South Africa vs Argentina

The Rugby Championship 2025

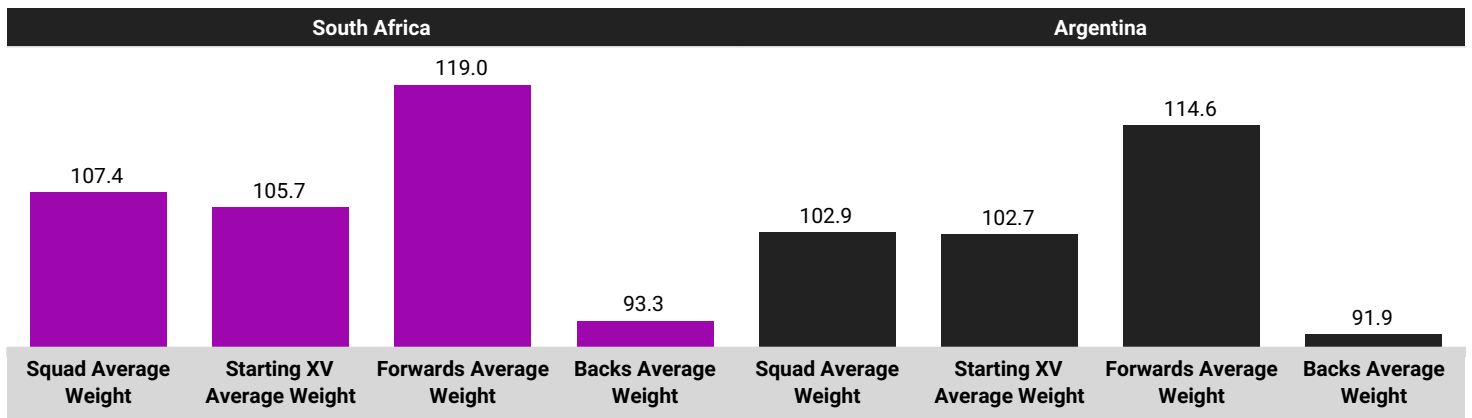

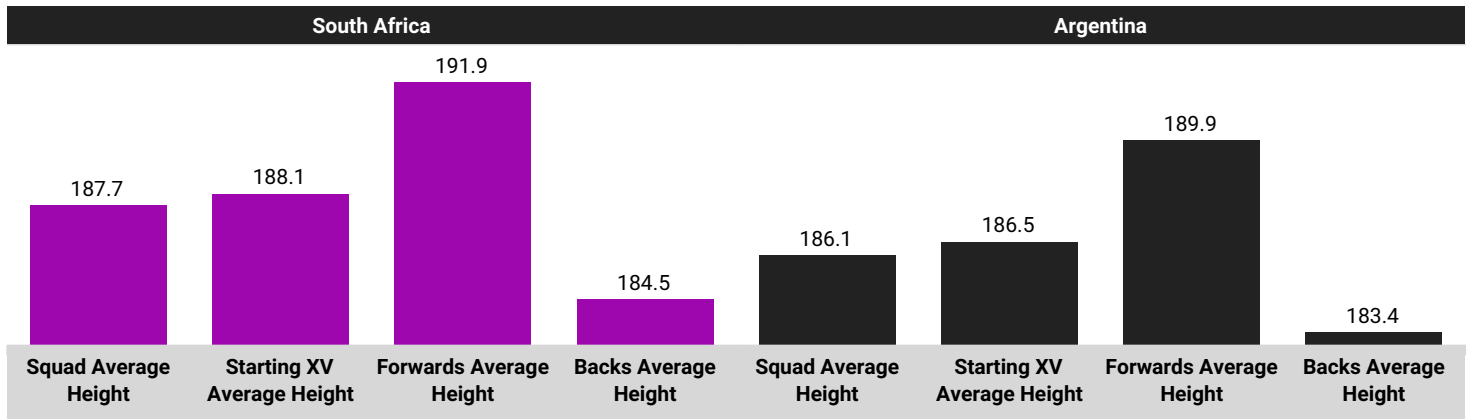

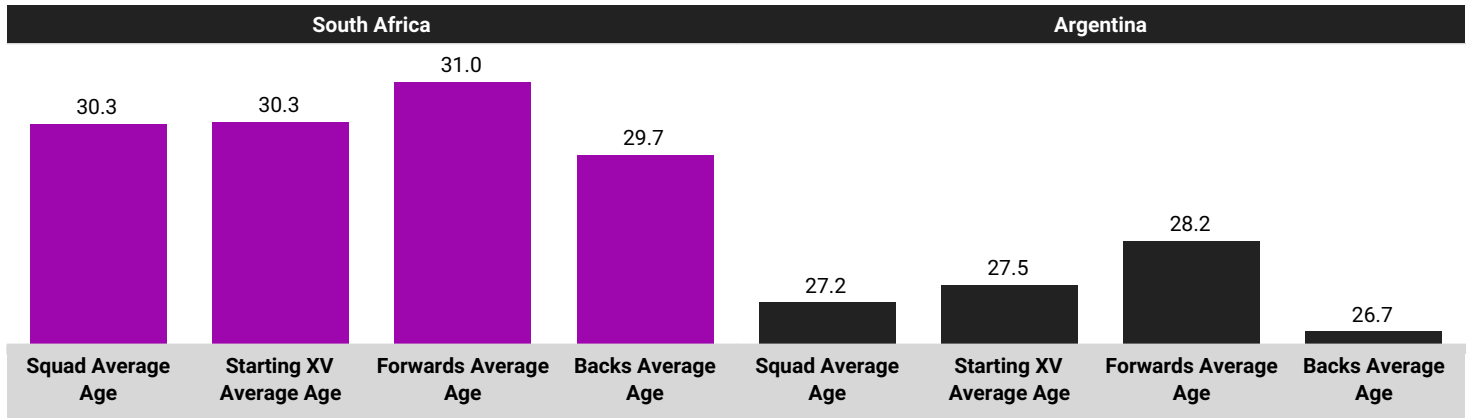

Opta Facts

- South Africa have won nine of their last 10 men's Tests against Argentina, conceding more than 21 points in a game only once in that frame, and won 48-7 in their most recent meeting which was the biggest win of either team in the last decade of this fixture.
- South Africa have won 18 of their last 19 men's Tests against Argentina in South Africa, including their last 10 in a row, while their only ever defeat at home to Los Pumas was in August 2015 (25-37).
- South Africa have alternated between wins and losses across their last seven games in The Rugby Championship and won 43-10 against New Zealand in their last Test; in fact, two of their four games at the 2025 edition of the tournament have been won by the team trailing at half-time on the day.
- South Africa have won four of their last five men's Tests at Hollywoodbets Kings Park in Durban with their only loss in that span coming in the form of a 24-25 defeat to Ireland in July 2024; indeed, they have won each of their last three games at the venue in The Rugby Championship.
- Argentina have won three of their last five men's Tests and will be looking to win back-to-back Tests for the first time since they defeated South Africa 29-28 on September 21, 2024; they'll be looking to defeat each of Australia, New Zealand, and South Africa at a single edition of The Rugby Championship for the second year in a row after never previously doing so.
- Argentina have led at half-time in each of their last two men's Tests away from home, going on to win one of those games (L1); though, while they've led by at least 12 points at half-time in each of those two games, they have not scored a second half try in either of them.
- South Africa have scored four tries on possession begun with a turnover won in The Rugby Championship 2025, the most of any team in the competition and three more than Argentina (1), while it is the Springboks (18) and Los Pumas (15) who have conceded the most turnovers per game of any teams at this tournament.
- Mateo Carreras (Argentina) has crossed the gainline on 82% of his 34 carries in the 2025 edition of The Rugby Championship, the highest rate of any player to make at least 20 carries at the tournament; he's also made dominant contact on 58% of those carries which is also the most among those players.
- Aphelele Fassi (South Africa) has not scored a try across his last four Tests, the longest try drought of his Test career, but has scored a try in each of his three career Tests against Argentina (4 in total).
- Tomas Albornoz (Argentina) has scored one try in each of his last two Tests against South Africa, scoring 21 points in total across that frame, while he's also been directly involved in three tries across his last four Tests away from home (2 tries, 1 try assist) and scored 54 points in that term.
