincial/State Points: 20 (4t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2006 v Waikato
Super Rugby Caps: 32
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Lions (Chiefs)
Test Caps: 3
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2011 v Fiji

Jarrad Hoeata was called into the All Blacks as their only debutant for the maiden 2011 squad on the back of a brilliant season with the Highlanders. A physical tight forward who has the ability to play on the blindside flank, Hoeata will continue to add real steel to the Highlanders pack in 2013. From his provincial home in Taranaki, Hoeata made his Super Rugby debut for the Chiefs in 2010 against the Lions.

ANDREW HORE – HOOKER

Physical: 1.83m, 110kgs
Born: 13.09.78, Dunedin NZ
Province/Club: Taranaki
Provincial/State Caps: 75
Provincial/State Points: 75 (15t)
Provincial/State Debut: 1998 v Southland (Otago)
Super Rugby Caps: 127
Super Rugby Points: 105 (21t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2001 v Chiefs (Crusaders)
Test Caps: 74
Test Points: 40 (8t)
Test Debut: 2002 v England

Andrew Hore started his rugby career in the South with Otago in 1998 so 2012 was a home coming for the 'lad from the Maniototo'. A World Cup winning All Black, Andrew Hore has played 74 test matches and 127 Super Rugby games. An accurate line-out exponent and aggressive ruck and maul forward, Hore, when he joined the Highlanders, has added real metal to the forward platform. Hore will lead a pack that includes Tony Woodcock, Brad Thorn and Jamie Mackintosh and his go-forward with ball in hand will set the benchmark for the Highlanders in 2013.

CHRIS KING – PROP

Physical: 1.86m, 118kgs
Born: 30.04.81, Ashburton NZ
Province/Club: Taranaki
Provincial/State Caps: 118
Provincial/State Points: 25 (5t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2002 v Mid Canterbury (Canterbury)
Super Rugby Caps: 97
Super Rugby Points: 35 (7t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2003 v Hurricanes (Crusaders)

A Highlander stalwart, Chis King has played 97 Super Rugby games, and he will be searching for the magical 100 games in 2013. King made his debut in 2003 for the Crusaders against the Hurricanes, however a shift south in 2005 saw King starting for the Highlanders where he has stayed loyal. King had a huge season with the Southland Stags in the 2011 ITM Cup, lifting the Ranfurly Shield for the second time in two years from Canterbury. King also achieved Ranfurly Shield success with Taranaki in 2012. He will be looking to continue his consistent form into the 2013 Super competition.

JAMIE MACKINTOSH – PROP

Physical: 1.93m, 130kgs

Born: 20.02.85, Invercargill NZ

Province/Club: Southland

Provincial/State Caps: 92

Provincial/State Points: 70 (14t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2004 v Otago

Super Rugby Caps: 62

Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Force

Test Caps: 1

Test Points: 0

Test Debut: 2008 v Scotland

Jamie Mackintosh was named as Highlanders' captain in 2011 and this proved a masterstroke with the Southland prop leading from the front on the field. Mackintosh has played for every national age grade side for which he was eligible and has played for Southland since 2004. He played an instrumental part in the Southland Stags lifting the Ranfurly Shield from Canterbury in 2009 and 2011. He made his All Blacks debut on the northern hemisphere spring tour in 2008. Mackintosh will again form part of a formidable front-row combination 2013.

NASI MANU – LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 1.90m, 112kgs

Born: 15.08.88, Lincoln NZ

Province/Club: Canterbury

Provincial/State Caps: 56

Provincial/State Points: 40 (8t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2007 v Counties Manukau

Super Rugby Caps: 48

Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Bulls (Crusaders)

Nasi Manu played first-class rugby before he had even played club rugby – a rare distinction. A nephew of former Australian test loose forward Daniel Manu, he played for New Zealand Secondary Schools in 2005 and 2006, and for New Zealand Under 19 and Under 20 teams. Manu made his Super Rugby debut for the Crusaders in 2008, and was first selected for the Highlanders in 2010. Manu is a strong running number 8 who brings explosive power to the Highlanders back three.

BRAYDEN MITCHELL – HOOKER

Physical: 1.83m, 104kgs

Born: 24.01.89, Gore NZ

Province/Club: Southland

Provincial/State Caps: 21

Provincial/State Points: 10 (2t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2009 v Wellington

Super Rugby Caps: 5

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Hurricanes

A product of Southland Rugby, Brayden Mitchell is a young hooker with an exciting future at Super Rugby level. He made his provincial debut for the Southland Stags in 2009 against Wellington and played 10 first class games as understudy to Jason Rutledge. Brayden made four Super Rugby appearances in 2011 after making his debut against the Hurricanes, one in 2012 when brought into the team from the wider training group. He will be looking to improve on this tally in 2013.

MA'A NONU – MIDFIELD BACK

Physical: 1.82m, 107kgs

Born: 21.05.82, Wellington NZ

Province/Club: Wellington

Provincial/State Caps: 61

Provincial/State Points: 140 (28t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2002 v Hawke's Bay

Super Rugby Caps: 124

Super Rugby Points: 225 (45t)

 Super Rugby Debut: 2003 v Crusaders
(Hurricanes)

Test Caps: 76

Test Points: 125 (25t)

Test Debut: 2003 v England

Ma'a Nonu has played 73 tests for the All Blacks since his debut in 2003 against England in Wellington. He has also had a stellar Super Rugby career for both the Hurricanes and Blues playing a total 124 games. Nonu's move south will add to this impressive playing record at Super level and the Highlanders are looking forward to welcoming him for the 2013 season.

DECLAN O'DONNELL – WING

Physical: 1.86m, 96kgs
Born: 28.11.90, Thames Valley NZ
Province/Club: Waikato
Provincial/State Caps: 18
Provincial/State Points: 20 (4t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2011 v Southland
Super Rugby Caps: 1
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Blues (Chiefs)

Declan O'Donnell will join the Highlanders for the 2013 season after impressing at ITM Cup level for Waikato. Declan has also played for the All Blacks Sevens team, and his pace and skills will be a welcome addition to the Highlanders' squad for the upcoming season. Declan made one appearance for the Blues in 2012, and he will be looking to increase his game-time in 2013 for the Highlanders.

JAKE PARINGATAI – LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 1.85m, 106kgs
Born: 13.04.80, Paraparaumu NZ
Province/Club: Northland
Provincial/State Caps: 48
Provincial/State Points: 25 (5t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2003 v North Harbour (Northland)
Super Rugby Caps: 4
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Blues (Crusaders)

Jake Paringatai started his Super Rugby career with the Crusaders back in 2007 after making his domestic debut for Northland in the NPC back in 2003. A hard-nosed loose forward, Paringatai has been plying his trade in the Japanese Top League over the past few seasons. He will join a Highlanders forward pack that has plenty of experience and he will be a good fit for the men from the South.

HAYDEN PARKER – FIRST FIVE-EIGHTH

Physical: 1.75m, 80kgs
Born: 19.11.90, Oamaru NZ
Province/Club: Otago
Provincial/State Caps: 23
Provincial/State Points: 143 (19c, 34p, 1d)
Provincial/State Debut:
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

The 'Kurow Kid' is a newcomer for the 2013 Highlanders squad. After a very successful ITM Cup with Otago, Parker gets his first opportunity to play in the Investec Super Rugby competition. A skillful first five eighth, Parker is also adept from the kicking tee, with a kicking percentage over 80% in the 2012 ITM Cup. Parker will add some real punch with the Highlanders backline, and he has a running game that will keep opposition defences guessing all season long.

KADE POKI – WING

Physical: 1.76m, 92kgs
Born: 17.01.88, Blenheim NZ
Province/Club: Southland
Provincial/State Caps: 55
Provincial/State Points: 35 (7t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2007 v Taranaki (Tasman)
Super Rugby Caps: 34
Super Rugby Points: 15 (3t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Brumbies (Crusaders)

Kade Poki began in the Highlanders' wider training squad at the start of the 2011 season, and through injury, was called into the regular squad. Poki had an outstanding season on the wing, and was one of the best players in the squad over the course of the season. A strong ball runner, Poki surprised many defenders with his raw power and elusive running style. With good pre-season form, Poki is sure to light up the Highlanders back line in 2013.

BUXTON POPOALII – WING/FULLBACK

Physical: 1.73m, 87kgs

Born: 4.12.89, Auckland NZ

Province/Club: Otago

Provincial/State Caps: 40

Provincial/State Points: 30 (3t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2008 v North Harbour (Wellington)

Super Rugby Caps: 9

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Chiefs

Buxton Popoalii made the move from Wellington to join the Otago ITM Cup team in 2011. A dynamic wing/fullback, Buxton has been a part of the All Blacks Sevens team since 2009 and added plenty of spark to the blue and gold back three in 2011. As part of the Highlanders' wider training group in 2012, Popoalii was called into the Highlanders for nine appearances and impressed with his speed and skill around the field. He played a significant role in Otago's successful 2012 ITM Cup campaign. Popoalii will be seeking some regular game-time in 2013.

COLIN SLADE – FIRST FIVE-EIGHTH

Physical: 1.83m, 90kgs

Born: 10.10.87, Christchurch NZ

Province/Club: Canterbury

Provincial/State Caps: 41

Provincial/State Points: 286 (9t, 56c, 43p)

Provincial/State Debut: 2008 v Manawatu

Super Rugby Caps: 33

Super Rugby Points: 101 (2t, 20c, 16p, 1d)

Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Chiefs

Test Caps: 10

Test Points: 60 (3t, 18c, 3p)

Test Debut: 2010 v Australia

Another of the Highlanders All Blacks Rugby World Cup winners, Colin Slade made his first class debut for Canterbury in the 2008 domestic competition and made an immediate impact. A versatile player who can play first five eighth, wing or full back, he also has a strong kicking game both in general play and from the tee. His debut Super Rugby season was with the Crusaders; after 26 appearances he joined the Highlanders for their 2011 campaign. Slade will be looking for increased game time in 2013 following a spell on the sideline in 2012 due to serious injury.

AARON SMITH – HALFBACK

Physical: 1.71m, 83kgs
Born: 21.11.88, Palmerston North NZ
Province/Club: Manawatu
Provincial/State Caps: 43
Provincial/State Points: 45 (9t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2008 v Bay of Plenty
Super Rugby Caps: 28
Super Rugby Points: 15 (3t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Bulls
Test Caps: 13
Test Points: 20 (4t)
Test Debut: 2012 v Ireland

Aaron Smith was a part of the successful Manawatu team that made the ITM Cup Championship final in 2011. A skillful halfback, Aaron made his debut for the Highlanders in 2011 and served his apprenticeship under All Blacks halfback Jimmy Cowan. Aaron was selected in the Maori All Blacks team in 2010 and then he was selected for the All Blacks in 2012. He made his test debut against Ireland and played 10 tests in his debut season.

BEN SMITH – WING/FULLBACK

Physical: 1.86m, 93kgs
Born: 01.06.86, Dunedin NZ
Province/Club: Otago
Provincial/State Caps: 42
Provincial/State Points: 55 (11t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2007 v Wellington
Super Rugby Caps: 56
Super Rugby Points: 50 (10t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Brumbies
Test Caps: 12
Test Points: 10 (2t)
Test Debut: 2009 v Italy

Ben Smith made his Highlanders debut in 2009 and has been a regular selection in the run-on XV ever since. Smith had an outstanding debut season which was rewarded with selection in the All Blacks' spring tour. His form continued in 2010 and he was the stand-out Otago back during the ITM Cup competition. Smith was selected for the All Blacks Sevens team that won gold at Delhi in 2010 and was again selected for the All Blacks in 2011 and 2012. Smith bought up his 50th appearance for the Highlanders in 2012 and is now one of the senior players within the squad.

LIMA SOPOAGA – FIRST FIVE-EIGHTH

Physical: 1.75m, 91kgs
Born: 03.02.91, Wellington NZ
Province/Club: Wellington
Provincial/State Caps: 25
Provincial/State Points: 223 (2t, 42c, 43)
Provincial/State Debut: 2010 v Manawatu
Super Rugby Caps: 9
Super Rugby Points: 63 (1t, 5c, 16p)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Hurricanes

Lima Sopoaga is a young, skillful first five eighth who burst onto the first class scene in 2010. Playing for the Wellington Lions he became the regular starter in the number 10 jersey. He made his debut against Manawatu and played a further nine games in the 2010 ITM Cup and added 11 games in 2011. Sopoaga made his Super Rugby debut for the Highlanders against the Hurricanes in the 2011 season and played in six games in total, collecting 51 points. His 2012 season was curtailed by injury.

FUMIAKI TANAKA – HALFBACK

Physical: 1.63m, 75kgs
Born: 03.01.85, Kyoto JAP
Province/Club: Otago
Provincial/State Caps: 13
Provincial/State Points: 5 (1t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Northland
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped
Test Caps: 31 (Japan)
Test Points: 30 (6t)
Test Debut: 2008 v Arabian Gulf

Fumiaki Tanaka joined the Otago ITM Cup team for the 2012 season. Tanaka had a great season and quickly became the first choice halfback. Fumiaki has a sharp pass and provides outstanding service for both forwards and backs. The first Japanese Super Rugby player, Tanaka is a welcome addition to the 2013 Highlanders squad.

BRAD THORN – LOCK

Physical: 1.95m, 112kgs
Born: 03.02.75, Mosgiel NZ
Province/Club: Canterbury
Provincial/State Caps: 31
Provincial/State Points: 20 (4t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2001 v Buller
Super Rugby Caps: 92
Super Rugby Points: 55 (11t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2001 v Brumbies
Test Caps: 59
Test Points: 20 (4t)
Test Debut: 2003 v Wales

Brad Thorn was part of the 2011 World Cup winning All Blacks and has been playing for Fukuoka Sanix Blues in Japan's Top League. He joins the Highlanders for his first season with the franchise in 2013. Thorn has a decorated professional sporting career, including success in the NRL with the Brisbane Broncos and Queensland, Super Rugby with the Crusaders and more recently with Irish-based rugby club Leicester who lifted the Heineken Cup in the European League. Thorn made his test debut for the All Blacks in 2003 against Wales in Hamilton. He played 59 test matches in total, including his last test which was against France in the Rugby World Cup final last year.

SHAUN TREEBY – MIDFIELD BACK

Physical: 1.75m, 85kgs
Born: 26.01.89, New Plymouth NZ
Province/Club: Wellington
Provincial/State Caps: 36
Provincial/State Points: 35 (7t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2009 v Wairarapa Bush
Super Rugby Caps: 15 (3t)
Super Rugby Points: 15 (3t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Hurricanes

Shaun Treeby is a midfielder who made his provincial debut for the Wellington Lions in 2009, after coming through the Wellington Rugby Academy Programme. After making his debut against Wairarapa Bush he has been a regular starter in the Wellington line-up. Treeby joined the Highlanders for the 2011 campaign and played 12 games. Injury in 2012 limited his selection to six appearances. A strong ball runner, Treeby will be looking to build on his 2011 debut season form.

JOE WHEELER – LOCK/LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 2.00m, 111kgs
Born: 20.10.87, Christchurch NZ
Province/Club: Tasman
Provincial/State Caps: 26
Provincial/State Points: 15 (3t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2008 v Taranaki
Super Rugby Caps: 4
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Sharks

Joe Wheeler joins the Highlanders from Tasman, where he's been an integral part of the Makos forward pack over the past few seasons. Wheeler can play both lock and loose forward and this gives the Highlanders coaches additional options for team selection. Wheeler is a big ball runner, so expect some impact with ball in hand. A key lineout jumper who will line up at 5 or 6 at lineout time and be a safe target and option for any hooker.

TONY WOODCOCK – PROP

Physical: 1.84m, 119kgs
Born: 27.01.81, Helensville NZ
Province/Club: North Harbour
Provincial/State Caps: 54
Provincial/State Points: 10 (2t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2000 v Waikato
Super Rugby Caps: 113
Super Rugby Points: 40 (8t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2002 v Hurricanes
Test Caps: 96
Test Points: 45 (9t)
Test Debut: 2002 v Wales

Rugby World Cup winning All Black, 31 year old Tony Woodcock was born in Helensville, and made his first class debut for North Harbour in 2000. He has played 113 Super Rugby games for the Blues and 88 tests for the All Blacks and he is set to write a new chapter for the Highlanders in 2013. A true 'southern man' at heart, Woodcock will enjoy meeting up with fellow All Blacks and Highlanders captain, Andrew Hore.

MILESTONES

- Victor Vito and Dane Coles both begin the season on 47 Hurricanes and Super Rugby caps. If they play every game they should celebrate their 50th game at home against the Crusaders.
- Five players within the Hurricanes squad hail from the Oriental Rongotai club in Wellington, the biggest representation of any single club within the Hurricanes.
- This year's eight new players takes the total number of Hurricanes to represent the franchise to 195 since the team formed in 1996.
- If Beauden Barrett repeats his 2012 season total of almost 200 points, he will become the second highest point scorer in the franchise's history. He only needs 164 points to take the number two spot on the ladder. David Holwell still holds the record with 676 points.

MARK HAMMETT – HEAD COACH

Born: 13.07.72

Hurricanes Coaching Debut: 2011

Other Coaching Roles: Crusaders: Assistant Coach 2006-2010, Coaching Assistant 2005.

2013 will be Mark Hammett's third year with the Hurricanes and as a Super Rugby head coach. Hammett was a member of the Crusaders side of 1996 in the inaugural Super Rugby competition. He has a big input into set pieces and has superior general rugby knowledge. The former All Blacks hooker made 29 appearances for the All Blacks including the 1999 and 2003 Rugby World Cups. Hammett has a strong provincial background, as during his 81 appearances for the Crusaders between 1996 and 2003, he also made 76 appearances for Canterbury over the same time.

ALAMA IEREMIA – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 27.10.70

Hurricanes Coaching Debut: 2009

Other Coaching Roles: Hurricanes Assistant/ Technical Advisor 2009-2010, Wellington Assistant Coach 2007-2008, Wellington Under 21 2008.

Alama Ileremia became the first former Hurricanes player to return as part of the management when he took up the reins as an assistant/technical advisor under Colin Cooper in 2009. His coaching career has continued to grow since he stopped playing professionally in 2006. He first started with the Wellington Lions as an assistant coach before stepping into Super Rugby. The former All Black has the distinction of scoring the first ever try in Super Rugby, against the Blues in the inaugural Super 12 match in Palmerston North in 1996.

RICHARD WATT – TECHNICAL ADVISOR

Born: 03.04.65

Hurricanes Coaching Debut: 2011

Other Coaching Roles: Wellington Assistant Coach 2010-2012

Richard Watt has been with the Hurricanes since 2011 as a technical advisor. The former Wellington representative is also the current assistant coach for the Wellington Lions, a role he has held since he stepped up to support Andre Bell in 2010. In his playing days Watt made 18 appearances for the province and has had a long association with Poneke and Wellington Rugby.

BEAUDEN BARRETT – FIRST FIVE-EIGHTH

Physical: 1.87m, 92kg

Born: 27.05.91

Province/Club: Taranaki

Provincial/State Caps: 26

Provincial/State Points: 188 (6t, 31c, 32p)

Provincial/State Debut: 2010 v Northland

Super Rugby Caps: 20

Super Rugby Points: 199 (2t, 36c, 39p)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Cheetahs

Test Caps: 5

Test Points: 9 (3c, 1p)

Test Debut: 2012 v Ireland

2012 was a big year for the young first five-eighth. Barrett had a strong Super Rugby season, earning a call up to the All Blacks in June. since making his provincial debut two years ago, Barrett has managed to reach a number of national honours with the All Blacks Sevens team, as a member of the IRB Junior World Championship winning team in 2011 and now the All Blacks. Barrett is the first son of a former Hurricane to also play for the franchise. His father, Kevin, was a lock/flanker for the Hurricanes in 1997 and now older brother Kane has signed with the Blues in 2013.

TIM BATEMAN – MIDFIELD BACK

Physical: 1.83m, 91kg

Born: 03.06.87

Province/Club: Wellington

Provincial/State Caps: 49

Provincial/State Points: 75 (15t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2006 v South Canterbury (Canterbury)

Super Rugby Caps: 50

Super Rugby Points: 30 (6t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Lions (Crusaders)

Tim Bateman returned to New Zealand rugby in 2012 after playing in Japan for the Coca-Cola West Red Sparks in the Top League since 2010. Bateman was one of the senior Hurricanes players in 2012 reaching his 50th Super Rugby cap in the final match of the season. 2012 was a massive year for the second five-eighth playing for the Sparks, Hurricanes, Wellington Lions and Maori All Blacks. The 25 year old offers experience and great attacking knowledge from either second or first five-eighth.

JAMES BROADHURST – LOCK

Physical: 2.01m, 122kg

Born: 01.12.87

Province/Club: Taranaki

Provincial/State Caps: 52

Provincial/State Points: 10 (2t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2007 v Otago

Super Rugby Caps: 29

Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Force

Hard-working Taranaki lock James Broadhurst provides the Hurricanes' engine room with power and ball winning ability. He adds to the highly contested locking positions within the Hurricanes and has provided many strong performances in the past two seasons. The Kaitia born forward first joined the Hurricanes in 2010 after previously playing for Canterbury and was a member of the Crusaders wider training group. Broadhurst attended secondary school in Gisborne and went on to represent New Zealand at the under-19 and Under 21 grades.

DANE COLES – HOOKER

Physical: 1.84m, 108kg

Born: 10.12.86

Province/Club: Wellington

Provincial/State Caps: 66

Provincial/State Points: 85 (17t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2007 v Auckland

Super Rugby Caps: 47

Super Rugby Points: 25 (5t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Waratahs

Test Caps: 4

Test Points: 0

Test Debut: 2012 v Scotland

Livewire hooker Dane Coles received his first call up to the All Blacks on the end of year tour in 2012. It was great recognition for the Hurricanes' number one hooker who behind the scenes has worked hard on his core roles. He is perfectly suited to the faster, more mobile nature of modern rugby and has a high work rate around the park. Coles is never far from the action in any match and has quickly gained a reputation as an exciting, natural ball player with speed to burn. He burst on to the scene in 2007 making his provincial debut for Wellington and the New Zealand Under 21.

JASON EATON – LOCK

Physical: 2.02m 115kg

Born: 21.08.82

Province/Club: Taranaki

Provincial/State Caps: 76

Provincial/State Points: 45 (9t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2002 v Wanganui (Manawatu)

Super Rugby Caps: 78

Super Rugby Points: 50 (10t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Blues

Test Caps: 14

Test Points: 5 (1t)

Test Debut: 2005 v Ireland

Jason Eaton is a senior member of this year's camp and is the second most capped Hurricane in the 2013 team. The 2.02m lock had a stellar season for the Hurricanes and Taranaki in 2012, earning him selection for the Maori All Blacks tour to the UK at the end of the year. Eaton made a big contribution on and off the field for the Hurricanes last season, using his experience to help lead the young forward pack. Eaton was selected for the 2005 All Blacks with no prior Super Rugby experience, and last appeared for them on the end of year tour in 2009.

SAMISONI FISILAU – HALFBACK

Physical: 1.86m 105kg

Born: 29.11.87

Province/Club: Northland

Provincial/State Caps: 43

Provincial/State Points: 13 (2t, 1d)

Provincial/State Debut: 2008 v Northland (Counties Manukau)

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Test Caps: 9

Test Points: 2 (1c)

Test Debut: 2010 v Samoa (Tonga)

Samisoni Fisilau is one of six new players to the Hurricanes squad in 2013. The Tongan halfback plays an aggressive style of game and has an excellent box kick. He was impressive behind the Northland forward pack in the 2012 ITM Cup season catching the eye of the Hurricanes coaches. At only 25-years old, Fisilau offers great experience through his recent international performances with Tonga.

BEN FRANKS – PROP

Physical: 1.84m 118kg

Born: 27.03.84

Province/Club: Hawke's Bay

Provincial/State Caps: 40

Provincial/State Points: 0

Provincial/State Debut: 2005 v Otago
(Canterbury)

Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Chiefs

Test Caps: 23

Test Points: 5 (1t)

Test Debut: 2010 v Ireland

One of the six new players to the Hurricanes squad in 2013, Ben Franks is a valuable addition with his versatility to play both sides of the scrum. As the older of the two Franks' brothers, Ben made his All Blacks debut in 2008 and has since pulled on the black jersey 23 times. Ben had previously represented New Zealand in the Under 19 side in 2003, Under 21 side in 2005 and made his Super Rugby debut for the Crusaders in 2006.

REGGIE GOODES – PROP

Physical: 1.84m, 112kg

Born: 04.04.92

Province/Club: Wellington

Provincial/State Caps: 19

Provincial/State Points: 0

Provincial/State Debut: 2010 v Tasman

Super Rugby Caps: 8

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Chiefs

South African born Reggie Goodes (pronounced "Goods") was one of the young forwards to impress during the 2012 Super Rugby season. After stepping up from ITM Cup and the Hurricanes wider training group in 2011, Goodes made eight appearances in his debut season. That was despite suffering a shoulder injury in the last pre-season game which sidelined him for the first half of the competition. He is noted for his intense work rate around the field and his scrummaging ability.

CORY JANE – WING / FULLBACK

Physical: 1.83m, 85kg

Born: 08.02.83

Province/Club: Wellington

Provincial/State Caps: 61

Provincial/State Points: 156 (29t, 4c, 1p)

 Provincial/State Debut: 2003 v Otago
(Hawke's Bay)

Super Rugby Caps: 69

Super Rugby Points: 85 (17t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Reds

Test Caps: 41

Test Points: 80 (16t)

Test Debut: 2008 v Australia

Cory Jane played a senior role within the Hurricanes in 2012, guiding the back three and ensuring they were always a danger with ball in hand. A member of the Rugby World Cup winning All Blacks side, he has dominated the right wing jersey for both the All Blacks and Hurricanes in the last 18 months. His consistency under the high ball and strong attacking play has seen the Upper Hutt boy go from strength to strength. He has previously represented Maori All Blacks and All Blacks Sevens team.

JACK LAM – FLANKER

Physical: 1.88m, 103kg

Born: 18.11.87

Province/Club: Waikato

Provincial/State Caps: 41

Provincial/State Points: 10 (2t)

 Provincial/State Debut: 2008 v Bay of Plenty (Tasman)

Super Rugby Caps: 29

Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Highlanders

Named Hurricanes Rookie of the Year in his debut season in 2011, Jack Lam will continue to fiercely contest the loose forward positions in 2013. Sidelined by injury for most of the 2012 ITM Cup he will be eager to get back into the game. Lam has a high work rate and is always on the hunt for turnover ball at the breakdown. Although born in New Zealand, he was selected as a centre for the 2004 Australian Secondary Schools team and as a loose forward the following year. He returned to New Zealand to continue his rugby career in 2008.

REYNOLD LEE-LO – CENTRE

Physical: 1.81m 96kg
Born: 20.02.86
Province/Club: Counties Manukau
Provincial/State Caps: 32
Provincial/State Points: 30 (6t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2009 v Hawke's Bay
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Reynold Lee-Lo first made the Counties Manukau team in 2009 when he was called into the side as injury cover for Tasesa Lavea. The 25 year old was recalled in 2011 and the following year helped the side lift the ITM Cup Championship title. The Samoa-born player midfield back will make his Super Rugby debut with the Hurricanes in 2013.

ALAPATI LEIUA – CENTRE

Physical: 1.85m, 96kg
Born: 21.09.88
Province/Club: Wellington
Provincial/State Caps: 48
Provincial/State Points: 90 (18t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2009 v Wairarapa Bush
Super Rugby Caps: 20
Super Rugby Points: 15 (3t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Cheetahs

Named Wellington Player of the Year in 2011, exciting midfielder Alapati Leiua has continued to develop since bursting onto the scene in 2009. That year he was named Most Promising Player for Wellington and has quickly accumulated his provincial caps and points since. Born in Samoa, the 24 year old has the ability to play both centre and on the wings, with pace to burn. This will be Leiua's third season as a full squad member for the Hurricanes.

FAIFILI LEVAVE – FLANKER

Physical: 1.93m, 111kg
Born: 15.01.86
Province/Club: Wellington
Provincial/State Caps: 50
Provincial/State Points: 30 (6t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2005 v Otago
Super Rugby Caps: 50
Super Rugby Points: 30 (6t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Waratahs (Chiefs)

Faifili Levave made his first class debut when he was 19. The flanker joins the Hurricanes again in 2013, following a season with Honda Heat in Japan for the past six months. Since his debut Super Rugby season with the Chiefs back in 2008, he has been with the Hurricanes ever since. In the last match of 2012, Levave brought up his 50th Super Rugby cap with 38 appearances for the Hurricanes and 12 for the Chiefs. His older brother, George, played American Football for Idaho State University.

KARL LOWE – FLANKER

Physical: 1.81m, 104kg
Born: 17.09.84
Province/Club: Hawke's Bay
Provincial/State Caps: 91
Provincial/State Points: 100 (20t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2004 v Bay of Plenty
Super Rugby Caps: 30
Super Rugby Points: 15 (3t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Waratahs

After missing the entire 2011 Super Rugby season due to a knee injury, dynamic Hawke's Bay openside flanker, Karl Lowe returned for the Canes, making seven starting appearances in 2012. Noted for a high work rate and his hunger for the ball, he already has an impressive provincial record with 20 tries to his name. Lowe was in the Junior All Blacks in 2009, part of the unbeaten New Zealand Maori All Blacks side in 2010 which won their centenary series and again toured with them to the UK in 2012.

JAMES MARSHALL – FIRST FIVE-EIGHTH / FULLBACK

Physical: 1.83m, 90kg

Born: 07.12.88

Province/Club: Taranaki

Provincial/State Caps: 48

Provincial/State Points: 73 (10t, 4c, 5p)

Provincial/State Debut: 2008 v Bay of Plenty (Tasman)

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

A new face to Hurricanes fans will be James Marshall, but the versatile five-eight and fullback has a strong resume for a 24 year old. He started with Tasman, before shifting north to Taranaki in 2012. Marshall has international experience as well, including a season with Aironi in Italy in 2010/11 and the All Blacks Sevens team. His younger brother, Tom, is a member of the Crusaders squad.

MOTU MATU'U – HOOKER

Physical: 1.84m, 108kg

Born: 30.04.87

Province/Club: Wellington

Provincial/State Caps: 24

Provincial/State Points: 0

Provincial/State Debut: 2009 v Wairarapa Bush

Super Rugby Caps: 14

Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Stormers

Wellington hooker Motu Matu'u made his Super Rugby debut in 2012. He provided strong impact off the bench in his 14 appearances and had oppositions on their toes with his big hitting defence. Combining muscle and strong defensive play, Matu'u also brings a strong work ethic to the side.

BEN MAY – PROP

Physical: 1.93m, 124kg
Born: 13.10.82
Province/Club: Waikato
Provincial/State Caps: 69
Provincial/State Points: 15 (3t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2004 v Thames Valley (Nelson Bays)
Super Rugby Caps: 50
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Lions (Crusaders)

Ben May adds size and strength to the Hurricanes front row. He had an impressive first season with the Hurricanes in 2012, as he remained injury free and took on a leadership role to support his younger team mates up front. The versatile prop can play either side of the scrum. May reached the milestone of 50 Super Rugby caps during 2012 which included appearances for the Crusaders, Chiefs and Hurricanes. He was a member of the Maori All Blacks to tour the UK at the end of 2012.

TJ PERENARA – HALFBACK

Physical: 1.84m, 94kg
Born: 23.01.92
Province/Club: Wellington
Provincial/State Caps: 12
Provincial/State Points: 5 (1t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2010 v Southland
Super Rugby Caps: 13
Super Rugby Points: 35 (7t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Stormers

TJ Perenara was named the Hurricanes Rookie of the Year in 2012 and had a superb debut season, before it was cruelly cut short by a broken ankle. The attacking halfback is quick to spot the gap and run it, which helped the 21 year old score seven tries in his first season. Perenara was still at Mana College when he made his provincial debut for Wellington in 2010. He captained and starred for the New Zealand Secondary Schools team in 2010, kicking 15 points in the 30-21 victory over Australia, and won the IRB Junior World Championship with the New Zealand Under 20 the following year.

TUSI PISI – FIRST FIVE-EIGHTH

Physical: 1.83m, 91kg
Born: 18.06.82
Province/Club: North Harbour
Provincial/State Caps: 50
Provincial/State Points: 114 (9t, 18c, 10p, 1d)
Provincial/State Debut: 2003 v Taranaki (North Harbour)
Super Rugby Caps: 8
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Sharks (Crusaders)
Test Caps: 10 (Samoa + Pacific Islands)
Test Points: 67 (2t, 9c, 11p, 2d)
Test Debut: 2006 v Wales (Pacific Islands)

Tusi Pisi appeared seven times for the Hurricanes in 2012, making six starts off the bench and one as the starting pivot against the Brumbies in Wellington. The Samoan International first five-eighth returns to the Hurricanes for a second year running, while continuing to play for Japanese club Suntory in the Super Rugby off-season. He has been based in Japan since 2009, following a stint with Toulon from 2007-2009.

MATT PROCTOR – OUTSIDE BACK

Physical: 1.80m, 90kg
Born: 26.10.92
Province/Club: Wellington
Provincial/State Caps: 11
Provincial/State Points: 20 (4t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Manawatu
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Matt Proctor is one of five members of the Hurricanes squad from the Oriental-Rongotai club in Wellington. After completing his debut provincial rugby season in the Capital, Proctor has shown he has pace and flair on attack. He is one to watch over the coming years.

MARK REDDISH – LOCK

Physical: 1.96m, 112kg
Born: 03.03.85
Province/Club: Wellington
Provincial/State Caps: 37
Provincial/State Points: 10 (2t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2009 v Wairarapa Bush
Super Rugby Caps: 14
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Highlanders

Determined lock/loose forward Mark Reddish earned his first contract with the Hurricanes in 2011. This was on the back of many years of hard work in Wellington club rugby and some stellar performances for the Wellington Lions. He is a quiet achiever on the field and eager for the ball. His versatility and reliability as a lineout jumper offers a number of options to the Hurricanes set piece.

ARDIE SAVEA – LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 1.88m, 95kg
Born: 14.10.93
Province/Club: Wellington
Provincial/State Caps: 10
Provincial/State Points: 35 (7t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Manawatu
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Nineteen year old Ardie Savea will join older brother Julian in the Super Rugby ranks this season, after signing with the Hurricanes for two years. The former Rongotai College head boy has just completed his first ITM Cup campaign with Wellington, and after starring on the world sevens circuit with New Zealand, has shown he can adapt his exceptional speed and vision to the full version of the game. Savea captained the New Zealand Secondary Schools team in 2011.

JULIAN SAVEA – WING

Physical: 1.92m, 103kg

Born: 07.08.90

Province/Club: Wellington

Provincial/State Caps: 22

Provincial/State Points: 40 (8t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2010 v Tasman

Super Rugby Caps: 25

Super Rugby Points: 45 (9t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Highlanders

Test Caps: 9

Test Points: 60 (12t)

Test Debut: 2012 v Ireland

2012 was a memorable year for Julian Savea. After a debut season where he struggled to find his rhythm, the big winger bounced back in style. Named Hurricanes Player of the Year in 2012, the 22-year old used his pace and strength to be an attacking weapon for the Canes. He worked hard off the field and together with his solid performances, earned his first call up to the All Blacks. He scored three tries on debut in the black jersey and from there went from strength to strength. Savea has represented New Zealand Secondary Schools, All Blacks Sevens team and New Zealand Under 20, along with the honour of being named IRB Junior Player of the Year in 2010.

BRAD SHIELDS – FLANKER

Physical: 1.93m, 111kg

Born: 02.04.91

Province/Club: Wellington

Provincial/State Caps: 17

Provincial/State Points: 10 (2t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2010 v Hawke's Bay

Super Rugby Caps: 13

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Stormers

Brad Shields is one to watch amongst New Zealand's emerging players. Shields has a consistently high work rate that has impressed many. He shot into the limelight after a superb 2011 season with the New Zealand Under 20 team and Wellington Lions, where he was named Most Promising Player in the Capital. The loose forward brings strength and physicality to the Hurricanes pack. Dangerous with ball in hand, the All Blacks selectors have already identified Shields as one for the future, as they included him in their wider training squad in the June break of 2012.

ERIC SIONE – PROP

Physical: 1.84m, 126kg
Born: 29.10.92
Province/Club: Wellington
Provincial/State Caps: 5
Provincial/State Points: 5 (1t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Canterbury
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Eric Sione earns his first Super Rugby call up in 2013 following his debut provincial season in 2012. The prop was a member of the New Zealand Under 20 side in 2012, travelling to South Africa for the Junior World Championships and coming off the bench in the final against the hosts. Sione is one of five props in the side and will look to gain plenty of experience by taking the step up to the Super Rugby environment.

CONRAD SMITH – CENTRE

Physical: 1.86m, 95kg
Born: 12.10.81
Province/Club: Wellington
Provincial/State Caps: 43
Provincial/State Points: 60 (12t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2003 v Bay of Plenty
Super Rugby Caps: 82
Super Rugby Points: 80 (16t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2004 v Cats
Test Caps: 66
Test Points: 115 (23t)
Test Debut: 2004 v Italy

The Hurricanes' inspirational captain, Conrad Smith, leads by example in his work rate on the field and attitude off it. The World Cup winning centre remains one of the most consistent elite rugby players in the world, combining accurate defence with vision and the ability to run great lines on attack. Smith first made the All Blacks in 2004 and scored a try with his first touch of the ball against Italy. Smith graduated with a Bachelor of Laws with Honours from Victoria University in 2003 and is a former New Zealand Universities representative.

CHRIS SMYLIE – HALFBACK

Physical: 1.80m, 91kg

Born: 22.03.82

Province/Club: Taranaki

Provincial/State Caps: 88

Provincial/State Points: 65 (13t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2002 v Auckland
(North Harbour)

Super Rugby Caps: 44

Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Crusaders
(Highlanders)

Chris Smylie returned to the Hurricanes last season, five years after first playing for the franchise. The halfback missed out on adding to his 44 Super Rugby caps after he suffered a shoulder injury in the final pre-season match, ruling him out for six months. After a long rehab, Smylie will be eager to come back better and stronger in 2013 and will fight for the starting halfback spot with young gun Perenara and international Fisilau.

ANDRE TAYLOR – FULLBACK/WING

Physical: 1.80m, 93kg

Born: 11.01.88

Province/Club: Taranaki

Provincial/State Caps: 57

Provincial/State Points: 144 (18t, 12c, 9p, 1d)

Provincial/State Debut: 2006 v Taranaki
(Manawatu)

Super Rugby Caps: 31

Super Rugby Points: 65 (12t, 1c, 1p)

Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Force

Andre Taylor was Super Rugby's top try scorer in 2012. He ran in 10 tries for the Canes, while starting all 16 matches at fullback. His speed and ability to slip through defensive lines makes him a threat from all over the park. The fullback toured with the Maori All Blacks to the UK at the end of 2012. He first played ITM Cup rugby on the wing for Manawatu while still at school at Palmerston North Boys' High School in 2006.

BLADE THOMSON – LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 1.98m, 106kg

Born: 04.12.90

Province/Club: Taranaki

Provincial/State Caps: 15

Provincial/State Points: 10 (2t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2010 v Manawatu

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Versatile forward Blade Thomson had an outstanding season for Taranaki in the 2012 ITM Cup. He displayed a high work rate around the park and added some nice touches with the ball that showed Thomson really shine as a loose forward. The former champion New Zealand Under 20 player can play lock, blindside flanker or number eight. At 1.98m, Thomson offers another lineout choice for the Hurricanes.

JEREMY THRUSH – LOCK

Physical: 1.98m, 115kg

Born: 19.04.85

Province/Club: Wellington

Provincial/State Caps: 76

Provincial/State Points: 80 (16t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2006 v Waikato

Super Rugby Caps: 66

Super Rugby Points: 35 (7t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Waratahs

Wellington captain Jeremy Thrush is an experienced forward, who continually works hard season after season. Despite tough competition for the locking positions, he started all but one game in the 2012 season. Thrush, World Under 19 Player of the Year in 2004 and Junior All Blacks in 2009, is an aggressive ball winner in the air and committed in the tight. He is a highly mobile and skilful lock with a nose for the tryline.

Thrush's father played on the wing for Bush prior to their amalgamation with Wairarapa.

JEFFERY TOOMAGA-ALLEN – PROP

Physical: 1.92m, 125kg
Born: 19.11.90
Province/Club: Wellington
Provincial/State Caps: 10
Provincial/State Points: 5 (1t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Manawatu
Super Rugby Caps: 16
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Stormers

Jeffery Toomaga-Allen played Super Rugby before he even made his provincial debut. He played in every game in his debut season too, with six appearances off the bench and 10 starting spots. Toomaga-Allen is a quality scrummager and was never afraid to take on bigger, more experienced oppositions in his first season. He is strong with ball in hand and has a huge work rate on defence. Embarking on his first provincial campaign after the Hurricanes season, the 22 year old was named Wellington Player of the Year. The prop was a member of the IRB Junior World Championship winning New Zealand Under 20 side in 2010.

VICTOR VITO – LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 1.92m, 109kg
Born: 27.03.87
Province/Club: Wellington
Provincial/State Caps: 44
Provincial/State Points: 40 (8t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2006 v Waikato
Super Rugby Caps: 47
Super Rugby Points: 30 (6t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Highlanders
Test Caps: 20
Test Points: 10 (2t)
Test Debut: 2010 v Ireland

Victor Vito is one of the top loose forwards in the country, using the speed and strength he was known for in Sevens from the back of the scrum. A member of the Rugby World Cup winning All Blacks team, the loose forward will bring up his 50th Hurricanes cap this season, only four years after making his debut. The hard-working Scots College product captained the New Zealand Under 19 team in 2006 and played a starring role in the New Zealand International Sevens in February 2008, scoring two tries in the final against Samoa, including the match winner.

MILESTONES

- Mornè Steyn (106) or Wynand Olivier (103) could become the most capped Super Rugby player in the franchise history. The current record is held by Victor Matfield and Danie Rossouw (116).
- Pierre Spies (89) and Jano Vermaak (89) are also in line to play 100 Super Rugby matches this year, although 73 of Vermaak's caps were in Cats and MTN Lions colours.
- Steyn's 1201 points in the competition, which is a franchise and South African record for points in the tournaments could be extended, as will his number of conversions (210), penalties (218) and drop goals (24). The latter is also the tournament record.
- Olivier (29) is eight tries away from Bryan Habana's franchise record of 37.
- Flip van der Merwe (also six for Cheetahs), Francois Hougaard (45) and Bjorn Basson (42, nine for Cheetahs) should all move past the 50 match mark in Super Rugby in 2013.

FRANS LUDEKE – HEAD COACH

Born: 24.04.68

Bulls Coaching Debut: 2008

Other Coaching Roles: Head Coach – SWD Currie Cup; Golden Lions Currie Cup/Vodacom Cup; Cats Super Rugby. Assistant Coach Springboks.

Ludeke is the only South African coach to have won two Super Rugby titles (2009 & 2010), a feat well deserved to one of the most hard-working and humble people in rugby. A former provincial flanker himself, Ludeke understands team dynamics and have great understanding in working with people. He will be keen to improve on his win tally in 2013 after disappointing campaigns in 2011 and 2012.

VICTOR MATFIELD – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 11.05.77

Bulls Coaching Debut: 2013 (Forwards and Attack Coach)

Other Coaching Roles: Line-out consultant Vodacom Bulls, Vodacom Blue Bulls 2012

Matfield was one of the most decorated players in world rugby and a true legend of Springbok rugby. The former test captain has limited experience as a front line coach, having spent his first year of retirement as a television pundit and line-out consultant. His vast knowledge of the game, massive work ethic and competitive nature will stand in good stead in 2013.

PINE PIENAAR – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 09.09.78

Bulls Coaching Debut: 2013 (Defense Coach)

Other Coaching Roles: Blue Bulls Currie Cup 2011/12, Blue Bulls Vodacom Cup 2011/12, Free State Cheetahs Under 21 coach 2006-2010). SA Under 20 Assistant Coach 2010/2011.

Pienaar made a name for himself while coaching junior teams and slowly but surely worked his way up the coaching ladder. He coached the Vodacom Blue Bulls in the Absa Currie Cup competition in 2012 and will bring new energy and ideas to the team. A student of the game, chances are that Pienaar will bring some innovation to his portfolio.

BJORN BASSON – WING

Physical: 1.85m, 87kg

Born: 11.02.87, King William's Town

Province/Club: Blue Bulls

Provincial/State Caps: 60 (48 Griquas, 12 Blue Bulls)

Provincial/State Points: 250 (195 Griquas 39t; 55 Blue Bulls 11t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2008 (Griquas v Border)

Super Rugby Caps: 42 (9 Cheetahs, 33 Bulls)

Super Rugby Points: 125 (30 Cheetahs 6t; 95 Bulls 19t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Lions (Cheetahs)

Test Caps: 6

Test Points: 0

Test Debut: 2010 v Wales

Only injury could stop Basson from scoring tries in 2012 and robbed him of not only a likely Springbok call-up, but more records also. Basson broke the season's Super Rugby try scoring record (10 tries) for the Vodacom Bulls last season, but an injury sustained in the play-off match against the Crusaders then almost ended his season and he missed all but three Currie Cup matches. A true finisher and exceptional under the high ball, the winger will be looking to strike back in 2013.

ARNO BOTHA – NO.8

Physical: 1.90m, 105kg
Born: 26.10.91, Nylstroom
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 16
Provincial/State Points: 20 (4t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2011 v Mpumalanga Pumas
Super Rugby Caps: 10
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Reds
Test Caps: 0
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: Springbok touring squad, November 2012

There is a very bright future ahead of this 21 year old, who is rapidly progressing through the rugby ranks and toured with the Springboks to the Northern Hemisphere in November last year, barely a year after captaining the South African Under 21 team to the Junior World Championship. Big, fast, strong and totally committed, Botha could be one of the real stars in this year's competition.

JJ ENGELBRECHT – WING

Physical: 1.90m, 95kg
Born: 22.02.89, Port Elizabeth
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 35 (27 Western Province, 8 Blue Bulls)
Provincial/State Points: 65 (65 Western Province, 13t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2009 (Western Province v Mighty Elephants)
Super Rugby Caps: 17
Super Rugby Points: 15 (3t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Sharks
Test Caps: 1
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2012 v Argentina

A Springbok call-up in 2012 indicated the impact this elusive outside back made in his first season of Super Rugby. Engelbrecht runs great lines on attack and is always a threat with ball in hand. He will be looking to improve on his test match cap tally this year and in order to do that, a consistent and high class contribution will be needed – and can be expected from the Eastern Cape born player.

LOUIS FOUCHÈ – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.86m, 98kg
Born: 04.01.90, Pretoria
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 19
Provincial/State Points: 263 (2t, 41c, 52p, 5d)
Provincial/State Debut: 2011 v Mpumalanga
Super Rugby Caps: 10
Super Rugby Points: 2
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Sharks

A full season at Currie Cup level has matured this young flyhalf and could really bear fruit in the new season. Fouchè had few opportunities in the 2012 Super campaign, but had an extensive run for the Vodacom Blue Bulls in the season's Currie Cup, where he ended up as the season's top points' scorer with 137 points. This should give him all the momentum and confidence going into the new season.

DEAN GREYLING – PROP

Physical: 1.86m, 120kg
Born: 01.01.86, Potgietersrus
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 31
Provincial/State Points: 20 (4t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2005
Super Rugby Caps: 30
Super Rugby Points: 15
Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Lions
Test Caps: 3
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2011 v Australia

Now in his sixth season of top flight rugby and with a number of test caps for the Springboks to boot, Greyling could be considered one of the senior players in the side. The hard-running prop saw his stocks plummeted following an incident of dangerous play, but he is far to a good rugby player to stay down for long and big things could be expected from the prop in the new season.

GRANT HATTINGH – LOCK

Physical: 2.01m, 107kg
Born: 03.10.90, Johannesburg
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 8
Provincial/State Points: 0
Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Griquas
Super Rugby Caps: 9
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 (Lions v Brumbies)

The former MTN Lions player will be looking for his first full season of Super Rugby and to establish himself in the Bulls pack. Drafted in by the Lions halfway through last year's competition, Hattingh quickly caught the eye with his good line-out work, read of the game and quick acceleration. A high work rate will also benefit his new side for which he played some matches in last year's Currie Cup competition.

FRANCOIS HOUGAARD – SCRUMHALF

Physical: 1,80m, 91kg
Born: 06.04.88, Paarl
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 39
Provincial/State Points: 55 (11t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2007 v The Sharks (Western Province)
Super Rugby Caps: 45
Super Rugby Points: 85
Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Highlanders
Test Caps: 27
Test Points: 20 (4t)
Test Debut: 2009 v Italy

Hougaard established himself as first choice scrumhalf at Super Rugby level, only to lose his Springboks no 9 jersey and moved to the wing again, where he played for the Vodacom Bulls in 2011. Incredibly talented and athletic, Hougaard will again contribute immensely to the Pretoria side's effort, whether on the wing or at scrumhalf.

ZANE KIRCHNER – FULLBACK

Physical: 1.85m, 96kg

Born: 16.06.84, George

Province/Club: Blue Bulls

Provincial/State Caps: 101 (58 Griquas, 43 Blue Bulls)

Provincial/State Points: 209 (175 (35t) Griquas, 34 Blue Bulls (6t, 2c).

Provincial/State Debut: 2003 Griquas

Super Rugby Caps: 71

Super Rugby Points: 100 (20t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Stormers

Test Caps: 24

Test Points: 15 (3t)

Test Debut: 2009 v British and Irish Lions

Now firmly established as the first choice fullback in the country, Kirchner would like to add more weapons to an already impressive arsenal of fullback play. Tactically sound, safe under the high ball and the ability to kick the ball miles, the stalwart will be conscious of calls to up his attacking game.

FRIK KIRSTEN – PROP

Physical: 1.92m, 120kg

Born: 18.09.88, Johannesburg

Province/Club: Blue Bulls

Provincial/State Caps: 25

Provincial/State Points: 10

Provincial/State Debut: 2009 v WP

Super Rugby Caps: 15

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Blues

Kirsten came of age in 2012 and played in all but four matches for the Vodacom Bulls and Vodacom Blue Bulls, with only a broken hand keeping him out of action for a month. Already a very solid and reliable scrummer, the athletic player also adds mobility and good defense to his effort. His rotation with Werner Kruger at tighthead could hold the key to the Bulls' success.

JUANDRÈ KRUGER – LOCK

Physical: 1.98m, 110kg
Born: 06.09.85, Cape Town
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 40 (6 WP, 34 Blue Bulls)
Provincial/State Points: 40 (2 t WP, 6 t Blue Bulls)
Provincial/State Debut: 2007 (Western Province)
Super Rugby Caps: 17
Super Rugby Points: 5
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Sharks
Test Caps: 8
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2012 v England

There should be very little reason why the rangy and mobile Kruger could not finish the season as the country's premier number five lock. A season of test rugby, where he earned eight caps, will certainly add to his experience of calling line-outs, getting mauls going and delivering an all-round game. Expect him to take on a leadership role in the team as well.

WERNER KRUGER – PROP

Physical: 1.90m, 117kg
Born: 23.01.85, Kempton Park
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 79
Provincial/State Points: 30
Provincial/State Debut: 2007
Super Rugby Caps: 75
Super Rugby Points: 30 (6t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Stormers
Test Caps: 4
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2011 v Australia

Call him Mister Reliable as Kruger will again deliver week after week. Few props can top his ruck cleaning stats or tackles made and with his scrumming ability improving every year, the tighthead will again be one of the real stalwarts of the team. Expected to rotate with Frik Kirsten and that could keep this humble prop very fit and focussed.

LIONEL MAPOE – CENTRE/WING

Physical: 1.82m, 87kg
Born: 13.07.88, Port Elizabeth
Province/Club: MTN Golden Lions
Provincial/State Caps: 29 (17 Golden Lions, 12 Free State Cheetahs)
Provincial/State Points: 55 (25 Golden Lions 5t; 30 Cheetahs 6t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2008 (Cheetahs v Sharks)
Super Rugby Caps: 28 (23 MTN Lions, 5 Toyota Cheetahs)
Super Rugby Points: 15 (19 Lions 2t; 5 Cheetahs 1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Bulls (Toyota Cheetahs)
Test Caps: 0
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: Springbok touring squad, November 2012

Few players love breaking through opponents defensive lines more than Mapoe, on loan from the MTN Lions and whether used as outside centre or wing, expect this hard-running player to be amongst the try-scoring leaders at the end of the competition. A stellar season with the Lions saw him drafted into the Springboks touring squad in November and he will no doubt be a better player for it upon his return to Vodacom Super Rugby. Also a former Springbok Sevens player.

SAMPIE MASTRIET – WING

Physical: 1.80m, 87kg
Born: 03.08.90, Mariasdal
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 2
Provincial/State Points: 5 (1t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v The Sharks
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Despite limited opportunities in 2012, Mastriet continued his rich vein of try-scoring form for the men in blue by scoring a try in his Absa Currie Cup debut in 2012. This after scoring 16 tries in 12 matches for the Blue Bulls Under 21 side the year before. A real finisher with great pace, the former SA Sevens and SA Under 20 player will be looking to make 2013 his breakthrough year.

BONGI MBONAMBI – HOOKER

Physical: 1.76m, 98kg
Born: 07.01.91, Bethlehem
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 3
Provincial/State Points: 0
Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Golden Lions
Super Rugby Caps: 2
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Crusaders

The 21 year old gained valuable experience in 2012, not only getting game time off the bench in two outings, but also learning from senior players in the squad. The former SA Under 20 rep has a proven skill set and a low centre of gravity, which makes him good ball carrier as well as very good fitness levels.

MORNÈ MELLETT – PROP

Physical: 1.85m, 115kg
Born: 02.10.89, Boksburg
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 5
Provincial/State Points: 0
Provincial/State Debut: 2012
Super Rugby Caps: 0
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: Bulls touring squad 2012

After missing almost half the Super Rugby season due to shoulder surgery, Mellett bounced back strongly in the Absa Currie Cup. He delivered some powerful scrum performances in the competition which resulted in the former SA Under 20 player to cement his place in the starting line-up. Being an unknown to opponents in 2013 could work to his benefit.

AKONA NDUNGANE – WING

Physical: 1.82m, 92kg
Born: 20.02.81, Umtata
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 78 (13 EP, 17 Border, 48 Blue Bulls)
Provincial/State Points: 215 (30 EP 6t; 70 Border 14t; 115 Blue Bulls 23t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2003 (EP v SWD)
Super Rugby Caps: 84
Super Rugby Points: 140 (28t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2005 v Cats
Test Caps: 11
Test Points: 5 (1t)
Test Debut: 2006 v Australia

It will be a decade of first class rugby for Ndungane, but he is ageing like a good red wine. He has not lost his uncanny ability to compete and contest balls in the air or to finish off half breaks. Ndungane's chasing from kick-offs has become legendary and the Vodacom Bulls will again get 100% commitment and ability from this true professional.

WYNAND OLIVIER – CENTRE

Physical: 1.86m, 94kg
Born: 11.06.83, Welkom
Province/Club: Ricoh Black Rams, Japan
Provincial/State Caps: 72 (Blue Bulls)
Provincial/State Points: 130 (26t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2003 v Boland
Super Rugby Caps: 103
Super Rugby Points: 145 (29t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2005 v Highlanders
Test Caps: 37
Test Points: 5
Test Debut: 2006 v Scotland

Few players come with more credibility into Super Rugby than the Bulls midfield stalwart. He is the most capped South African centre in Super Rugby and with three gold medals, also the most successful. Olivier joins the team from Japan, where he plays with the Ricoh Black Rams and will again be providing leadership and attacking ability to the team. Only one of only two centurions in the side, he will also provide massive experience to the younger generation of midfielders in the squad.

RUDY PAIGE – SCRUMHALF

Physical: 1.69m, 77kg

Born: 02.08.89, Riversdal

Province/Club: Blue Bulls

Provincial/State Caps: 2 (2 Golden Lions, 4 Blue Bulls)

Provincial/State Points: 5 (5 Blue Bulls 1t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2011 (Golden Lions)

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Rudy Paige was a loan player to the Vodacom Blue Bulls in the 2012 Currie Cup team and the former MTN Golden Lions player was quick to grab the opportunity to impress all in Pretoria. The former SA Schools captain provided a great service off the base, impressed with his tactical kicking and solid defense. He will be keen to use whatever opportunities may come his way.

HANDRÉ POLLARD – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.89m, 96kg

Born: 11.03.94, Somerset West

Province/Club: Blue Bulls

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Pollard shot to fame in 2012 when he guided the Junior Springboks to victory in the IRB Junior World Championship while still at school. The young pivot showed massive ability, composure and a fantastic all-round game. The 2013 season will pretty much be a learning curve for the new kid on the block.

DEWALD POTGIETER – LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 1.90m, 102kg
Born: 22.02.87, Port Elizabeth
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 58
Provincial/State Points: 50 (10t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2007 v Griffons
Super Rugby Caps: 54
Super Rugby Points: 20 (4t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Stormers
Test Caps: 6
Test Points: 5 (1t)
Test Debut: 2009 v Ireland

An array of injuries hampered the former Springbok last season and he only played seven times in 2012, with six of those in the final stretch of Super Rugby. A solid run in Currie Cup, where he captained the Vodacom Blue Bulls, would have done a lot to his confidence and fitness and one can expect Potgieter to be back with a bang this season. His versatility will also help the Bulls to field different loose trios at different times as he can play at six, seven or No.8.

JACQUES POTGIETER – LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 1.94m, 112kg
Born: 24.04.86, Port Elizabeth
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 28 (20 EP Kings, 8 Blue Bulls)
Provincial/State Points: 45 (35 EP Kings 7t; 10 Blue Bulls 2t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2009 v Border
Super Rugby Caps: 13
Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Sharks
Test Caps: 3
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2012 v England

The hard-running, hard-tackling Potgieter used his debut Super Rugby season to great effect and played himself into the Springbok squad, earning 3 caps in the process. A groin injury hampered his progress, forcing him into an operation which resulted in him missing the end of year tour. This break could prove very beneficial and the former EP Kings man could again be one of his team's best players.

CHILIBOY RALEPELLE – HOOKER

Physical: 1.80m, 106kg

Born: 11.09.86, Tzaneen

Province/Club: Blue Bulls

Provincial/State Caps: 25

Provincial/State Points: 10 (2t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2006 v Pumas

Super Rugby Caps: 52

Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Cheetahs

Test Caps: 21

Test Points: 5 (1t)

Test Debut: 2006 v New Zealand

To say injuries have impacted on the career of Ralepelle is a total understatement. The strong hooker did start in all 17 Bulls matches of 2012 and was widely acknowledged for having the form of his life, only to be struck down by a knee and shoulder injury once The Rugby Championship started. He remains one of the best in his position in the competition though and should deliver more outstanding performances again in 2013.

JAN SERFONTEIN – CENTRE

Physical: 1.87m, 97kg

Born: 15.04.93, Port Elizabeth

Province/Club: Blue Bulls

Provincial/State Caps: 4

Provincial/State Points: 0

Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Griquas

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Massive expectation comes with Serfontein's elevation into top flight rugby. Named Player of the Tournament at last year's IRB JWC was almost a forgone conclusion following the Junior Springbok's sublime form in the tournament, culminating in a decisive try for his team in the final. Some Currie Cup action for the Vodacom Blue Bulls justified the hype and the young upstart should find the next level with comfortable ease, thanks to his pace, power and time on the ball.

WILLIAM SMALL-SMITH – CENTRE

Physical: 1.84m, 92kg

Born: 31.03.92, Johannesburg

Province/Club: Blue Bulls

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Success follows Small-Smith like a lap dog and the talented midfielder received gold medals with the Springboks Sevens team, the Junior Springboks and the Vodacom Blue Bulls Under 21 team since finishing school only three years ago. Fast and with a great ability to finish, the midfielder's real strength lies in his organisational and leadership abilities on the field. A natural leader of men and an instinctive feel for the game, he will become even more influential in years to come.

PIERRE SPIES – NO.8

Physical: 1.94m, 107kg

Born: 08.08.85, Pretoria

Province/Club: Blue Bulls

Provincial/State Caps: 17

Provincial/State Points: 20 (4t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2005 v Griquas

Super Rugby Caps: 89

Super Rugby Points: 120 (25t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2005 v Highlanders

Test Caps: 50

Test Points: 35 (7t)

Test Debut: 2006 v Australia

Spies took a lot of firsts in his stride in 2012 – Bulls captaincy, fatherhood, new business ventures, but also a season-ending finger injury. Expect the leader of the pack to come back stronger, faster and more focussed than ever after missing the last five months of the season following a finger operation. A career mission – 100 games for the Bulls – is another box to be ticked for this very influential player.

WILHELM STEENKAMP – LOCK

Physical: 2.00m, 109kg

Born: 07.02.85, Calvinia

Province/Club: Blue Bulls

Provincial/State Caps: 85 (9 Free State Cheetahs, 76 Blue Bulls)

Provincial/State Points: 30 (5 Cheetahs 1t; 25 Blue Bulls 5t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2006 (v Cheetahs)

Super Rugby Caps: 52 (13 Cheetahs, 5 Sharks, 34 Bulls)

Super Rugby Points: 5 (5 Cheetahs 1t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Stormers

Now firmly established as one of the most reliable and durable locks in the country and having played for three franchises in the competition, Steenkamp will certainly be very keen to push for national honours. Already an Emerging Bok, the hard-working player is close to the final chapter of a complete career and will see the 2013 season as very important to confirm his credentials as a premier player against the best in the business.

DEON STEGMANN – LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 1.81m, 101kg

Born: 22.03.86, Cradock

Province/Club: Blue Bulls

Provincial/State Caps: 53

Provincial/State Points: 40 (8t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2007 v Griffons

Super Rugby Caps: 60

Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Stormers

Test Caps: 6

Test Points: 0

Test Debut: 2010 v Ireland

An institution as the openside in the Bulls pack since his debut in 2008, Stegmann found last season a very frustrating one. He broke his arm twice and suffered numerous muscle tears, resulting in only three starts in 2012. Expect of the Karoo born player to use 2013 as a spectacular comeback year, not only to the Bulls side, but also to the national team.

MORNÈ STEYN – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.82m, 91kg

Born: 11.07.84, Bellville

Province/Club: Blue Bulls

Provincial/State Caps: 95

Provincial/State Points: 826 (25t, 171c, 103p, 10dg)

Provincial/State Debut: 2003 v Boland

Super Rugby Caps: 106

Super Rugby Points: 1201 (11t, 210c, 218p, 24dg)

Super Rugby Debut: 2005 v Waratahs

Test Caps: 42

Test Points: 486 (7t, 59c, 103p, 8dg)

Test Debut: 2009 v British and Irish Lions

Super Rugby offered Steyn some delightful highs in 2012 (like becoming a centurion and extending his numerous scoring records), but unfortunately the same could not be said of his fortunes at test match level. The prolific kicker lost his radar, confidence and starting spot with the Springboks and he will be very keen to remind everyone why he should still be rated as the best pivot in the country.

FLIP VAN DER MERWE – LOCK

Physical: 1.98m, 117kg

Born: 16.06.85, Potchefstroom

Province/Club: Blue Bulls

Provincial/State Caps: 73 (37 Free State, 1 Griffons, 35 Blue Bulls)

Provincial/State Points: 35 (10 Cheetahs 2t; 25 Bulls 5t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2006 v WP (Free State Cheetahs)

Super Rugby Caps: 48 (6 Cheetahs, 42 Bulls)

Super Rugby Points: 15 (5 Cheetahs 1t; 10 Bulls 2t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Chiefs

Test Caps: 23

Test Points: 5 (1t)

Test Debut: 2010 v France

Financial graduate and advisor off the field, enforcer and hard man on it, Van der Merwe has now stepped out of all the shadows of previous greats in the Bulls number four jersey. He will be very aware of the expectations of him delivering week after week. Abrasive, physical and a keen component in their driving mauls will again see the lock be an integral part of the Bulls power play in their forward pack.

FRANCOIS VENTER – CENTRE

Physical: 1.85m, 93kg
Born: 19.04.91, Bloemfontein
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 21
Provincial/State Points: 25 (5t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2011 (The Sharks)
Super Rugby Caps: 8
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v The Sharks

Original expectations justified, this hard-running inside centre should progress into a regular starter spot and senior player in 2013. Compact in execution, with a very low error rate and an uncanny ability to take the right option, Venter's speed of the mark, running angles and uncompromising defence will make him one of the toughest opponents in the competition.

JANO VERMAAK – SCRUMHALF

Physical: 1.72m, 83kg
Born: 01.01.85, Graaff-Reinet
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 89 (74 Golden Lions, 15 Blue Bulls)
Provincial/State Points: 142 (118 Lions 20t, 4p, 3c; 25 Blue Bulls 5t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2005 (Lions v SWD)
Super Rugby Caps: 88
Super Rugby Points: 73 (68 Lions/Cats 10t, 2p, 6c; 5 Bulls 1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2006 (v Stormers)
Test Caps: 0
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: Springbok Touring Squad Rugby Championship 2012

A dream came true for Vermaak in 2012 when he was drafted into the Springbok squad and although he did not earn a cap, the experience and wisdom picked up at the highest level improved his play. The best example of this was during Currie Cup when the versatile scrumhalf delivered one man of the match performance after the other. Expect 2013 to be another excellent one for the livewire, who will be very keen to establish himself as the starting halfback.

CALLIE VISAGIE – HOOKER

Physical: 1.88m, 108kg
Born: 09.08.88, Paarl
Province/Club: MTN Golden Lions
Provincial/State Caps: 10
Provincial/State Points: 0
Provincial/State Debut: 2011
Super Rugby Caps: 16
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Toyota Cheetahs

Visagie was one of the first players to be approached by the Vodacom Bulls when the MTN Lions lost their Super status, a testament to his abilities in a position where depth is no problem. An intelligent player with strong first phase play and great with ball in hand, Visagie will push the incumbents all the way. A mature and dedicated player, Visagie is an ideal squad member.

JÜRGEN VISSER – FULLBACK

Physical: 1.91m, 92kg
Born: 13.09.89, Paarl
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 23 (1 Western Province, 22 Blue Bulls)
Provincial/State Points: 22 (22 WP 8c, 2p)
Provincial/State Debut: 2009 v Mighty Elephants
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

A second solid season of Currie Cup rugby not only matured the brave Visser as a player, but again confirmed his credentials as a serious contender for a starting position in Super Rugby. As a former flyhalf, Visser has the kicking game needed to play at this level, but it is his ability to exploit space from the back that impressed those in the know.

WILLIE WEPENER – HOOKER

Physical: 1,79m, 108kg
Born: 02.04.81, Newcastle
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 84 (11 Leopards, 22 Griquas, 30 Golden Lions, 21 Blue Bulls)
Provincial/State Points: 15 (3t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2002 v Eastern Province
Super Rugby Caps: 53 (40 Golden Lions, 13 Bulls)
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Blues

After a decade in the top flight, there will be no surprises about Wepener's contribution to the Bulls' effort this season. Experienced, skilful, hard-nosed and with impeccable basics, the hooker will again deliver week-in and week-out. The hooking berth will be a hotly contested one in 2013 and Wepener will provide most of the heat, whether it is to the other players in that position or the opponents.

PAUL WILLEMSE – LOCK

Physical: 2.00m, 127kg
Born: 13.11.92, Pretoria
Province/Club: Blue Bulls
Provincial/State Caps: 1 (MTN Golden Lions)
Provincial/State Points: 0
Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Blue Bulls
Super Rugby Caps: 1
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Toyota Cheetahs (MTN Lions)

Locks are revered in Pretoria and even the senior ones nodded approvingly when news broke that Willemse would join the Bulls for their 2013 campaign. Instrumental in the Junior Springboks winning the IRB Junior World Championship last season, the young giant will bring grunt, gruesome defense and bulk to the pack. This could be a big year for the Namibian, who gained valuable Super Rugby experience with the MTN Lions last year.

MILESTONES

- Adriaan Strauss (64 – 27 as captain), Hennie Daniller (60), Tewis de Bruyn (56) and Heinrich Brüssow (55) all have more than 50 matches for the Toyota Cheetahs.
- Johan Goosen has scored 145 Super Rugby points in 9 matches during the 2012 season before he got injured.
- Six of the players are Springboks – Heinrich Brüssow, Adriaan Strauss, Coenie Oosthuizen, Davon Raubenheimer, Johan Goosen and Raymond Rhule.
- The Toyota Cheetahs recorded their first victory in New Zealand in 2012 beating the Hurricanes 47-38 in Wellington. They also had victories over two times runner up Waratahs (35-34). They have also recorded victories over overseas' opponents after also beating the Rebels (33-26) and Western Force (17-13), and narrowly losing to seven times champions Crusaders (21-28 – in Christchurch), two time winners Brumbies (23-24 – in Canberra), and the Lions (25-27), the 2012 champions, Chiefs (33-39) and Stormers (14-16 and 6-13).

NAKA DROTSKÉ – HEAD COACH

Born: 15.03.71, Senekal, Free State

Cheetahs Coaching Debut: 2006 (71 matches)

Other Coaching Roles: Cheetahs forwards coach (2006-2007), Toyota Cheetahs Head Coach (2008-2012 – 71 matches) FS Cheetahs forwards coach (2006), Toyota FS Cheetahs Head Coach (2007-2012 – 80 matches).
2007 Absa Currie Cup winners

Naka is the first South African Rugby personality to win the Absa Currie Cup as a captain (2005), manager (2006) and coach (2007). Highly respected by the players, Naka has a way of bringing forward a player's natural ability. His experience, both as player (26 tests for SA – including two World Cups, 128 matches for FS Cheetahs) and coach will be vital in bringing the best out of the squad. Drotské coached the Toyota Free State Cheetahs in two Currie Cup finals (2007 & 2009) and five Currie Cup semi-finals (2007-2011).

HAWIES FOURIE – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 05.08.68, Belfast, Mpumalanga

Cheetahs Coaching Debut: 2007

Other Coaching Roles: Ceres Rugby Club head coach (2001-2002), Boland Cavaliers head coach (2003-2007), Stormers assistant coach (2006), Toyota FS Cheetahs Assistant Coach (2007-2011) (2007 Absa Currie Cup winners)

Hawies joined the Free State Cheetahs in June 2007 from Boland as assistant coach. He filled the specialist backline coaching role and made a huge contribution to the team's Absa Currie Cup victory at the end of 2007. As head coach of Boland (2003-2007), Hawies guided the team in winning the Absa Currie Cup First Division final in 2006 and the Vodacom Shield in 2004.

OS DU RANDT – SCRUM/ASSISTANT FORWARDS COACH

Born: 08.09.72, Elliot

Cheetahs Coaching Debut: 2009

Other Coaching Roles: Free State Cheetahs Assistant Forwards Coach (2009 – Absa Currie Cup finalist);

Cheetahs Assistant Forwards Coach (2009-2010) Super 14;

Forwards Coach to the Springboks (2010).

He was rated as one of the best loose head props in the world and is one of only four Rugby Players ever to have won two World Cups (1995 and 2007). He's also one of a very few Rugby Players to win the World Cup (1995, 2007), Tri-nations (2004) and the Absa Currie Cup (2005). SA Rugby Player of the Year (1997). Os will be remembered for his bone crunching tackles, but he should also be remembered as one of the men that helped restore the Boks to their rightful place in the echelons of world rugby – a fitting tribute to one of the greatest Springboks of all time. He has 80 tests for South Africa and 105 matches for the Free State Cheetahs to his credit.

LOURENS ADRIAANSE – PROP

Physical: 1.81m, 115kg

Born: 05.02.88, Cape Town

Province: GWK Griquas

Provincial Caps: 32

Provincial Points: 15 (3t)

Provincial Debut: 2011 v Cavaliers

Super Rugby Caps: 13

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Reds

This young forward got his first chance in Super Rugby as a replacement prop in 2011 on tour Down Under in a match against the Reds in Brisbane as an understudy to WP Nel. He played in 10 matches as a more than able replacement. Lourens then later established himself as the regular tight head prop in the Griquas side in the Absa Currie Cup competition.

FRANCOIS BRUMMER – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.83m, 92kg

Born: 17.05.89, Pretoria

Province: GWK Griquas

Provincial Caps: 66 (Blue Bulls-49;
Griquas-17)

Provincial Points: 598 (Blue Bulls-480;
Griquas-118)

Provincial Debut: 2008 v Eagles (Blue Bulls)

Super Rugby Caps: 1 (Bulls-1)

Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Stormers (Bulls)

Bulls recruit, Francois Brummer, came to Kimberley in 2012 and played a major role in Griquas success in the Absa Currie Cup tournament. He was the leading points scorer for the Griquas. The innovative flyhalf scored 118 points in his debut year in the Absa Currie Cup competition. He has earned a reputation as one of South Africa's most accurate goal kickers. Brummer has an impressive work ethic, and trains very hard. He is quick, kicks well and as he matures, is becoming better at dominating games.

RYNO BENJAMIN – WING

Physical: 1.89m, 94kg

Born: 03.08.83, St. Helena Bay

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 74 (FS Cheetahs-8,
Boland-42, Lions-23, Lions XV-1)

Provincial Points: 250 (50 t: FS Cheetahs-1,
Boland-35, Lions-13, Lions XV-1)

Provincial Debut: 2004 v Griffons (Boland)

Super Rugby Caps: 36 (Cheetahs-13,
Stormers-11, Lions-12)

Super Rugby Points: 45 (9 t: Cheetahs-5t, Stormers-2t, Lions-2t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Cats (Stormers)

This lanky and speedy wing played Super Rugby for the Stormers and the Lions before he moved to the Toyota Free State Cheetahs in 2011. He's a Springbok Sevens player, and is a big asset to the Toyota Cheetah Super Rugby franchise and back line play.

HEINRICH BRÜSSOW – FLANK

Physical: 1.81m, 102kg

Born: 21.07.86, Bloemfontein

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 59

Provincial Points: 125 (25t)

Provincial Debut: 2006 v Valke

Super Rugby Caps: 55

Super Rugby Points: 30 (6t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Blues

Test Caps: 20

Test Points: 5 (1t)

Test Debut: 2008 v England

After being side-lined due to injuries for a great deal of 2010 and 2011 Heinrich returned to the Toyota Free State team in August 2011, against Western Province and after only 25 minutes as a replacement he was called up for national duty. He was one of the Springboks' stars at 2011 World Cup in New Zealand. Brüssow is strong on the ground, blessed with a good pair of hands and a fair turn of speed. He does not stand back defensively and is strong in the tackle. He was again side-lined due to injury for most of the 2012 Absa Currie Cup tournament.

HENNIE DANILLER – FULLBACK

Physical: 1.94m, 101kg

Born: 05.04.84, Cape Town

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 98 (Blue Bulls-19, Boland-19, FS Cheetahs-60)

Provincial Points: 55 (11t)

Provincial Debut: 2003 v Cuyo, Argentina (Blue Bulls)

Super Rugby Caps: 67 (Bulls-7, Cheetahs-60)

Super Rugby Points: 30 (6t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2004 v Sharks (Bulls)

Hennie Daniller is a big and strong fullback who can be really dangerous and effective when he is on form and made a big impact in the Toyota Free State Cheetah team during the Absa Currie Cup 2011 campaign. His size allows him to compete effectively in the air when he is confronted by high kicks. He is also a good punter of the ball. Daniller, a former SA U21, SA U19 and SA Schools player, made his Vodacom Super rugby debut way back in 2004, as a 19 year old player at the Bulls.

TEWIS DE BRUYN – SCRUMHALF

Physical: 1.74m, 86kg

Born: 05.08.82, Hoopstad

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 162 (Leopards-23; Eagles-51; Boland-14, FS Cheetahs-74)

Provincial Points: 314/21t (Leopards-54/2t; Eagles-74/6t; Boland-36/0t; FS Cheetahs-150/13t)

Provincial Debut: 2002 v EP Elephants

Super Rugby Caps: 56

Super Rugby Points: 25 (2t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Blues

Tewis de Bruyn started his Super Rugby career in 2008, but really showed what he was made of during the 2009 Vodacom Super 14 series. He had excellent 2010 and 2011 seasons for the Cheetahs in the Super Rugby competition as well as for the Free State Cheetahs in the Absa Currie Cup campaign. In 2012 he played second fiddle to Piet van Zyl (Super Rugby) and Sarel Pretorius (Absa Currie Cup). He can also play flyhalf and his sound kicking game, goal kicking and solid defence adds to his versatility.

LODEWYK DE JAGER – LOCK

Physical: 2.05m, 125kg

Born: 17.12.92, Alberton

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Debut: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

He played for the NWU Puk Young Guns in the Varsity Cup competition in 2012. This big forward is a newcomer to senior first class rugby and a prospect for the future.

ROSSOUW DE KLERK – PROP

Physical: 1.86m, 118kg
Born: 21.08.89, Vredenburg
Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs
Provincial Caps: 33 (Blue Bulls-33)
Provincial Points: 0
Provincial Debut: 2009 v Griquas (Blue Bulls)
Super Rugby Caps: 14 (Bulls)
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Highlanders (Bulls)

Rossouw de Klerk is a 23-year old strong, mobile prop forward. He will certainly be pushing for more starts in 2013 and add to his Super Rugby tally. Rossouw began his rugby education at Paarl Gym and he played provincial U13, U16 and U18 for Western Province, before moving to Pretoria where he played U21, Vodacom and Absa Currie Cup rugby for the Blue Bulls and in 14 Super matches for the Bulls in 2010 and 2011.

ROBERT EBERSOHN – CENTRE

Physical: 1.80m, 87kg
Born: 23.02.89, Bloemfontein
Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs
Provincial Caps: 61
Provincial Points: 45 (9t)
Provincial Debut: 2008 v WP
Super Rugby Caps: 42
Super Rugby Points: 35 (7t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Hurricanes

Robert Ebersohn is the twin brother of Sias – who is playing his Super Rugby in 2013 for the Western Force. Robert is one of the brightest rugby talents in South Africa. Ebersohn chose to focus on international Sevens during 2009, rather than competing at Super 14 level and captained the SA Under 20 side during 2009. A mercurial player who shows maturity far beyond his age. He returned to the 15-man form of rugby during 2010 and played 10 matches for the Cheetahs and in all of the 15 Absa Currie Cup games for the Free State Cheetahs. He had a very good 2011 Absa Currie Cup campaign. In the absence of Adriaan Strauss Robert captained the Toyota Free State Cheetahs in 10 Absa Currie Cup matches during the 2012 season.

ANDRIES FERREIRA – LOCK

Physical: 1.97m, 120kg

Born: 29.03.90, Despatch

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 3

Provincial Points: 5 (1t)

Provincial Debut: 2012 v Blue Bulls

Super Rugby Caps: 14

Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Lions

A knee injury side lined him after only three Absa Currie Cup matches for the Toyota Free State Cheetahs in the 2012 season. Andries Ferreira may only be in his second full year of senior rugby, but his strong set piece skills and outstanding athletic potential are key strengths which the Toyota Cheetahs will utilise in 2013. He has played Vodacom Cup, U21 and U19 for the Blue Bulls, and represented SA Schools in 2008.

BARRY GEEL – CENTRE

Physical: 1.84m, 91kg

Born: 30.04.82, Springs

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 182 (Leopards-91, Griquas-81, Cheetahs XV-1, Toyota FS XV-5, Toyota FS Cheetahs-4)

Provincial Points: 250 (50 t)

Provincial Debut: 2002 v Bulldogs (Leopards)

Super Rugby Caps: 7

Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Crusaders

Barry Geel is a strong runner with the ball and only made his big Super Rugby debut in 2011 against the Crusaders. After 81 games for Griquas he moved to Toyota Free State at the end of the 2011 season. Geel is a confident ball player and punishing defender.

HANSIE GRAAFF – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.91m, 96kg

Born: 10.09.89, Pretoria

Province: Griffons

Provincial Caps: 18

Provincial Points: 147

Provincial Debut: 2012 v Leopards

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

This strongly built back played in 18 matches for the Griffons in 2012 – three of them as a replacement flyhalf in the Vodacom Cup competition, then two as fullback and six on the right wing in the Absa First Division series before he got his first shot as starting flyhalf against the Leopards. He was the first choice flyhalf for the Griffons for the remainder of the 2012 season. He was voted Absa First Division Player of the Year in 2012. He is a newcomer to the Toyota Cheetahs' squad and is a big asset to the franchise.

JOHAN GOOSEN – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.85m, 89kg

Born: 27.07.92, Burgersdorp

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 15

Provincial Points: 138 (2 t)

Provincial Debut: 2011 v Pumas

Super Rugby Caps: 9

Super Rugby Points: 145 (3t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Lions

Test Caps: 4

Test Points: 8

Test Debut: 2012 v Australia

Johan Goosen is one of most promising young rugby players and flyhalves in South Africa. He is a strong runner with the ball in hand, his defence is solid and tactical kicks are very good. He represented South Africa at schools level, Under 18 and Under 20 level. He's a goal kicker par excellence and he many a time succeed with placekicks beyond 60 meters. After being side lined for nearly four months because of an shoulder injury he played for 50 minutes in his only Absa Currie Cup match and was called up for national service. He made his debut as a flyhalf replacement for Morné Steyn against Australia in Perth. He played in the number 10 jersey against Australia in Pretoria and was again side lined via a knee injury in the next test against the All Blacks.

PIETER LABUSCHAGNE – FLANK

Physical: 1.89m, 105kg

Born: 11.01.89, Pretoria

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 30 (Toyota FS XV-2; Toyota FS Cheetahs-28)

Provincial Points: 40 (8 t)

Provincial Debut: 2011 v Griffons

Super Rugby Caps: 2

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Bulls

Pieter Labuschagne was one of the finds of the 2011 season and was rewarded with a call-up to the Toyota Cheetahs' team for the 2012 season. He excelled in Currie Cup 2011 playing in all of the 15 games in the competition, scoring 6 tries. His high scoring try tally is testament to his strike power as a ball carrier, while he also adds value as a line-out option for his team. He played in 10 of the 12 Absa Currie Cup matches during 2012.

WILLIE LE ROUX – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.86m, 90kg

Born: 18.08.89, Cape Town

Province: GWK Griquas

Provincial Caps: 48 (Cavaliers-39; Griquas-9)

Provincial Points: 226 (Cavaliers-221/27 t; Griquas-5/1t)

Provincial Debut: 2010 v Western Province (Cavaliers)

Super Rugby Caps: 16

Super Rugby Points: 35 (7t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Lions

Willie le Roux hails from the Boland Cavaliers and moved to Kimberley at the end of the 2011 season. He is a strong runner with ball in hand and a prolific try-scorer, scoring 16 tries for the Cavaliers in 2011. He is also an excellent goal kicker. He scored 7 tries in 16 Super Rugby matches during 2012.

HERCÚ LIEBENBERG – HOOKER

Physical: 1.78m, 110kg

Born: 16.05.86, Postmasburg

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 61 (Toyota FS Cheetahs-48; EP Elephants-11; Griffons-2; Emerging Cheetahs-1)

Provincial Points: 5 (1t)

Provincial Debut: 2006 v KZN Wildebeest

Super Rugby Caps: 6

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Crusaders

Hercú Liebenberg is the younger brother of Springbok Tiaan Liebenberg (WP/Stormers hooker). As understudy to Springbok hooker Adriaan Strauss Hercú excelled for the Toyota Free State Cheetahs in Strauss' absence away on national duty. He is a strong scrummer.

MARTIN MULLER – LOCK

Physical: 1.98m, 110kg

Born: 23.03.88, Cape Town

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 45 (Western Province-22, Griquas-23)

Provincial Points: 10 (WP-1t; Griquas-1t)

Provincial Debut: 2009 v Griquas (Western Province)

Super Rugby Caps: 14 (Stormers-3; Cheetahs-11)

Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Chiefs (Stormers)

The lanky Martin Muller made his Super Rugby debut in 2009 for the Stormers, but got his first real big chance in 2011 for the Toyota Cheetahs as no. 5 lock in teams' last three matches of the season. He will be a strong contender for the one lock position in the Toyota Cheetahs team.

JP NEL – CENTRE

 Physical: 1.84m, 95kg

 Born: 09.01.81, Worcester

 Province: GWK Griquas

 Provincial Caps: 82 (Western Province-1;
Blue Bulls-78; Griquas-3)

 Provincial Points: 197 (Blue Bulls-39t)

 Provincial Debut: 2000 v Border Bulldogs

 Super Rugby Caps: 78 (Bulls)

 Super Rugby Points: 75 (Bulls-15t)

 Super Rugby Debut: 2001 v Reds (Bulls)

He played Super Rugby for the Bulls between 2001 and 2009. Defensively he is one of the best centres in South Africa. Nel is one of the most experienced Super Rugby players in South Africa and is of immense value to the Toyota Cheetahs.

DUSTY NOBLE – WING

 Physical: 1.81m, 95kg

 Born: 30.04.84, Stellenbosch

 Province: GWK Griquas

 Provincial Caps: 68 (KZN-21; Lions-35;
Griquas-12)

 Provincial Points: 115 (23 tries)

 Provincial Debut: 2005 v SWD Eagles (KZN)

 Super Rugby Caps: 20 (Sharks-3; Lions-16;
Toyota Cheetahs-1)

 Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)

 Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Chiefs (Sharks)

Springbok Sevens player Dusty Noble is a member of the famous Noble rugby family. He is the son of former WP League utility back Aubrey Noble: his uncle Christie helped Natal to their first-ever Currie Cup title in 1990. Dusty's uncompromising attitude, allied to his great finishing, should ensure that he finds himself in the starting line-up before too long.

TREVOR NYAKANE – PROP

Physical: 1.78m, 118kg

Born: 04.05.89, Bushbuck Ridge

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 28

Provincial Points: 10 (2 t)

Provincial Debut: 2010 v SWD Eagles

Super Rugby Caps: 11

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Lions

Trevor got his big chance in 2011 Absa Currie Cup competition as an impact player and he impressed with his ball skills and his powerful scrumming. After playing 11 Super Rugby matches for the Toyota Cheetahs during 2012 and three Absa Currie Cup matches for the Toyota Free State he was side lined for the remaining of the 2012 season because of a broken thumb.

CAYLIB OOSTHUIZEN – PROP

Physical: 1.86m, 116kg

Born: 01.09.89, Cape Town

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 4 (Young Lions-2;
Golden Lions-2)

Provincial Points: 0

Senior Debut: 2011 v Border Bulldogs

Super Rugby Caps: 6 (Lions)

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Sharks

Caylib Oosthuizen is a very promising young prop forward but with a few Springboks and other top class props in the Lions' camp he had little game time in the past two seasons. With Os du Randt as the Toyota Cheetahs' forward and prop coach he could further his career.

COENIE OOSTHUIZEN – PROP

Physical: 1.87m, 127kg

Born: 22.03.89, Potchefstroom

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 50

Provincial Points: 55 (11 t)

Provincial Debut: 2008 v Blue Bulls

Super Rugby Caps: 40

Super Rugby Points: 30 (6t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Bulls

Test Caps: 2

Test Points: 0

Test Debut: 2012 v England

A big and strong young prop who is an efficient ball carrier, this former junior star struggled with injury during 2009 as well as towards the end of the 2011 season. He made his Super Rugby debut in the Cheetahs' first match of the 2010 campaign against the Bulls. He scored a hat trick of tries in a 2010 Absa Currie Cup match against the Griquas. He was selected for the 2010 end-of-the-year Springbok tour to Britain & Ireland. He moved with great success to the tight head side of the front row, played in his debut test against England before a serious neck injury side lined him in the 2012 season.

SAREL PRETORIUS – SCRUMHALF

Physical: 1.74m, 84kg

Born: 18.04.84, Bloemfontein

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 107 (Valke-37; Griquas-57; Cheetahs XV-1; Toyota FS Cheetahs-12)

Provincial Points: 225 (Valke-16t; Griquas-25t; Toyota FS Cheetahs-4t)

Provincial Debut: 2006 v Griffons (Valke)

Super Rugby Caps: 52 (Toyota Cheetahs-38; Waratahs-14)

Super Rugby Points: 85 (Toyota Cheetahs-15t; Waratahs-2)

Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Western Force (Toyota Cheetahs)

Sarel Pretorius was inspirational and was at the heart of all the Cheetahs' best moments in 2011. His natural attacking instincts were superb and he was the fulcrum around which they operated. Pretorius scored a franchise record nine tries in 2011, was the joint leading try scorer in the tournament and earned selection in the Springboks 50-man pre-World Cup squad. His try scoring ability has not been confined to Super Rugby with Pretorius scoring 45 tries 107 provincial matches. Pretorius has represented Emerging Springboks and is also a former member of the SA Sevens squad. He played 14 matches for the Waratahs during the 2012 season and returned to the Free State for the 2012 Absa Currie Cup series and was one of the stars in the squad. Sarel Pretorius was South Africa's Super Rugby Player of the 2011 season.

BOOM PRINSLOO – FLANK

Physical: 1.84m, 104kg

Born: 12.03.89, Bloemfontein

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 21 (Toyota FS Cheetahs-20; Emerging Cheetahs-1)

Provincial Points: 30 (6t)

Senior Debut: 2010 v Boland Cavaliers

Super Rugby Caps: 1

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Sharks

Springbok sevens 2010-2011

He only played in two matches in the 2012 season for the Toyota Cheetahs – the last Vodacom Super Rugby game against the Sharks and, the first in the Absa Currie Cup game against the Lions, before he was side lined for the remainder of 2012 because of a shoulder injury. This lively loose forward is an asset to any team with his natural skills.

DAVON RAUBENHEIMER – FLANK

Physical: 1.95m, 100kg

Born: 16.07.84, Knysna

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 129 (Eagles-60; Griquas-56; Toyota Free State XV-3; Toyota FS Cheetahs-10)

Provincial Points: 45 (9t)

Provincial Debut: 2005 v Bulldogs (Eagles)

Super Rugby Caps: 20

Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Waratahs

Springbok Tour: 2009 – No Tests

After touring with the 2008 Emerging Springbok team in Europe Davon Raubenheimer, also a former SA U21 player was included the 2009 Springbok touring side for their end of the year trip to the Northern Hemisphere. Raubenheimer is an extra option at the back of the lineout, and also a more than able carrier of the ball. He moved from Griquas to the Free State for the 2012 season.

RAYMOND RHULE – WING/CENTRE

Physical: 1.80m, 85kg

Born: 06.11.92, Accra, Ghana

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 13 (Toyota FS XV-1; Toyota FS Cheetahs-12)

Provincial Points: 40 (8t)

Senior Debut: 2012 v Western Province

Super Rugby Caps: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2013

Springbok Tour: 2012

He got his first chance in big rugby when he was selected for the semi-final of the under 20 World Cup tournament against Argentina where he scored two brilliant tries. He made his first class debut at 19 years 173 days in a Vodacom Cup match for the Toyota Free State XV against Western Province. In his debut Absa Currie Cup match, against the Lions, he scored a brace of tries and ended at being the leading try scorer in the tournament. Within 237 days since making his debut as a 19-year old club player for the Shimlas of the University of the Free State in the Varsity Cup series he was selected by Springbok coach for the 2012 Springbok touring side for the end of the year trip to the Northern Hemisphere. He is an explosive winger and the youngest member of the squad.

JOHANN SADIE – CENTRE

Physical: 1.88m, 94kg

Born: 23.01.89, Malmesbury

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 27 (Western Province-24; Blue Bulls-3)

Provincial Points: 60 (Western Province-12t)

Provincial Debut: 2010 v Border (Western Province)

Super Rugby Caps: 17 (Stormers-7; Bulls-10)

Super Rugby Points: 10 (Stormers-2t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Reds (Stormers)

The exciting midfielder comes to the Toyota Cheetahs amid huge expectation. Regarded as one of the brightest stars in backline play in South Africa. A massive attacking force and great distributor, Sadie could unlock the potential of the Toyota Cheetahs backline big time.

MARNUS SCHOEMAN – FLANK

Physical: 1.80m, 100kg
Born: 09.02.89, Edenvale
Province: GWK Griquas
Provincial Caps: 36 (Blue Bulls-12; Griquas-24)
Provincial Points: 80 (Blue Bulls-3t; Griquas-13t)
Senior Debut: 2009 v Valke (Blue Bulls)
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

This former SA Schools' player made a huge impact in the Vodacom Cup and Absa Currie Cup competitions scoring 9 tries for the Griquas side during the 2012 season. Schoeman is an exceptionally fit flanker with a high work rate and an excellent ability to read the play. He has risen to each challenge presented to him. He is a new face in the squad.

RIAAN SMIT – UTILITY BACK

Physical: 1.78m, 85kg
Born: 28.04.84, Springs
Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs
Provincial Caps: 45 (Leopards-7; Pumas-15; Valke-11; Griffons-2; Toyota FS XV-5; Toyota FS Cheetahs-26)
Provincial Points: 287/19t (Leopards-42/2t; Pumas-89/5t; Valke-42/3t; Griffons-14/0t; Toyota FS XV-29/1t; Toyota FS Cheetahs-71/8t)
Provincial Debut: 2006 v Griffons (Leopards)
Super Rugby Caps: 16
Super Rugby Points: 52 (2t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Highlanders

He can play with great ease in any position in the backline, except for scrumhalf. He is a speedy utility back, strong runner with the ball, a gifted kicking footballer and his defence is solid. The Toyota Free State Cheetahs is this experienced players' fifth province.

ADRIAAN STRAUSS – HOOKER

Physical: 1.84m, 110kg
Born: 18.11.85, Bloemfontein
Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs
Provincial Caps: 76 (Blue Bulls-22; Toyota FS Cheetahs-54/33c)
Provincial Points: 55 (Blue Bulls-3t; Toyota FS Cheetahs-8t)
Provincial Debut: 2005 v Leopards (Blue Bulls)
Super Rugby Caps: 72 (Bulls-8; Cheetahs-64/27c)
Super Rugby Points: 40 (Bulls-0t; Cheetahs-8t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Hurricanes (Bulls)
Test Caps: 21
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2008 v Australia

As captain Adriaan Strauss led the Toyota FS Cheetahs to many victories in 2009 (final), 2010 (semi-final) and 2011 (semi-final) in the Absa Currie Cup competition. Strauss is a strong scrummager and is one of the Cheetahs' best ball carriers who boast both power and pace. His excellent performance during 2009 gained him a spot in the Springbok squad touring Europe. He is one of premier hookers in the country. After a great Currie Cup campaign he was again selected in 2010 to tour Britain & Ireland. He was very unlucky to miss out on 2011 World Cup in New Zealand. He was Springboks vice-captain in 2012.

FRANCOIS UYS – FLANK

Physical: 1.94m, 112kg
Born: 12.03.86, Springs
Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs
Provincial Caps: 95 (Lions-24, Lions XV-1, Griffons 10, Emerging Cheetahs-1; Toyota FS XV-5; Toyota FS Cheetahs-54)
Provincial Points: 65 (Lions-5t; Toyota FS XV-1t; Toyota FS Cheetahs-7t)
Provincial Debut: 2006 v Valke (Lions)
Super Rugby Caps: 19
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Blues

Although his usual position is on the flank, he was required to play at no 4 lock in the absence of the injured teammate. Since then Francois excelled as lock with his fiery play. Uys got a bit of international rugby after playing for the FS Cheetahs against the British & Irish Lions and representing the SA U19 team in 2005.

PHILIP VAN DER WALT – FLANK

Physical: 1.94m, 110kg

Born: 14.07.89, Adelaide

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 23

Provincial Points: 20 (4t)

Provincial Debut: 2010 v Sharks XV

Super Rugby Caps: 24

Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Crusaders

This red headed flanker is relatively new to the senior ranks and will be looking to get more game time this year after making his Super Rugby debut against the Crusaders in 2010. Due to injury he only played in a total of 12 matches during 2011 but as in 2010 Philip excelled with his fiery play. He is a Springbok sevens player.

TORSTEN VAN JAARSVELD – HOOKER

Physical: 1.76m, 100kg

Born: 30.06.87, Windhoek

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 70 (Pumas).

Provincial Points: 55 (11t)

Senior Debut: 2008 v EP Elephants

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Torsten van Jaarsveld is one of three hookers in the squad. He played 70 matches for the Pumas before coming to Bloemfontein for the 2013 season. He will be making his Super Rugby debut in 2013. He played for the Northern Barbarians against the touring English team in 2012. He made his first class for the Pumas in 2008.

PIET VAN ZYL – SCRUMHALF

Physical: 1.74m, 84kg

Born: 14.09.89, Johannesburg

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 24

Provincial Points: 25 (5t)

Provincial Debut: 2010 v SWD Eagles

Super Rugby Caps: 15

Super Rugby Points: 0 (1t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Bulls

He took advantage of his chances as an impact player for Tewis de Bruyn and after some brilliant performances this little livewire, stocky scrumhalf earned his place in the Toyota Free States' starting 15 for the last 10 games in the 2011 Absa Currie Cup competition. After a very successful Super Rugby stint a shoulder injury cut his Absa Currie Cup 2012 season short.

WALTIE VERMEULEN – LOCK

Physical: 1.98m, 106kg

Born: 11.11.88, Bloemfontein

Province: Toyota FS Cheetahs

Provincial Caps: 34

Provincial Points: 0

Provincial Debut: 2008 v Leopards

Super Rugby Caps: 16

Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Bulls

After playing for the SA Students in 2008 he made his Free State Cheetahs' provincial debut in that same year. An excellent athlete with size, speed and ball skills. For such a huge, imposing forward, his real attribute lies in his mobility around the field, as he will be pushing for a permanent place in the starting line-up.

Super Rugby Caps: 40
Super Rugby Points: 20
Test Debut: Toured with Springboks in 2010
Test Caps: 0
Test Points: 0

Andries Strauss joins the Southern Kings for their debut super rugby season, bringing depth to the Kings midfield. A former SA Schools, Under 19 and Under 21 player, Strauss has also spent time as a Sevens Springbok, which shows in his superb defensive and distribution skills. A technically astute player, Strauss started his Super Rugby career with the Sharks in 2006. He moved back to the Cheetahs, where he had played at Currie Cup level between 2004 and 2005. At the end of 2010, he also received a late call-up to the Springbok touring squad to face a star studded Barbarians side at Twickenham.

STEVEN SYKES – LOCK

Physical: 1.98m, 116kg

Born: 05.08.84, Middleburg, Eastern Cape

Test Points: 0

After leaving Marlow High School in 2002, Steven Sykes played for the SA Under 19 side, which won the World Championship in Paris. He signed with the Sharks academy, beginning his professional career with the Natal Sharks in 2005. Two years later he made his Super Rugby debut, running on for the Sharks in 2007. Sykes developed his game over the following two years, earning himself a call up to the Springbok team to play against the British and Irish Lions in 2009. In 2010 Sykes continued to prove his worth to the Sharks, playing a key role in the Currie Cup campaign. In 2011 Sykes briefly joined Heineken Cup Champions and Pro 12 League winners, Leinster, but decided to return to the Sharks. At the end of last year he signed with the Eastern Province Kings for two years.

WIMPIE VAN DER WALT – LOOSE FORWARD

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Test Debut: 2005 for Argentina vs Samoa
Test Caps: 31
Test Points: 0

Nicolás Vergallo played for Jockey Club de Rosario in Argentina between 2004 and 2008. He then moved to France, where he played for Dax, making 47 appearances.

After playing for Dax, Vergallo signed for Top 14 team Toulouse, who won the 2010/11 and 2011/12 Top 14 seasons. In October 2012, Toulouse announced that it had released Vergallo from his contract, which was supposed to end in 2014. This freed him up to sign with the Port Elizabeth-based Super Rugby franchise, the Southern Kings.

Vergallo made his Test debut for Argentina on 3 Dec 2005 against Samoa. He also played in the 2011 Rugby World Cup. In 2012 Vergallo was part of the Pumas team that played in the inaugural Rugby Championship.

LUKE WATSON – LOOSE FORWARD

Physical: 1.83m, 103kg
Born: 26.10.83, Port Elizabeth

Test Caps: 10
Test Points: 0

Luke Watson attended Grey High School in Port Elizabeth and represented the Eastern Province XV at the 2000 Craven Week, aged 16, then again in 2001. Watson was selected for the SA Academy squad in 2000. In 2001 he was chosen as captain of the SA Schools team which played the French Under 18 side. In 2002 Watson was chosen to captain the SA Under 19 team at the IRB Junior World Championship in Italy and was selected to play for the SA Sevens team that played at the Commonwealth Games. In 2004 Watson captained the South African Under 21 team at the IRB Under 21 Rugby World Championship.

Watson made his Provincial debut for Eastern Province against the Pumas on 20 July 2002. He then relocated to Durban in 2003 where he represented the Sharks in the Currie Cup and the Coastal Sharks in the Super 12. In 2005 he moved to Cape Town where he played for both Western Province and the Stormers until 2007, where he captained the side. In 2007 he was named Super Rugby player of the year.

GEORGE WHITEHEAD – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.84m, 86kg
Born: 17.03.89, Bloemfontein
Provincial Debut: 2009 Cheetahs
Provincial Caps: 39
Provincial Points: 237
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Born in Bloemfontein, George Whitehead started playing for the Free State Cheetahs in youth competitions, representing them in Under 16 Grant Khomo week, Under 18 Craven Week and both the ABSA Under 19 and Under 21 competitions. Whitehead made his professional debut for the Cheetahs in the 2009 Vodacom Cup and Currie Cup Premier Division competitions. He also represented the University of Free State in the Varsity Cup in 2010 and 2011. He joined the Eastern Province Kings in 2011.

JOHN PLUMTREE – HEAD COACH

Born: 16.07.65, Hawera Taranaki NZ

Coaching Career:

1997-2001: Swansea (Wales); 2001-2002: Video Analyst (All Blacks); 2002-2006: Wellington Lions (NZ); 2006-current: The Sharks

John Plumtree has been successful with The Sharks both as a player and coach, winning Currie Cup medals for the team in both roles. After retiring from playing, he spent five years coaching Swansea in Wales, achieving considerable success early on.

He returned to the country of his birth to take on the role of All Black video analyst under then-coach John Mitchell before spending the following five years as Wellington Lions coach in the NPC from 2002-06.

He returned to Durban to take on the Super 14 assistant coaching role under Dick Muir the following year before taking over as head coach of the Currie Cup team. The same scenario played out in 2008 when he was named full-time head coach in the second half of the season where he tasted success with The Sharks when they won their first Currie Cup title in 12 years.

He followed that up with a second title in three years, winning South Africa's premier domestic tournament in 2010 before taking The Sharks to the knock-out rounds of the 2011 Super Rugby tournament and the final of the Currie Cup where they were beaten by the Lions.

In 2012, he took The Sharks to consecutive finals – against the odds featuring in all three knock-out matches of the Finals Series where they eventually lost to the Chiefs in Hamilton, and finishing top of the Currie Cup log to host the final, losing to Western Province in Durban.

John's accomplishments were recognised when he won ABSA Coach of the Year.

A technically astute coach who enjoys a strong relationship with his players, he will look to kick on to greater things in the 2013 campaign.

HUGH REECE-EDWARDS – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 05.01.61, Johannesburg

Coaching Career: 1996-1999: Sharks Assistant Coach; 1996 – Springbok Assistant Coach; 2000 – The Sharks Coach; 2001-2003: Wildebeest and Club Coach; 2005-2009: WBHS Coach; 2010 – current: Assistant Coach – The Sharks

Hugh Reece-Edwards was the first major long-term Sharks player, representing the province at fullback in 159 games from 1982 to 1995. He also played in three Tests for the Springboks and a total of 12 games for South Africa.

After his retirement from a 14 year playing career, his coaching career started in 1996, under then coach Ian McIntosh whom he followed as Springbok Assistant Coach before taking over as Head Coach of The Sharks in 2000. Between 2001 and 2009 he coached at school and Wildebeest level before returning as assistant coach in 2010, enjoying success in his first year back when The Sharks won the Currie Cup.

GRANT BASHFORD – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 20.10.67, Durban

Playing Career: 1990-1993 – Natal XV & Natal

Coaching Career: 1986-2000: Coaching at school level; 1997-2000: Crusaders (club level); 2000-2006: KZN U19, U21, President XV & Wildebeest; 2006 – current: Assistant Coach – The Sharks

Assistant coach Grant Bashford is a rare provincial dual sportsman, having represented the province at rugby (scrumhalf) and cricket (batsmen/wicket keeper) before embarking on a coaching career at schoolboy level in the mid-1980s. He has progressed to club and provincial level, through the ranks of age group rugby (KZN U19, U21) and President's XV and the Wildebeest.

From there, he progressed to the senior coaching ranks in 2006 and in 2008 attended a High Performance Coaches Course at IRANZ, and was part of the successful set-up that steered The Sharks to winning the 2008 and 2010 Currie Cup campaigns.

WILLEM ALBERTS – FLANK

Physical: 1.92m, 120kg
Born: 11.05.84, Pretoria
Province: The Sharks
Province Caps: 53 (Lions 35, Sharks 18)
Province Points: 55 (11t) (Lions 7t, Sharks 4t)
Province Debut: 2005 v WP (Lions)
Super Rugby Caps: 79 (Lions 37, Sharks 42)
Super Rugby Points: 45 (9t) (Lions 4t, Sharks 5t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Waratahs (Lions)
Test Caps: 20
Test Points: 25 (5t)
Test Debut: 2010 v Wales

Willem is one of the more physical intimidating opponents in the tournament who relishes his role as a big ball-carrier, breaking through opposition tackles, as well as big defensive hits on his opposition. Having come to The Sharks from the Lions, he realised a bigger dream of playing for the Springboks when he was selected to represent his country in 2010, gaining his 20th cap in the Springbok end of year tour in 2012.

MEYER BOSMAN – CENTRE

Physical: 1.92m, 100kg
Born: 19.04.85, Bethlehem
Province: The Sharks
Province Caps: 82 (Cheetahs 59, Sharks 23)
Province Points: 251 (12t, 37p, 40c) (Cheetahs 119 points, Sharks 132 points)
Province Debut: 2005 v Griffons (Cheetahs)
Super Rugby Caps: 95 (Cheetahs 61, Sharks 34)
Super Rugby Points: 212 (8t, 38p, 29c) (Cheetahs 188 points, Sharks 24 points)
Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Bulls (Cheetahs)
Test Caps: 3
Test Points: 7 (1p, 2c)
Test Debut: 2005 v Wales

Meyer has proved to be a valuable member of The Sharks squad since joining the franchise for the 2011 season.

His versatility has served the team well and he has performed with distinction in his preferred position at centre as well as at flyhalf.

His outstanding kicking adds to his arsenal of skills while his distribution game is highly-regarded.

A big ball-carrying player, he adds greatly to The Sharks team.

JACQUES BOTES – FLANK

Physical: 1.82m, 97kg
Born: 28.11.80, Nelspruit
Province: The Sharks
Province Caps: 136 (Pumas 27, Sharks 109)
Province Points: 215 (43t) (Pumas 5t, Sharks 38t)
Province Debut: 2002 v Eagles (Pumas)
Super Rugby Caps: 105
Super Rugby Points: 130 (26t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2005 v Stormers

One of the most highly-respected players, both as a Shark and as an opponent. A highly-professional individual who has always delivered consistently on the field and adds great value as a try-scorer, with 64 tries in his long career with The Sharks.

With 214 senior appearances in the Black and White jersey, he is the most capped player in the current squad.

ANTON BRESLER – LOCK

Physical: 1.98m, 112kg
Born: 16.02.88, Windhoek Namibia
Province: The Sharks
Province Caps: 28
Province Points: 5 (1t)
Province Debut: 2010 v Griquas
Super Rugby Caps: 24
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Cheetahs

Anton has risen through the ranks at The Sharks and has matured in a brief space of time into a very competitive second-rower. He combines all the roles required of a lock with a fiery presence in open play. He enjoys the contact side of the game and is regularly amongst the top tacklers in his team. His development into a world class player will continue this season.

CRAIG BURDEN – HOOKER

Physical: 1.84m, 105kg

Born: 13.05.85, Durban

Province: The Sharks

Province Caps: 65

Province Points: 115 (23t)

Province Debut: 2006 v Pumas

Super Rugby Caps: 38

Super Rugby Points: 20 (4t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Cheetahs

A committed, locally-schooled Shark who has played all his rugby for the union, Craig is a livewire terrier of a hooker who revels in the open play, thanks to his former playing position of centre-cum-wing. He has now firmly established himself as a hooker in his newfound role and as a result of some outstanding performances, was called up into the Springbok squad for the 2012 Rugby Championship.

DALE CHADWICK – PROP

Physical: 1.83m, 113kg

Born: 20.06.89, Durban

Province: The Sharks

Province Caps: 25

Province Points: 10 (2t)

Province Debut: 2009 v Leopards

Super Rugby Caps: 10

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Bulls

In the absence of Springbok Tendai Mtawarira to injury and Springbok commitments respectively, this locally-schooled loosehead prop carried a heavy workload in 2012 and performed admirably, collecting 10 Super Rugby starts in his debut season at this level.

He will once again relish any opportunities for game time in this early stage of his career as he builds his repertoire of skills.

MARCELL COETZEE – FLANK

Physical: 1.91m, 106kg

Born: 08.05.91, Potchefstroom

Province Caps: 19

Province Points: 5 (1t)

Province Debut: 2011 v Blue Bulls

Super Rugby Caps: 23

Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Brumbies

Test Caps: 12

Test Points: 5 (1t)

Test Debut: 2012 v England

If a star has shone in a short space of time, then it is Marcell's. He is a hugely physical player with a massive work ethic and a tackle count that regularly tops the team's statistics.

Still young, he has become an important player not only for The Sharks but also the Springboks, having made his debut at Test level at just 21 years of age last year in only his second year of senior rugby.

KEEGAN DANIEL – NO.8

Physical: 1.88m, 97kg

Born: 05.03.85, Humansdorp

Province: The Sharks

Province Caps: 93

Province Points: 155 (31t)

Province Debut: 2006 v Pumas

Super Rugby Caps: 83

Super Rugby Points: 55 (11t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Reds

Test Caps: 5

Test Points: 0

Test Debut: 2010 v Ireland

Keegan has led The Sharks in their last three campaigns as captain when they competed in successive finals of all three competitions. A player highly rated and respected by his peers as a player who consistently delivers outstanding performances and leads by example, he was rewarded with Super Rugby Player of the Year by the South African coaches at the end of the 2012 season's SA Rugby Awards.

JEAN DEYSEL – FLANK

Physical: 1.91m, 112kg
Born: 05.03.85, Virginia (Free State)
Province: The Sharks
Province Caps: 72 (Lions 21, Sharks 51)
Province Points: 35 (7t) (Lions 1t, Sharks 6t)
Province Debut: 2005 v Griffons (Vodacom Cup – Lions)
Super Rugby Caps: 43
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Western Force
Test Caps: 4
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2009 v Italy

Having found himself unable to command a regular position at the Lions, he came to Durban and has established himself as a regular in the team. He is a strong-running loose-forward who relishes his role as big ball-carrier thanks to the physicality he brings to the game. He has had a difficult few years but an injury-free Currie Cup in 2012 should provide the impetus for a strong run in 2013.

BISMARCK DU PLESSIS – HOOKER

Physical: 1.89m, 112kg
Born: 22.05.84, Bethlehem
Province: The Sharks
Province Caps: 36
Province Points: 50 (10t)
Province Debut: 2005 v Leopards
Super Rugby Caps: 100
Super Rugby Points: 65 (13t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2005 v Waratahs
Test Caps: 46
Test Points: 30 (6t)
Test Debut: 2007 v Australia

The combative Springbok hooker won't start the Super Rugby campaign after sustaining a long term injury playing international rugby for South Africa in 2012, but once he arrives on the field, he will be just as competitive as opposition players and fans have become accustomed. A physically intimidating player, he is rated as world class by his opponents and team-mates.

JANNIE DU PLESSIS – PROP

Physical: 1.88m; 120kg
Born: 16.11.82, Bethlehem
Province: The Sharks

Springbok and Sharks tighthead prop, and brother of fellow Bok Bismarck, Jannie du Plessis shares his responsibilities as a qualified medical doctor with his rugby duties.

He prides himself on his scrumming prowess and getting stuck in during the tight phases. Like his brother, a fearsome competitor who has played at all levels of the game.

PIETER-STEPH DU TOIT – LOCK

Physical: 2.00m, 116kg
Born: 20.08.92, Cape Town
Province: The Sharks
Super Rugby Caps: 6
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Chiefs

A young player with a bright future, he was pulled into the senior Sharks side last year despite still playing age group rugby.

He suffered a season-ending injury midway through the year to curtail his development, but not before he played a critical role in the “Baby Boks” winning the IRB Junior World Championship.

His versatility is underlined by the fact that he has played representative rugby both at lock and flank.

MONDE HADEBE – HOOKER

Physical: 1.77m, 102kg

Born: 09.12.90, Durban

Province: The Sharks

Province Caps: 9

Province Points: 0

Province Debut: 2011 v Griquas

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Having come through the age-group ranks and having captained at all levels, his progression into The Sharks senior side has been no accident.

A strong scrummager with a high skill set, make him a valuable addition to the team.

He will look to build on his development as he follows in the footsteps of some of the country's greatest hookers at The Sharks.

WIEHAHN HERBST – PROP

Physical: 1.80m, 113kg

Born: 05.07.88, Klerksdorp

Province: The Sharks

Province Caps: 40

Province Points: 0

Province Debut: 2009 v Boland

Super Rugby Caps: 23

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Bulls

A hardy, tough and nugget front row forward, he has stepped in admirably over the last couple of seasons to deliver strong scrummaging performances for The Sharks.

A handy player in open play, his defence is superb and he provides all the roles required of a tighthead prop.

BUTCH JAMES – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.84m; 98kg

Born: 08.01.79, Johannesburg

Province: The Sharks

Province Caps: 59 (Sharks 45, Lions 14)

Province Points: 444 (7t, 77p, 86c, 2dg)
(Sharks 373 points, Lions 71 points)

Province Debut: 1999 v Falcons (Sharks)

Super Rugby Caps: 73 (Sharks 57, Lions 16)

Super Rugby Points: 441 (7t, 84p, 71c, 4dg)
(Sharks 390 points, Lions 51 points)

Super Rugby Debut: 2001 v Bulls (Sharks)

Test Caps: 42

Test Points: 159 (3t, 29p, 27c, 1dg)

Test Debut: 2001 v France

Butch returns to the province where his rugby career all started. After helping the Springboks to Rugby World Cup glory in 2007, he spent a number of years with Bath Rugby in the UK before returning to South Africa where he represented the Lions. 2013 is a year in which he will add great experience to The Sharks backline as well as providing a mentoring role to the young flyhalves in the system.

PAUL JORDAAN – CENTRE

Physical: 1.80m, 91kg

Born: 04.01.92, Somerset-East

Province: The Sharks

Province Caps: 11

Province Points: 15 (3t)

Province Debut: 2012 v WP

Super Rugby Caps: 10

Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Bulls

An immensely talented young player who will only get better and better, he was a member of the South African squad that won the Junior World Champs in South Africa last year.

Blessed with lightning-fast pace and an ability to turn on the spot, reminiscent of Christian Cullen, he presents a dangerous attacking option for the coaching staff and a deadly finisher to add to his abilities.

RYAN KANKOWSKI – NO.8

Physical: 1.93m, 109kg
Born: 14.10.85, Port Elizabeth
Province: The Sharks
Province Caps: 59
Province Points: 80 (16t)
Province Debut: 2006 v Lions
Super Rugby Caps: 75
Super Rugby Points: 80 (16t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Bulls
Test Caps: 20
Test Points: 5 (1t)
Test Debut: 2007 v Wales

Having enjoyed a six month stint playing club rugby in Japan, this season he will look to continue the form he showed when he left The Sharks on loan at the conclusion of last year's Super Rugby tournament. An exceptionally gifted natural athlete, his speed around the park is matched with a physical presence that has seen him develop into the consummate all-round No.8.

PATRICK LAMBIE – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.77m; 86kg
Born: 17.10.90, Durban
Province: The Sharks
Province Caps: 25
Province Points: 271 (5t, 54p, 42c)
Province Debut: 2009 v Griquas
Super Rugby Caps: 35
Super Rugby Points: 344 (7t, 71p, 48c)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Highlanders
Test Caps: 20
Test Points: 39 (9p, 6c)
Test Debut: 2010 v Ireland

Another phenomenally talented young player whose abilities were recognised early, he played Under 21 rugby for The Sharks while still eligible for Under 19s, and made his Springbok debut in 2010 at just 20 years of age. Already approaching 20 Tests for his country, he was an SA Rugby Player of the Year Nominee in 2011, a year in which he also represented the Boks at the Rugby World Cup.

LOUIS LUDIK – FULLBACK

Physical: 1.83m, 92kg
Born: 08.10.86, Kempton Park
Province: The Sharks
Province Caps: 80 (Lions 45, Sharks 35)
Province Points: 90 (18t) (Lions 12t, Sharks 6t)
Province Debut: 2006 v Sharks (Lions)
Super Rugby Caps: 68 (Lions 36, Sharks 32)
Super Rugby Points: 40 (8t) (Lions 4t, Sharks 4t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Waratahs (Lions)

He joined The Sharks from the Lions at a time when he had suffered a horrific injury which took a long time to heal, but his performances in 2012, especially in the latter stages of the domestic season, showed him to be in the form of his life and why he was recruited to The Sharks.

A very strong runner and defensive player who relishes the contact, and as the last line of defence, he is also one of the safest players under the high ball.

CHARL MCLEOD – SCRUMHALF

Physical: 1.80m; 88kg
Born: 05.08.83, Johannesburg
Province: The Sharks
Province Caps: 57 (Valke 11, Sharks 46)
Province Points: 55 (11t) (Valke 2t, Sharks 9t)
Province Debut: 2007 v WP (Valke)
Super Rugby Caps: 42
Super Rugby Points: 15 (3t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Brumbies
Test Caps: 1
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2011 v New Zealand

Now in his sixth season with The Sharks, Charl is a lively scrumhalf whose ability was recognised in 2010 when he played one tour match for the Springboks on their end of year tour, as well as a Tri- Nations appearance against New Zealand the following year. Offering crisp service, an educated boot and an eye for the gap, he is the all-round scrumhalf.

BEAST MTAWARIRA – PROP

Physical: 1.88m; 120kg

Born: 01.08.85, Harare Zimbabwe

Province: The Sharks

Province Caps: 35

Province Points: 15 (3t)

Province Debut: 2007 v Lions

Super Rugby Caps: 76

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Waratahs

Test Caps: 41

Test Points: 10 (2t)

Test Debut: 2008 v Wales

Sadly had to leave the Springbok end of year tour for a minor medical procedure which fortunately will not impact on his efforts during the Super Rugby season in 2013.

A crowd favourite, his ball-carrying exploits are generally met with a roar of “Beeeeest” from the crowds in stadia around the world.

LUBABALO MTEMBU – NO.8

Physical: 1.87m, 103kg

Born: 09.12.90, King Williams Town

Province: The Sharks

Province Caps: 6

Province Points: 5 (1t)

Province Debut: 2012 v WP

Super Rugby Caps: 1

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Stormers

An exciting young loose-forward talent who represented his country in 2010 at the IRB Junior World Championships as well as on the International Sevens circuit for the Springbok Sevens team before looking to entrench himself at The Sharks in the 15 man code.

A player blessed with exceptional speed and skill who combines attack with outstanding defence.

LWAZI MVOVO – WING

Physical: 1.85m; 94kg

Born: 03.06.86, Umtata

Province: The Sharks

Province Caps: 44

Province Points: 105 (21t)

Province Debut: 2008 v Boland

Super Rugby Caps: 40

Super Rugby Points: 75 (15t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Lions

Test Caps: 7

Test Points: 5 (1t)

Test Debut: 2010 v Scotland

Lwazi joined The Sharks Academy and was quickly drafted into The Sharks senior team, thanks to his ability to close out just about any opportunity. He is quick and immensely strong with a nose for the tryline. He toured with the Springboks at the end of 2012, having made his debut for South Africa in 2010. He is now into his sixth year with The Sharks and a valuable member of the squad.

ODWA NDUNGANE – WING

Physical: 1.84m; 93kg

Born: 20.02.81, Umtata

Province: The Sharks

Province Caps: 120 (Border 49, Blue Bulls 2, Sharks 69)

Province Points: 272 (54t, 1c) (Border 25t, Sharks 147 points = 29t, 1c)

Province Debut: 2000 v Eagles (Border)

Super Rugby Caps: 92 (Bulls 10, Sharks 82)

Super Rugby Points: 125 (25t) (Bulls 3t, Sharks 22t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2004 v Sharks (Bulls)

Test Caps: 9

Test Points: 10 (2t)

Test Debut: 2008 v Italy

A player hugely-respected amongst his team-mates for his exceptional work ethic and professionalism, he has accumulated 150 caps for The Sharks in all competitions since joining the union.

Instantly-recognisable with his flowing dreadlocks, he adds great amounts of experience to the backline and his composure on attack, defence and under the high ball is invaluable.

JP PIETERSEN – WING

Physical: 1.90m; 106kg

Born: 12.07.86, Cape Town

Province: The Sharks

Province Caps: 42

Province Points: 85 (17t)

Province Debut: 2005 v Boland

Super Rugby Caps: 87

Super Rugby Points: 165 (33t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Chiefs

Test Caps: 48

Test Points: 70 (14t)

Test Debut: 2006 v Australia

Now a senior member of The Sharks and Springbok squads with 48 Springbok matches and nearly 130 for The Sharks, JP is a hugely talented player who brings an element of physicality rarely seen in his position on the wing.

With his loping style of running, he frequently catches the opposition out with his speed, while his high work rate means he turns up all over the field in both attacking and defensive roles.

JP won the SARPA Player's Player of the Year in 2012.

COBUS REINACH – SCRUMHALF

Physical: 1.75m, 84kg

Born: 07.02.90, Bloemfontein

Province: The Sharks

Province Caps: 14

Province Points: 10 (2t)

Province Debut: 2011 v Blue Bulls

Super Rugby Caps: 1

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Bulls

Boasting an exceptional turn of speed and lightening quick service, his efforts for The Sharks in his debut Currie Cup season last year saw him earning a Player of the Month award. He is the son of a former Springbok wing and record-holding sprinting athlete and has received the right genes from father Jaco. In a short space of time has installed himself as a young player to keep an eye on for the future.

SIBUSISO SITHOLE – WING

Physical: 1.82m, 93kg

Born: 14.06.90, Johannesburg

Province: The Sharks

Province Caps: 19

Province Points: 20 (4t)

Province Debut: 2011 v Blue Bulls

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

S'burga as he is known to his team-mates, scored arguably the try of the season for the Springbok Sevens in 2010, settled into The Sharks to develop his rise into the senior squad, playing for The Sharks in the Currie Cup in 2010 and 2011. He is also a South African representative at the IRB Junior World Championships in 2010 and brings incredible pace, acceleration and power to the wing where he will look to develop his career further.

FRANCOIS STEYN – CENTRE

Physical: 1.91m; 110kg

Born: 14.05.87, Aliwal North

Province: The Sharks

Province Caps: 18

Province Points: 65 (4t, 6p, 12c, 1dg)

Province Debut: 2006 v Cheetahs

Super Rugby Caps: 40

Super Rugby Points: 85 (4t, 10p, 7c, 7dg)

Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Bulls

Test Caps: 53

Test Points: 132 (10t, 21p, 5c, 3dg)

Test Debut: 2006 v Ireland

Having played his early rugby with The Sharks before heading to play in France, he returned to The Sharks midway through last year before injury limited his participation both for the Springboks in the Rugby Championship and The Sharks in the Currie Cup.

A big, strong centre with a massive boot, capable of converting from the halfway line and further, he is an outstanding talent who, at only 25, has played over 50 times for his country, including the successful 2007 Rugby World Cup.

RIAAN VILJOEN – FULLBACK

Physical: 1.84m, 97kg

Born: 01.04.83, Carletonville

Province: The Sharks

Province Caps: 102 (Valke 93, Sharks 9)

Province Points: 226 (23t, 16p, 18c, 9dg)
(Valke 207 points, Sharks 19 points)

Province Debut: 2005 v Blue Bulls (Valke)

Super Rugby Caps: 38 (Cheetahs 26, Sharks 12)

Super Rugby Points: 65 (9t, 4p, 1c, 2dg)
(Cheetahs 45 points, Sharks 20 points)

Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Bulls (Cheetahs)

Having shown his ability for the Cheetahs, he was recruited to The Sharks for the 2012 season and will look to grow into his role further in 2013.

Possessing an absolutely massive boot, he provides his coaches with the kicking option, both out of hand and place-kicking from afar.

In 2012, he was pressed into service at flyhalf, away from his customary fullback position, delivering excellent performances in that role.

FRANCO VAN DER MERWE – LOCK

Physical: 1.98m, 116kg

Born: 15.03.83, Paarl

Province: Lions

Province Caps: 115 (Leopards 25,
Golden Lions 90)

Province Points: 35 (7t) (Golden Lions)

Province Debut: 2004 v Boland (Leopards)

Super Rugby Caps: 75

Super Rugby Points: 35 (7t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Waratahs (Lions)

Franco joins The Sharks on loan from the Lions who won't be competing in the tournament this year. Having captained the Lions before, he brings maturity and experience into the second row and with that experience, comes an ability to run the lineouts and provide mentoring to the other young locks in the system.

TIM WHITEHEAD – CENTRE

Physical: 1.88m, 90kg

Born: 30.05.88, Port Elizabeth

Province: The Sharks

Province Caps: 20 (WP 13, Sharks 7)

Province Points: 0

Province Debut: 2010 v Free State Cheetahs (WP)

Super Rugby Caps: 25 (Stormers 10, Sharks 15)

Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t) (Sharks)

Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Cheetahs (Stormers)

Tim came to The Sharks from the Stormers at the end of 2011 and enjoyed a good first year in Durban, the low being a broken hand sustained before the Super Rugby Final.

He played a responsible, mature role in a young backline proving exceptional on defence and exciting on attack where he varied his play well.

MILESTONES

- The Stormers have won the SA Conference trophy twice in succession – making them the only South African team to have held the SA Conference since the change to Super 15 in 2011.
- Experienced wing Bryan Habana won the 2012 South African Rugby Player of the Year Award, whilst young lock Eben Etzebeth – after his debut Super Rugby season in 2012 – won the Young Player of the Year Award. Etzebeth, in turn, won Forward of the Year at the DHL WP Awards and also the coveted Players' Player Award, with Habana winning the Back of the Year Award. Hooker Scarra Ntubeni was voted the most promising player and fellow forward Deon Fourie won the all-new adidas MVP Award.
- Lock Andries Bekker (94), flanker Schalk Burger (88), flyhalf Peter Grant (88) and centre Jean de Villiers (82) are all approaching the 100-game mark for the Stormers. Prop Deon Carstens (88) is nearing the 100-game mark at Super Rugby level, with a large majority of his matches having been for the Sharks.
- Ten Stormers players featured in the Springbok squad in 2012, with eight of them playing at least one Test. Three of those Stormers Springbok squad members were still eligible for the Western Province Under 21 team in 2012. In all, seven members of the 2012 Stormers squad were still U21 players.
- Twenty-eight members of the 2012 Stormers squad featured, at some point, for the 2012 Currie Cup-winning DHL Western Province squad.

ALLISTER COETZEE – HEAD COACH

Born: 23.05.65, Grahamstown

Stormers Coaching Debut: 2008

Other Coaching Roles: WP head coach (2008-), Stormers assistant coach (2008-2009), Cats assistant coach (2006), Springbok backline coach (2004-2007), EP Currie Cup head coach (2001-2003), Springbok midweek team head coach (2001-2002), SA U23 head coach (2000-2002)

The Absa Currie Cup-winning DHL Western Province coach will be looking to transfer DHL WP's Currie Cup and the Stormers' Vodacom Super Rugby Conference form into the big prize in 2013. The 2010 Coach of the Year was nominated for the same award in 2012, as well as being nominated as Coach of the Year at the star-studded SA Sports Awards. This is his fourth year in charge of the Stormers.

ROBBIE FLECK – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 17.07.75, Cape Town

Stormers Coaching Debut: 2010

Other Coaching Roles: WP backline coach (2009-), UCT backline coach (2008-2009), SA Under 20 backline coach (2008), SA Universities backline coach (2008)

The former Springbok vice-captain has slotted in seamlessly since joining the DHL WP and Stormers set-ups in 2009 and 2010, respectively. A deep thinker of the game, he played 31 Tests for the Springboks at centre and began his foray into coaching during a playing stint at Bath in England which, unfortunately, was cut short because of injury.

MATTHEW PROUDFOOT – ASSISTANT COACH

Born: 30.01.72, Klerksdorp

Stormers Coaching Debut: 2010

Other Coaching Roles: WP forwards coach (2009-), SA Universities head coach (2008), NWU-Pukke head coach (2005-2008)

The ex-Blue Bulls and Leopards prop played two Tests for Scotland before injury intervened and he then turned his attention to coaching. He had a successful stint as NWU-Pukke head coach before being lured to the Cape, where he has helped develop the DHL WP and Stormers set-pieces into feared units.

GIO APLON – WING

Physical: 1.75m, 80kg

Born: 06.10.82, Hawston

Province/Club: Western Province

Provincial/State Caps: 83

Provincial/State Points: 144

Provincial/State Debut: 2005 v The Sharks

Super Rugby Caps: 60

Super Rugby Points: 181 (35t, 3c)

Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Cheetahs

Test Caps: 17

Test Points: 25 (5t)

Test Debut: 2010 v Wales

His bravery knows no limits and his consistency in form and appearances are also a massive part of his game. Capable playing anywhere in the back three, Aplon's ability to break open a game makes him a crowd favourite at DHL Newlands, whilst his accurate and booming left boot adds to his arsenal.

DONOVAN ARMAND – FLANK

Physical: 1.91m, 110kg

Born: 23.09.88, Harare

Province/Club: Western Province

Provincial/State Caps: 18

Provincial/State Points: 5 (1t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Boland

Super Rugby Caps: 6

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Force

The hard-working forward made his Super Rugby debut as an injury replacement in 2012 and has not looked back since. He was part of the squad that won the SA Conference, having earlier in the year tasted success with the DHL WP Vodacom Cup team and, later in 2012, helping WP to the Absa Currie Cup title.

ANDRIES BEKKER – LOCK

Physical: 2.08m, 120kg

Born: 05.12.83, Goodwood

Province/Club: Western Province

Provincial/State Caps: 38

Provincial/State Points: 60 (12t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2004 v Boland

Super Rugby Caps: 94

Super Rugby Points: 55 (11t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2005 v Highlanders

Test Caps: 29

Test Points: 5 (1t)

Test Debut: 2008 v Wales

The son of former Springbok and WP star, Hennie, Andries played in 15 of the Stormers' 17 matches in 2012. He will again be a key man in 2013, given his mobility and legendary line-out prowess which saw him win back his Springbok place in 2012, before a freak toe injury intervened.

RUAN BOTHA – LOCK

Physical: 2.03m, 113kg

Born: 10.01.92, Brakpan

Province/Club: Western Province

Provincial/State Caps: 1 (Golden Lions)

Provincial/State Points: 0

Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Griffons

Super Rugby Caps: 5 (Lions)

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Chiefs

The highly-rated SA Under 20 lock has made a full-time move to Cape Town as he sets about building his senior career at the Stormers and DHL WP – despite still being eligible for Under 21 rugby in 2013.

SCHALK BURGER – FLANK

Physical: 1.93m, 114kg

Born: 13.04.83, Port Elizabeth

Province/Club: Western Province

Provincial/State Caps: 32

Provincial/State Points: 35 (7t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2003 v
Mighty Elephants

Super Rugby Caps: 88

Super Rugby Points: 35 (7t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2004 v Waratahs

Test Caps: 68

Test Points: 65 (13t)

Test Debut: 2003 v Georgia

One of the most decorated players in the history of South African rugby, the 2007 World Cup winner played just 30 minutes in the 2012 Vodacom Super Rugby tournament after picking up a knee injury. Winning a senior trophy at DHL Newlands, and winning back his Springbok place, remain key ambitions for the 2011 SA Rugby Player of the Year.

NIZAAM CARR – NO.8

Physical: 1.84m, 102kg
Born: 04.04.91, Cape Town
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 7
Provincial/State Points: 0
Provincial/State Debut: 2011 v Golden Lions
Super Rugby Caps: 7
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Blues

The 2012 season looked to be the breakthrough one for this young loose forward talent, only for a serious knee injury to curtail what had been a promising start to his Super Rugby career. His pace, skill and back row versatility mark him as a dangerman and he is definitely also one to watch for the future when it comes to international honours.

DEON CARSTENS – PROP

Physical: 1.83m, 116kg
Born: 03.06.79, Franschoek
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 98 (Sharks & WP)
Provincial/State Points: 45 (9t) (Sharks)
Provincial/State Debut: 2001 v Golden Lions (Sharks)
Super Rugby Caps: 88 (Sharks & Stormers)
Super Rugby Points: 20 (4t) (Sharks)
Super Rugby Debut: 2001 v Highlanders (Sharks)
Test Caps: 9
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2002 v Scotland

After playing his Under 21 and schools rugby for Western Province, Deon Carstens finally returned home in 2012 and, for his efforts, picked up two trophies in the colours of DHL WP. His experience will, again, be invaluable to those around him – especially his younger front row colleagues, all of whom played in the Absa Currie Cup-winning WP side.

PATRIC CILLIERS – PROP

Physical: 1.86m, 113kg
Born: 03.03.87, Pietermaritzburg
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 69 (Sharks & Golden Lions)
Provincial/State Points: 60 (12t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2007 v Western Province
Super Rugby Caps: 31 (The Sharks & Lions)
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Lions
Test Caps: 6
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2012 v Argentina

Cilliers offers great versatility and power to the Stormers front row, having signed a deal with Western Province which has seen him relocate permanently to the Cape from the Lions. A member of the 2011 Absa Currie Cup-winning Lions team, his signing is a huge coup for the Stormers after his impressive debut season for the Springboks in 2012.

KURT COLEMAN – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.77m, 84kg
Born: 29.01.90, Stellenbosch
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 22
Provincial/State Points: 65 (6t, 5p, 10c)
Provincial/State Debut: 2011 v Golden Lions
Super Rugby Caps: 5
Super Rugby Points: 31 (1t, 6p, 4c)
Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v The Sharks

After making his Vodacom Super Rugby debut at the age of 21, injuries held Kurt back in 2012 but he still played a big role in DHL WP's Vodacom Cup win before injury again had its say during the Absa Currie Cup season. An attacking flyhalf by nature, he has a more than handy kicking game to back it up too.

DAMIAN DE ALLENDE – CENTRE

Physical: 1.89m, 100kg
Born: 25.11.91
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 12
Provincial/State Points: 10 (2t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Pampas XV
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

He started playing rugby at the age of 14 only, but in the space of seven years has progressed swiftly through the ranks at DHL WP to end 2012 as an Absa Currie Cup winner. A powerful runner, with a strong distribution game, he can play either 12, or 13 and made his Absa Currie Cup debut on the wing.

JUAN DE JONGH – CENTRE

Physical: 1.77m, 88kg
Born: 15.04.88, Paarl
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 32
Provincial/State Points: 60 (12t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2009 v The Sharks
Super Rugby Caps: 46
Super Rugby Points: 30 (6t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Lions
Test Caps: 14
Test Points: 20 (4t)
Test Debut: 2010 v Wales

The committed centre has always been a favourite at DHL Newlands but he wrote himself into Province folklore with his stunning individual try in the 2012 Absa Currie Cup Final, as he helped his side to a stunning triumph in Durban over the Sharks. He has also shown himself to be something of a dancer, with his try-scoring celebrations earning him more headlines, but he has certainly backed that up with his fearless style of play.

JEAN DE VILLIERS – CENTRE

Physical: 1.91m, 100kg

Born: 24.02.81, Paarl

Province/Club: Western Province

Provincial/State Caps: 47

Provincial/State Points: 150 (30t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2001 v North West

Super Rugby Caps: 82

Super Rugby Points: 35 (7t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2005 v The Sharks

Test Caps: 84

Test Points: 100 (20t)

Test Debut: 2002 v France

Probably the most selfless rugby player in South Africa, the skillful Paarl-born player missed just two Super Rugby matches in 2012 and captained his country in every Test they played under new coach Heyneke Meyer. Injury saw him miss the 2012 Absa Currie Cup Final, but his influence behind the scenes was plain to see.

JP DU PLESSIS – CENTRE

Physical: 1.85m, 92kg

Born: 29.04.91, Kroonstad

Province/Club: Western Province

Provincial/State Caps: 16

Provincial/State Points: 15 (3t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Boland

Super Rugby Caps: 2

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Reds

The hot-stepping centre will never forget 2012, as he made his Super Rugby and provincial debuts for the Stormers and DHL WP. Whilst his Super Rugby chances were minimal, he impressed during the Absa Currie Cup with his willingness to attack, and will be wiser for his experiences last year.

DEWALDT DUVENAGE – SCRUMHALF

Physical: 1.73m, 82kg

Born: 22.05.88, Bellville

Province/Club: Western Province

Provincial/State Caps: 51

Provincial/State Points: 32 (5t, 1p, 2c)

Provincial/State Debut: 2008 v Valke

Super Rugby Caps: 56

Super Rugby Points: 30 (2t, 4p, 4c)

Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Bulls

A broken leg ended his 2012 Absa Currie Cup campaign, which allowed youngsters Nic Groom and Louis Schreuder a bite at the scrumhalf cherry. Dewaldt, however, will be determined to win back the No.9 jersey, which has always been highlighted by his speedy service and accurate kicking game.

RYNHARDT ELSTADT – FLANK

Physical: 1.93m, 114kg

Born: 20.12.89, Johannesburg

Province/Club: Western Province

Provincial/State Caps: 17

Provincial/State Points: 0

Provincial/State Debut: 2010 v Boland

Super Rugby Caps: 28

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Lions

The powerful Montagu High School scholar adds brute strength and versatility to the Stormers pack. He played at lock in 2011 and on the flank in 2012, his no-nonsense approach with ball in hand and on defence making him central to the Stormers' forward pack.

EBEN ETZEBETH – LOCK

Physical: 2.04m, 118kg
Born: 29.10.91, Cape Town
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 2
Provincial/State Points: 0
Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Cheetahs
Super Rugby Caps: 13
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Hurricanes
Test Caps: 11
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2012 v England

In 2011 Etzebeth helped UCT to the Varsity Cup title. Less than a year later he made his Super Rugby debut and he played his first Test before even playing in the Absa Currie Cup. Back-to-back Man of the Match Awards signalled his entry to Currie Cup rugby and he ended 2012 with 11 Test caps and the title as arguably the best young rugby player on the planet.

DEON FOURIE – HOOKER

Physical: 1.78m, 100kg
Born: 25.09.86, Pretoria
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 80
Provincial/State Points: 90 (18t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2006 v Boland
Super Rugby Caps: 55
Super Rugby Points: 30 (6t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2008 v Crusaders

The Absa Currie Cup-winning captain played out of position for most of 2012, as well as playing through the pain-barrier, demonstrating great leadership skills and shining as a loose forward – despite hooker being his favoured position. The ultimate team man was awarded the adidas MVP Award at WP, and walked off with the Absa Currie Cup Player of the Season gong at the annual SA Rugby Awards night.

PETER GRANT – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.86m, 93kg
Born: 15.08.84, Durban
Province/Club: Kobe Steelers
Provincial/State Caps: 55
Provincial/State Points: 281
Provincial/State Debut: 2004 v Golden Lions
Super Rugby Caps: 88
Super Rugby Points: 819
Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Lions
Test Caps: 5
Test Points: –
Test Debut: 2007 v Australia

Back from Japan after his third stint with the Kobe Steelers, Mr Reliable notched up 144 points in 2012 as he pushed himself closer to the magical 1,000-point mark in Vodacom Super Rugby. A deadly defender, his goalkicking was a crucial part of his – and the Stormers' – arsenal in 2012 and he will be looking to make his 100th appearance for the Stormers in 2013.

NIC GROOM – SCRUMHALF

Physical: 1.73m, 84kg
Born: 21.02.90, King Williams Town
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 37
Provincial/State Points: 30 (6t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2011 v Golden Lions
Super Rugby Caps: 2
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Cheetahs

A born winner, Groom was instrumental in the Vodacom Cup and Absa Currie Cup-winning DHL WP sides in 2012. A smart player, with a quicksilver pass and dangerous sniping game, he will be looking to become a Super Rugby regular after playing two matches in 2011. Nic, who is fluent in Xhosa, is still a student at UCT – balancing his rugby and studies.

BRYAN HABANA – WING

Physical: 1.79m, 94kg
Born: 12.06.83, Johannesburg
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 43 (35 Lions & Bulls, 8 WP)
Provincial/State Points: 140 (26t Lions & Bulls, 2t WP)
Provincial/State Debut: 2003 (Lions)
Super Rugby Caps: 106 (61 Bulls, 45 Stormers)
Super Rugby Points: 265 (48t Bulls, 16t Stormers)
Super Rugby Debut: 2005 (Bulls)
Test Caps: 83
Test Points: 235 (47t)
Test Debut: 2004 v England

What more can one say about the leading try-scorer in Springbok rugby history and a three-times winner of the SA Rugby Player of the Year Award? The top try-scorer in the inaugural Rugby Championship in 2012 – including a stunning hat-trick against the Wallabies in Pretoria – he would love dearly love to add a Super Rugby victory with the Stormers to his already jam-packed mantelpiece.

BROK HARRIS – PROP

Physical: 1.84m 117kg
Born: 22.02.85, Roodepoort
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 95
Provincial/State Points: 70 (14t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2006 v Sharks
Super Rugby Caps: 77
Super Rugby Points: 10 (2 t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2007 v Cheetahs

A mainstay in the Stormers pack since his Vodacom Super Rugby debut in 2007, Harris missed just one match in 2012. His experience, despite turning 28 years old in February 2013, and consistency have aided the emergence of young front row talent in the Cape and remains a central figure as the Stormers look to go one better in 2013.

PATRICK HOWARD – CENTRE

Physical: 1.87m, 100kg
Born: 27.03.92, Pietermaritzburg
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 3
Provincial/State Points: 0
Provincial/State Debut: 2012 v Cheetahs
Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped
Super Rugby Points: Uncapped
Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

The powerfully-built former Michaelhouse scholar made his Absa Currie Cup debut in 2012, after playing a big role for the victorious SA Under 20 side a few months earlier. He will relish the opportunity to train alongside De Villiers, De Jongh and Habana as he looks to establish himself in the senior ranks.

ELTON JANTJIES – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.76m, 88kg
Born: 01.08.90, Graaff Reniet
Province/Club: Golden Lions
Provincial/State Caps: 33 (Lions)
Provincial/State Points: 414
Provincial/State Debut: 2010 v Leopards
Super Rugby Caps: 27
Super Rugby Points: 228
Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Bulls
Test Caps: 3
Test Points: 6 (2p)
Test Debut: 2012 v Australia

The Springbok playmaker will ply his skills at Vodacom Super Rugby level for the Stormers for the first time this season as a loan player from the Lions. A deadly goalkicker with nearly 1,000 first-class points to his credit before his 23 birthday, a strong showing in Cape Town could see him stake a claim for a permanent place in Green & Gold in 2013.

STEVEN KITSHOFF – LOOSEHEAD PROP

Physical: 1.83m, 120kg
Born: 10.02.92, Paarl
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 20
Provincial/State Points: 5 (1t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2011 v Griffons
Super Rugby Caps: 20
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Chiefs

The softly-spoken front-row giant had played almost 50 first-class matches well before his 21st birthday – a staggering achievement at any level for a young front rower. He started the 2012 Absa Currie Cup Final, adding a second winners' medal of the year after playing a key role for the SA Under 20 side in the IRB Junior World Championships.

SIYA KOLISI – FLANK

Physical: 1.87m, 102kg
Born: 16.06.91, Eastern Cape
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 20
Provincial/State Points: 25 (5t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2011 v Golden Lions
Super Rugby Caps: 16
Super Rugby Points: 5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2012 v Hurricanes

At the start of 2012 not many people would have known who Siya Kolisi was. Fifty minutes into the 2012 Vodacom Super Rugby season, as a replacement for his captain Schalk Burger, the rugby world sat up and took notice. Quickly! His performances for the DHL Stormers saw him train with the Springboks before a broken thumb sustained in the Absa Currie Cup cut his season short. That first Test cap cannot, however, be too far away for this industrious loose forward.

TIAAN LIEBENBERG – HOOKER

Physical: 1.82m, 110kg

Born: 18.12.81, Kimberley

Province/Club: Western Province

Provincial/State Caps: 144 (22 KZN, 64 Griquas, 58 WP)

Provincial/State Points: 42

Provincial/State Debut: 2002

Super Rugby Caps: 76 (13 Cheetahs, 63 Stormers)

Super Rugby Points: 30 (1t Cheetahs, 4t Stormers)

Super Rugby Debut: 2006

Test Caps: 5

Test Points: 0

Test Debut: 2012 v Argentina

After making his Springbok debut against the Barbarians in 2007, Tiaan finally won his first Test cap five years later when he came off the bench in the all-new Rugby Championship. A powerful runner and strong scrummager, he missed the end of the Absa Currie Cup season with a neck injury, but his enthusiasm will see him hit the ground running in 2013.

FRANS MALHERBE – TIGHTHEAD PROP

Physical: 1.90m, 122kg

Born: 14.03.91, Paarl

Province/Club:

Provincial/State Caps: 29

Provincial/State Points: 0

Provincial/State Debut: 2011 v Blue Bulls

Super Rugby Caps: 21

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Lions

Another member of the tight five young brigade, this youngster's Rugby CV already speaks for itself. He looks a better player every time he takes to the field and he was recognised at national level too – twice being called up to the Springbok Test squad as injury cover. One of just three players to feature in every single Stormers match in 2012, he missed just one Absa Currie Cup match for DHL WP in 2012, when he was part of the Bok squad in Australasia.

SCARRA NTUBENI – HOOKER

Physical: 1.74m, 100kg

Born: 18.02.91, East London

Province/Club: Western Province

Provincial/State Caps: 20

Provincial/State Points: 5 (1t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2011 v Blue Bulls

Super Rugby Caps: 5

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Lions

The East London-born hooker made his provincial and Vodacom Super Rugby debuts in 2011, but 2012 will always be remembered as his breakthrough season. He played a bit-part role in the Stormers' 2012 campaign before featuring in all 12 Absa Currie Cup matches – including the final which he started. Scarra walked off with the DHL WP Most Promising Senior Player Award at the annual DHL WP Awards night.

JOE PIETERSEN – FULLBACK

Physical: 1.77m, 83kg

Born: 18.05.84, Vryheid

Province/Club: Western Province

Provincial/State Caps: 65

Provincial/State Points: 397

Provincial/State Debut: 2004 v Blue Bulls

Super Rugby Caps: 35

Super Rugby Points: 204 (9t)

Super Rugby Debut: 2006 v Cheetahs

His match-saving tackle in the 2012 Absa Currie Cup Final will go down in the annals of Western Province history as probably the most crucial – and clever – bit of defending in the union's history. A dangerous runner, Joe's try against the Highlanders in 2012 will also be remembered fondly.

MICHAEL RHODES – FLANK

Physical: 1.97m, 110kg
Born: 19.12.87, Durban
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 58 (37 Sharks, 21 Golden Lions)
Provincial/State Points: 55 (11t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2009 v Golden Lions (Sharks)
Super Rugby Caps: 11 (Lions)
Super Rugby Points: 10 (2t, Lions)
Super Rugby Debut: 2011

Another new face in the Stormers squad, the strapping Durban-born forward will add even more depth to the pack – either at lock, or on the side of the scrum. He made his Vodacom Super Rugby debut for the Lions, after playing Absa Currie Cup for the Sharks, and he was a try-scorer against his new side in their dramatic Currie Cup semifinal in October 2012.

LOUIS SCHREUDER – SCRUMHALF

Physical: 1.85m, 83kg
Born: 25.04.90, Paarl
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 32
Provincial/State Points: 15 (3t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2010 v Border
Super Rugby Caps: 17
Super Rugby Points: 0
Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Cheetahs

A talented ball-player, with the rugby pedigree to back it up, Louis was part of the Absa Currie Cup-winning DHL WP side in 2012, his second-half cameo in the semifinal – at flyhalf – showing just how much BMT he has. Along with Duvénage and Groom, the Stormers are certainly very well covered in the No.9 position.

DE KOCK STEENKAMP – LOCK

Physical: 1.97m, 112kg

Born: 16.02.87, Williston

Province/Club: Western Province

Provincial/State Caps: 50

Provincial/State Points: 5 (1t)

Provincial/State Debut: 2009 v The Sharks

Super Rugby Caps: 34

Super Rugby Points: 0

Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Lions

Despite battling with a few niggles during the latter stages of the 2012 Absa Currie Cup season, De Kock still featured in every match for DHL WP as they claimed a first title since 2001. An ever-present member of the matchday squad for the Stormers in 2011 and 2012 – as he edges closer to that magical 50-cap mark – he often gets overlooked for the headlines despite his consistency in the second row.

TIM SWIEL – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.80m, 80kg

Born: 04.06.93, Taunton

Province/Club: Western Province

Super Rugby Caps: Uncapped

Super Rugby Points: Uncapped

Super Rugby Debut: Uncapped

Tim represented SA Schools in 2011 and later that year, just after finishing his schooling, he trained with the Stormers' extended squad. This year he is again forming part of their pre-season preparations after a strong season for the WP Under 21 side, despite still being eligible for the U19s and being named in Dawie Theron's SA Under 20 training squad for 2013.

JACO TAUTE – FULLBACK

Physical: 1.87m, 98kg
Born: 21.02.91, Springs
Province/Club: Golden Lions
Provincial/State Caps: 31 (Lions)
Provincial/State Points: 68 (13t)
Provincial/State Debut: 2009 v Boland
Super Rugby Caps: 31 (Lions)
Super Rugby Points: 51 (8t)
Super Rugby Debut: 2010 v Western Force
Test Caps: 3
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2012 v Australia

After making his senior provincial debut as an 18-year-old, it was always a matter of 'when', not 'if', Jaco Taute would become a Springbok. He made his Test debut in the No.13 jersey, against the Wallabies, but he has played most of his rugby in the No.15 shirt for the Lions. A powerful, yet balanced runner, he also has a powerful boot. He could become a real asset for the Stormers, having joined the franchise on loan from the Lions.

GARY VAN ASWEGEN – FLYHALF

Physical: 1.78m, 87kg
Born: 18.02.90, Pretoria
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 6
Provincial/State Points: 37 (7p, 4c)
Provincial/State Debut: 2010 v Pumas
Super Rugby Caps: 6
Super Rugby Points: 12 (4p)
Super Rugby Debut: 2011 v Lions

Gary has been very unlucky with injuries, suffering two serious ankle injuries in 2012 – during the Vodacom Super Rugby season and DHL WP's successful Absa Currie Cup campaign. He remains a talented player, however, with a brilliant pass and the ability to play flat on the gainline. He will be determined to prove his worth in 2013.

GERHARD VAN DEN HEEVER – WING

Physical: 1.90m, 98kg
Born: 13.04.89, Bloemfontein
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 53 (41 for Blue Bulls, 12 for WP)
Provincial/State Points: 95 (17t for Bulls, 2t for WP)
Provincial/State Debut: 2009 v Griffons (for Bulls)
Super Rugby Caps: 46 (31 for Bulls, 15 for Stormers)
Super Rugby Points: 65 (12t for Bulls, 1t for Stormers)
Super Rugby Debut: 2009 v Stormers (Bulls)

A Vodacom Super Rugby player before his 21st birthday, Gerhard had already tasted Super Rugby and Absa Currie Cup success before joining the Stormers in 2012 – ending his first year in the Cape as a Currie Cup winner (again) with DHL WP. He played all but two of the Stormers' Super Rugby games in his debut season and all of their Currie Cup games later in the year. Powerful and quick – almost tipping the scales at 100 kilograms – this young man still has plenty to offer.

DUANE VERMEULEN – NO.8

Physical: 1.93m, 116kg
Born: 03.07.86, Nelspruit
Province/Club: Western Province
Provincial/State Caps: 89 (26 Pumas, 28 Cheetahs, 35 WP)
Provincial/State Points: 75 (8t Pumas & Cheetahs, 31 WP)
Provincial/State Debut: 2005
Super Rugby Caps: 72 (20 Cheetahs, 52 Stormers)
Super Rugby Points: 20 (2t Cheetahs, 2t Stormers)
Super Rugby Debut: 2007
Test Caps: 7
Test Points: 0
Test Debut: 2012 v Australia

After two years of untimely injuries, the powerful and influential Stormers No.8 finally pulled a Green & Gold jersey over his broad shoulders. He started six Tests in a row in 2012, ending the year as the Bok No.8 and that can only mean more trouble for his opponents – having terrorised opponents now for five years at Vodacom Super Rugby level. He was sorely missed in the business-end of the 2012 tournament and his fitness will be crucial for his side in 2013.
